Serious Charges for Oscar Wilde.

The Apostle of Culture Gets Some Facers.

Lord Queensberry Has Stirred Up a Very Nasty Mess.

LONDON, April 3—Every available inch of the Old Bailey was occupied this morning when the hearing of the libel suit brought against the Marquis of Queensberry by Oscar Wilde was opened before Justice Collins.

Wilde charges the Marquis with leaving, February 28th, an uncovered card at the Albemarle Club on which was written certain foul epithets.

As a result, Wilde on March 2d caused the arrest of the Marquis, and the latter at Marlborough Street Police Court was placed under £500 bail.

The courtroom was crowded with lawyers.

Admission was obtained by ticket only, and the Sheriff in charge showed the representative of the Associated Press a pile of applications a foot high, many being from well known people.

Rumors were current in London yesterday that Wilde had suddenly left the city to avoid being present in court today, and reports were also current that startling developments would arise today.

But both of these rumors were set at rest by the arrival in court of the principals to the suit.

The Marquis, who wore a shabby overcoat, was placed in the dock and answered to the indictment by pleading first, not guilty, and secondly, that the libel was true and it was published for the public good.

The Marquis seemed unconcerned and replying to questions, spoke quietly and clearly.

Sir Edward Clarke, formerly Solicitor General, in opening the case, said the card left at Albemarle Club for Mr Wilde, was one of the visiting cards of Marquis of Queensberry.

Continuing, counsel said that the gravest issues had been raised, as the defendant in his pleadings, alleged the plaintiff had for sometime solicited persons named to commit indecent offenses.

Certain letters addressed by the plaintiff to Lord Alfred Douglass, second son of the Marquis of Queensberry were brought to the plaintiff by a man who said he was in distress and Wilde gave him £20 with which to pay his passage to America.

Another letter was handed Beerbohm Tree, the actor, who gave it to the plaintiff.

Counsel then recounted the facts already known in the case, showing Wilde, who had recently returned from Algiers, drove up to the Albemarle Club about 5 P. M. February 28th, and on entering was handed an envelope by hall porter Sidney Wright, who said: "Lord Queensberry desired me, sir, to hand this to you when you came to the club."

Inside the envelope plaintiff found a card, on the back of which was the date, 4 30, 18, 2, 95, and on this card were written certain foul epithets which formed the basis of the suit.

OSCAR TAKES THE STAND

Oscar Wilde was called. He languidly arose from the solicitor's table, where he was seated, and entered the witness box.

The plaintiff was faultlessly dressed in a black frock coat and carried gloves in his hand, showing his fingers covered with rings.

He was very pale, but seemingly composed.

Wilde spoke with his customary drawl, leaning his arms upon the rail of the witness box and replying distinctly to the questions.

The jury, which was composed of very intelligent men of elderly appearance, mainly prosperous tradesmen, eyed him with curiosity.

Witness said that upon arriving at the house, a few months ago, he found two gentlemen waiting in the library.

One was the Marquis of Queensberry, the other unknown to the plaintiff.

The former said: "Sit down."

"I replied," said Wilde: "Lord Queensberry, I will not allow any one to talk that way in my house. I suppose you have come to apologize. It is possible you accuse me and your son of sodomy."

He replied: "I don't say it, but you look like it and appear like it."

Counsel for plaintiff then asked the witness about the man to whom he had given £20 with which to pay his passage to America.

Witness said: "The man told me he had been offered £60 for the letter and I advised him immediately to accept it. But I finally gave him the money in order to relieve his distress and he gave me a letter."

THOSE 'ROSE-RED LIPS'

The document referred to was here produced in court and was handed to Justice Collins.

The letter referred to the "rose-red lips" of Lord Alfred Douglass and the writer addressed him as "My own boy" and asked, "Why are you alone in London?" The letter was signed, "With undying love, Oscar."

Counsel, in explaining this letter, said it might seem extravagant to those in the habit of writing letters.

"But" he added, "it was mere poetry." [Laughter.]

Interest in the case was increased when Sir Edward Clark, upon finishing the direct examination, turned the witness over to E H Carson, Q. C. M. P. counsel for the Marquis of Queensberry, for examination.

Carson began his presentation of the case for the Marquis by reading passages from "Dorian Gray," one of Oscar Wilde's novels of modern life to show the author upheld sodomy, the plaintiff following counsel with a copy of the book and laughing at Carson's insinuation.

Carson, addressing the plaintiff asked: "Do you think the description of 'Dorian Gray,' given on page 6, is a moral one?"

"Yes," replied Wilde; "just what an artist would notice in beautiful personality."

"Did you ever adore madly, as described in 'Dorian Gray' any person of the male sex younger than yourself?" was the next question.

In reply, Wilde said "I took the idea from Shakespeare's sonnets."

During this portion of the proceedings the Marquis of Queensberry followed his counsel with a copy of "Dorian Gray" in hands, with seeming enjoyment.

Wilde testified that the man to whom he gave £20, on receipt of the letter in which he referred to the "rose red lips" of Lord Douglass, which amount was used to pay his passage to America, was named Wood.

[illegible] AND UNDYING LOVE

Replying to questions by Mr Carson, Wilde said the letter to Lord Alfred was merely "poetical," and he added he had "undying love" for Lord Alfred, who, he claimed was his best friend.

Witness denied having misconducted himself with Wood.

The latter, he added, was introduced to him by Lord Alfred, who asked him to befriend him.

Wilde and Wood, it was shown by cross-examination, addressed each other by their Christian names.

It was also developed in writing that he did not concern himself to produce morality or immorality.

He had no purpose and was concerned merely with literature, beauty, wit and emotion.

He rarely thought of anything he wrote as true. Indeed, he might say never in regard to Dorian Gray.

Sir Edward Clarke objected to Carson cross-examining his client on that novel as it appeared in Lippincott's Magazine and not as it was published in England.

Wilde thereupon stepped from the witness box and whispered a few words to his counsel after which Sir Edward Clarke withdrew his objection.

The cross-examination was very severe and brought out great differences in the ages of Oscar Wilde and Lord Alfred Douglass, the former was born in 1856 and the latter in 1870, how the two had visited various towns together, stopped at the Savoy Hotel together and how Lord Alfred visited Wilde's chamber.

Carson then drew out Wilde's opinion regarding literature in general, to which line of cross-examination the plaintiff made many smart responses in the same line as in his plays.

"The interpretation of my works does not concern me," said Wilde. "I don't care 'tuppence' for what the Philistines think about me."

A NEWSBOY TOO

Carson severely repressed the levity of the witness and began a more serious phase of cross-examination, by questioning Wilde about his intimacy with a newsboy 18 years of age, belonging to Worthing, and brought out the fact that Wilde took the boy to a hotel at Brighton.

"Why did you seek the boy's society?" asked Carson. "Was it for an intellectual treat?"

"Oh, he was a bright, careless, amusing creature," replied the witness.

Carson here produced a silver cigarette case handsome cane and book, which Wilde admitted he had given the newsboy.

The cross-examination then touched upon Wilde's relations with various boys and men, and the questions were so pointed as to be unprintable.

Wilde, however, emphatically denied that he had done anything improper, but was troubled and confused under the terrible cross-examination to which he was subjected, and frequently drank water.

In fact, he seemed ready to faint, and a chair was placed inside the witness stand for his use.

Throughout the questioning the plaintiff, the Marquis of Queensberry stood facing him, and did not take his eyes off him.

The cross-examination of Wilde was not finished when the court adjourned at 5 P M.

A large crowd had assembled about Old Bailey to see Wilde leave.

Republicans Are on Top.

Every District Shows Big Gains.

Swift Had an Easy Victory in Chicago.

Democrats Knocked Out in Their Own Strongholds.

CHICAGO, April 3—Complete returns give George B. Swift for Mayor a plurality of 41 119 the largest ever known here in a similar contest.

The Civil Service law was carried by a majority of 45 000.

Other candidates on the Republican city ticket were all elected although Trude, the Democratic candidate for City Attorney, ran nearly 9 000 ahead of his ticket.

The Republicans also made a clean sweep of the town offices south, north and west and in the annexed district of Hyde Park and Lakeview while in the town of Lake and the Stockyards district, one of the supposed Democratic strongholds the Republican landslide was remarkable.

The election gives Republicans complete control of the City Council, which will contain fifty Republicans and only eighteen Democrats.

[illegible] Helmer, People's party candidate for Mayor, received 11 000 votes, less than half as many as polled by the third party [illegible].

The plan of campaign of the Democrats [illegible] for Mayor Frank Wenter, was to cut into the German Republican vote and on this theory, he expected to be elected.

An analysis of the returns shows he did get some German Republican votes, but the Irish Democratic votes he lost more than offset the gains among the Germans.

Bohemians, Poles and Italians also apparently deserted him.

The greatest reinforcement Swift and his ticket received was from the laboring class.

Many of those who voted the People's party ticket last fall went to the Republicans.

Wenter declined to discuss the result except to say "I did it for the people and not for another Democratic mayor at this time."

Mayor Hopkins (Dem) was apparently not surprised over the result. "We have carried civil service," he said with a twinkle in his eye, when asked what he thought of the result.

Chairman Peabody of the Democratic Campaign Committee said: "Instead of coming to Wenter's support, I think foreign-born citizens want it understood that they are Americans, and for this reason they rather resented the claims set up as to their prejudices."

Mayor-elect Swift said "It is a source of great satisfaction to know the people of Chicago have outgrown the campaign vilification and appeals to race prejudice."

Martin Madden, (Rep) vice president of the Western Stone Company, defeated Attorney Frank Walker (Dem) for Alderman in the Stock Yards Fourth ward.

Noble B. Judah (Rep) is another notable winner for a seat in the City Council.

"Hinkey Dink" Kenna went down with the other Democrats, his successful opponent being Patrick Gleason, Republican.

"Buck" McCarthy, Republican, won in the Stockyards district. This was the greatest surprise of the election.

About the only non-Republican who squeezed in was ex-Congressman Frank Lawler, Independent, who owing to a quarrel between the Republican factions, captured the seat of Alderman by an exceedingly narrow margin.

Mayor-elect Swift has decided to appoint O. D Wetherill City Controller. Mr. Wetherill held this position under the administration of Mayor Harrison.

WENT FOR PROTECTION.

MILWAUKEE, April 3—Returns indicate that Judge Winslow of Madison is re-elected Justice of the Supreme Court over Judge Clementson of Lancaster, Republican nominee, by a majority of 10 000.

The cities and villages generally went Republican.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS DID.

ST LOUIS, April 3 — Of forty-four municipalities in Missouri heard from, the Democrats were successful in twenty-five, the Republicans in nine, and the Citizens' ticket in five, while in five other cities there was a mixed result.

Among the larger cities in which the Democratic tickets were elected are Springfield, Mexico, Independence, Nevada, Moberly, Joplin, Centralia, Paris, Poplar, Bluff, Salem, Monett, Carrolton, Fayette, Neosho, Gallatin, Richmond and Bowling Green.

Sedalia, Macon, Carthage, Lebanon and St. Joseph are principally Republican cities.

Full returns of yesterday's election show that Moses Cravens, a negro, reported last night elected to the lower house of the Municipal Assembly from the Fifteenth ward, was defeated, and George Sisppel, a white Democrat, was elected.

Mary Walker in Court.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 3.—Dr. Mary Walker, an eccentric woman who persists in wearing male attire, pleaded her own case today in a contest of her aunt's will. The judge decided against her and allowed the will.

HAVING A GOOD TIME.

How Ex-Queen "Lil" Passes Her Prison Life.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 3—A letter has been received from Q. C. Wharton, an Indianapolis man, who is a member of the National Guards, doing guard duty over ex-Queen Liliuokalani at Honolulu.

Wharton says, "The ex-Queen is a prisoner upstairs over our barracks. She is allowed a woman attendant all the time, and as the natives are all musicians they seem to enjoy themselves. The time is mostly passed in singing and dancing. This is the way the ex-Queen is expected to pass the next five years."

Wharton says the islands are at present a poor place for capital, as the opinion is general that another rebellion may break out any time.

In this event, Wharton says, the Japanese will take a hand.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY.

Cleveland's Clerical Brother in Trouble Over Politics.

WATERTOWN, N Y, April 3—By a vote of 28 to 1, at an exciting session of the congregation of the Presbyterian Church at Chaumont, this county, last evening, it was decided to ask Rev William Cleveland, brother of President Cleveland, to tender his resignation.

It is reported politics has been the disturbing element, although Mr. Cleveland took no part in politics.

Cleveland will appeal to the Presbytery.

NOTES OF LIBERTY.

The Columbian Bell Tolled in Honor of S. F. Smith.

CHICAGO, April 3—The Columbian Liberty Bell was rung today at noon, in honor of Rev. Samuel Francis Smith, author of "America."

The ringing was done by a committee of school children, representing each State and territory.

Immediately after the ringing all united in singing "America," and a telegram was sent to the Music Hall, Boston, where the main celebration was in progress.

VALE BISSELL

The Postmaster-General Out of Office.

W. L. Wilson Is Now in Full Charge of Uncle Sam's Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, April 3—Contrary to expectations, W. L. Wilson took the oath of office as Postmaster General today.

Bissell received the employes of the department this afternoon and ends his official labors today.

Mrs. Fuller, wife of the Chief Justice and Miss Wilson, daughter of the new Postmaster General, were present at the ceremony.

Bissell and Wilson conferred and saw some of the heads of the bureaus.

Then John L. Parson, president of the Letter Carriers' Association of New York, presented the retiring Postmaster General with an engrossed copy of resolutions commending the administration of Mr Bissell, his enforcement of the rigour law and his extensions of the Civil Service laws.

Secretary Gresham sent Bissell a hickory walking-stick, which he, himself, cut on the grounds of the President's summer home at Woodley, and trimmed.

Shortly after these preliminaries, the employes of the department were introduced to Wilson and said good by to Bissell.

Wilson will enter on the active discharge of his duties tomorrow.

Bissell leaves for New York tonight to attend to private business.

MUST WEAR STRIPES.

Decision Against Ex-Cashier Koetting of Madison.

MADISON, Wis, April 3—John B Koetting, ex-Cashier of the south side Savings Bank of Milwaukee will have to go to prison.

He was convicted of receiving deposits after the bank was insolvent, and was sentenced to four years.

He took the case to the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus based on the claim that the law under which he was convicted was unconstitutional.

The court today handed down a decision declaring the law valid and remanding Koetting to the custody of the Sheriff.

FLOWERS FOR THE EAST.

Los Angeles Goes Into a New Industry.

LOS ANGELES, April 3—The first carload of cut flowers ever shipped from California was sent to Chicago today by the Central Park Floral Company.

It is expected they will reach Chicago for Easter Sunday.

The car contained 35,000 callas, Marguerite, English ivy and many other varieties of flowers.

It is regarded as a very important thing here, as the industry is practically a new one and promises big returns.

MAY BE ALL RIGHT.

The "Robinson Crusoe" Was In Good Hands.

PALM BEACH, Fla, April 3 — The rumor circulated here April 1st, to the effect that the sloop Robinson Crusoe was wrecked off Key Largoes Island situated at the southern end of the Bay Biscayne, about 80 miles south of here and her crew and passengers, including Messrs. Ziegler and Wells of New York and Brooklyn were lost, is thought to be false.

She left here Thursday, February 28th, in charge of Captain Hiscock, her owner, an old and experienced sailor, who knows the Florida coast thoroughly.

There have been no storms along this part of the coast since they left.

MRS. PARAN STEVENS DEAD

A Chicago Bank Cashier Booked for States Prison.

CHICAGO, April 3—F. W. Griffin, assistant cashier of the Northwestern National Bank, in this city, is a defaulter to the extent of $50 000, and he has been arrested and confessed.

The Northwestern National has capital and resources of $1,500 000 and is one of the most conservative institutions in Chicago.

Griffin's shortage will in no wise affect the standing of the bank and creates no excitement.

Job Printers on Strike.

NOW A CONTEST.

Public Works Commissioners to Go to Court.

An Amicable Arrangement for the Present.

The New Board Takes Full Possession of the Machinery.

Commissioners Hughes Miller and Carothers comprising the old Board of Public Works, were formally ejected from the offices last evening and their successors Davie, Wilson and Piersol took possession organized and became the defacto board of the city.

The proceedings last evening at the City Hall were entirely friendly. Everything was prearranged. To the end that the legal proceedings to be taken the Superior Court might have a proper foundation, the formal demand refusal and protest of the new and old boards was necessary.

Soon after 7 o'clock the new Commissioners of Public Works organized by electing Mayor Davie President of the board. They then filed into the offices of the Board of Public Works where the old members were in session. Commissioner Piersol of the new board addressed President Carothers of the old board. He presented the certificates of election of the new members and made a demand for the seats.

Chairman Carothers who was flanked by Commissioners Hughes and Miller and Attorneys Nusbaumer and George De Golia arose and said:

In view of the fact that the members of the existing board claim that they are the legally constituted Board of Public Works, and as there are legal complications in these proceedings that can only be determined by judicial arbitration we therefore must decline to recognize your claim to the seats ...

The declination had been carefully prepared in legal form ... reply was handed to Secretary Kaufman ... in the hands of the secretary. Immediately the Mayor notified President Carothers that ... and Wilson who took possession of the ... Hughes and Miller. The three ousted Commissioners entered a formal protest, as follows:

B... as we ... the legally qualified members of the Board of Public Works of this city we do hereby formally protest against the intrusion and occupation of ... of our respective places and offices as members of said board ... and do protest against ... the duties ... prerogatives ... emoluments of such office and we request you to spread this protest upon the minutes.

The new board adjourned immediately. The next move will be made in the Superior Court. Attorney De Golia will secure the permission of the Attorney General to bring the suit and proceedings will be commenced at once to settle the question whether or not the new board is legally entitled to its office.

MANY TANGLES AHEAD.

A glance at the present situation will show that there are some very complicated tangles likely to arise from the contest as it is by no means assured that the new board is a legally elected body.

Auditor Snow has stated that he will recognize the new board. Therefore the old members will be unable to draw their salaries until the courts decide in their favor should that be the turn of affairs. The ... is placed in a rather peculiar position, as he has to assume the responsibility for the payment of salaries to the new members so long as they hold office undisturbed.

It is understood that the contesting parties in the fight over the Board of Public Works have agreed to abide by the decision of the Superior Court in ... when the case is submitted. This means that the matter will not be taken before the Supreme Court at the instance of any of the members of the old or the new boards. Any other person interested in having the matter finally settled by the highest tribunal would be at liberty to carry it to the higher court but so far as those directly interested are concerned the decision of the Superior Court will be considered binding.

THE ROUTINE WORK.

The old Board transacted the following routine business. Resolutions were passed as follows:

A resolution providing for the employment of four street laborers with wages at $2 ...

A resolution rescinding the former one providing that city garbage be dumped at the foot of Seward street.

A resolution discharging all street sprinklers and street and sewer laborers.

A communication from the Board of Education was read containing a statement of bills approved by that body, and was filed.

Applications were received for positions as street sprinklers from Mrs M. Bates 451 B street, M. Murphy 1005 Tenth street and William Hunt, 1755 Twenty-first avenue.

A communication was received from the Grand Army of the Republic extending an invitation to the board to be present at the celebration to be held in Lincoln square on April 1st.

The usual bills were allowed: Street Department $... City $832.20. Board of Education $7...

The bonds of ... H. Wiatt in the sum of $1000 were approved.

NO CLASH NOW.

The Sheriff Will Not Fight the Police.

It Looks Therefore as if Holland Will Go for Lambert.

The question as to who will go to Honolulu to bring back Walter R. Lambert, the defaulting clerk of the Police Court, will be settled by Governor Budd. He will name the agent to go to Hawaii for the State. That is the general custom and it will not be deviated from in the present instance. The Governor, however, will probably appoint a person to make the trip who is agreeable to the authorities in this city.

Detective Holland will probably be named as the officer to capture Lambert. He understands extradition matters and is personally acquainted with Lambert, so that he will have no trouble in locating the clerk.

The Grand Jury found an indictment against Lambert in short order. Expert York Treasurer Gripp, Officer Hodgkins and Police Court Clerk Thomas Crawford all gave evidence and in an hour Lambert was indicted. The ... have been placed in the hands of Sheriff White but he is not fighting to ... a trip to Honolulu. He is perfectly willing that the police shall handle the whole matter. There are no fees in the trip of any kind, and the officer who goes after Lambert will only be allowed his expenses. Mr. White is willing to turn over the indictment to the agent that may be named by the Governor.

Chief Schaffer has gone to Sacramento to consult the Governor about a pardon for a man in the City Prison, and he will undoubtedly bring up the Lambert matter and present the facts. It is well understood that if Lambert is to be captured, action in his case must be taken at once. If he should get word of the proceedings before an officer arrives, he would certainly make himself scarce on the islands.

TO BE INDICTED.

Many Office-Seekers Failed to File Statements.

The Matter is to Go Before the Grand Jury.

District Attorney Snook Will Uphold the Election Law.

District Attorney Snook has prepared a list of candidates at the recent election who have failed to comply with the law and file itemized statements of their election expenses with the County Clerk. The law on the subject was presented to these gentlemen by County Clerk Jordan, who sent out a circular letter.

Some of the candidates have absolutely refused to make any kind of a statement, and the officials at the Courthouse say that they have been guilty of a clear violation of the law. Just what will be done with them is not certain, but the District Attorney proposes to do his duty in the matter. He will simply present the names of the candidates to the county censors and quote them the law on the subject. It is probable that some indictments will be found against the gentlemen who have failed to obey the law. The candidates who are on the list to go to the Grand Jury are as follows:

City Treasurer—Dave L. D...

Councilmen-at-large—H. B. Lund, J. P. Spaulding, J. H. Montgomery and H. W. Stowe.

Board of Education-at-large—R. J. Hunter, F. M. Phillips, D. W. Webster, J. ...

Councilmen—W. W. Graham First ward, A. ... Parker Third ward, E. J. Edwards Fourth ward, E. C. Bown Seventh ward.

Members of Board of Education—E. S. Williams Fifth ward, J. H. Webster Sixth Ward and S. H. Wright, Seventh ward.

Library Trustees—J. ... Carrington, C. W. L... P. Wi... and ... Ferd...

The indictments can ... be for misdemeanor and the accused will be punished with a fine. There is no desire on the part of the officials to crowd the ... candidates but they believe that as the law is in the statute books it ought to be obeyed.

District Attorney Snook will not discuss the matter at present. He does not deem it proper to talk about affairs that will come before the Grand Jury. It is certain however that there are lively times in prospect for the derelict candidates.

SEEKING A PARDON.

Chief of Police Schaffer Goes to Sacramento.

Chief of Police Schaffer went to Sacramento today to intercede with Governor Budd in behalf of Louis McCullough, the prisoner who is losing his eyesight. Besides his personal effort the chief has letters from Assistant District Attorney Melvin, two prosecuting witnesses, ex-Mayor Pardee who is treating McCullough and others who are familiar with the case. The chief anticipates no difficulty in securing McCullough's pardon as it will mean the salvation of the sight of one eye. Dr. Pardee removed the left eye in order to save the other if possible.

FINE FAT FEES.

A Record ... Shown by the Auditor.

Monthly Statements Made Up of the Justices and Constables.

District Attorney Snook has already commenced to feel the effect of the new fee bill. Under its provisions he has to sanction the criminal work of the constables and justices of the peace of Alameda county. If the Supervisors ... it, he must even pass on all the bills presented against the county by the ... This will entail ... upon the ... of the District Attorney, but it will have the effect of preventing ... frivolous arrests in order to secure fees from the county.

County Auditor Whidden has just opened a new set of books in his office which show exactly how much money the justices and constables draw from the county for criminal work. The statement he has prepared shows that these officials have been drawing enormous fees. Had the County Government bill been signed by the Governor the constables and justices would have been in receipt of fixed salaries.

Heretofore it was hard to ascertain just what the Constables and Justices were getting from the county for criminal work. Their bills were so arranged that it was not an easy task to get at the total. Under Auditor Whidden's plan the totals can be secured in a moment. The statement that is now presented shows just what the officials receive.

During the month of February Justices of the Peace drew down fees from the county as follows: Frederick ... Oakland township, $... Joseph Pimentel ... township, $... Edward Shaw, Berkeley, $..., J. E. Quinn, Eden, $87, ... Centerville, $..., G. A. Swasey, Alameda, $..., J. H. Jayo, Livermore, $..., E. L. Lawrence, Brooklyn, $17..., C. J. Lord, Berkeley, $84, H. ... Morris, $7...

These fees are for criminal business alone.

LOWER RATES.

A Cut by the Railroad on the Freight Tariff.

Competition Is Already Having Its Effect.

The Davie Line and the Southern Pacific Cross Swords.

This morning agents of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company concluded their notification of business men of this city of a reduction in freight rates between San Francisco and Oakland, via the creek route.

Application at the office of the railroad company, at the foot of Broadway, this morning by a TRIBUNE reporter resulted in the statement by the agent that the following reduction in rates had been made:

On salt and sugar, from 75 to 50 cents per ton; canned goods and heavy groceries, from $1.00 to 75 cents per ton.

The agent was asked if this reduction was occasioned by the desire to meet the competitive rates of the steamer Emma of the Davie Freight Company and replied:

"This reduction was made more for the purpose of equalizing rates than for anything else, because the rates on those commodities were considered higher than others. They have nothing to do with the Davie rates. They carry mostly wheat and grain. These rates are from Market street wharf, San Francisco to the foot of Broadway."

A. B. Dorrell of the Davie freight line said: "The rates to which the Southern Pacific has reduced its freight tariff on certain goods are the same as we have had in force for sometime. The railroad has made other reductions besides those on salt, sugar, canned goods and heavy groceries. On pipe and bar iron they have reduced from $1 50 to 75 cents per ton, and on fruit, I think, from $1 50 to $1 per ton. The cut averages 33 per cent. It will not effect us, because, if the merchants realize that it was made to antagonize us, they will readily see they have little to gain to remove their patronage from us only to have the rates raised at some other time.

"There will be a meeting of the Merchant's Exchange tonight, and, I understand, these reduction of rates will be discussed. I also understand that an attempt will be made to have the Exchange promise to support our freight line."

At the offices of the several express companies no information had been received that those corporations would be given a corresponding reduction in rates across the bay by the railroad company.

A DEEP CUT.

School Insurance Rewritten Cheaply.

Reinsurance, with cut rates, was effected yesterday upon all the school buildings of the city by a special committee of the Board of Education, consisting of Directors McMullan, Reed and Moody. The committee met yesterday afternoon and received bids from a large number of insurance agents who were in attendance at the City Hall to fight for the business.

Andy Stone made an offer to place the insurance at 30 per cent of the original premium. Harry Gordon induced the majority of the fifteen agents present to make a bid of 50 per cent. He could not secure unanimous consent, however. The committee decided last evening to place the business at a 75 per cent cut with a large number of companies which accepted the policies. No choice will be made in the placing of the reinsurance. It will be distributed very generally among all the companies.

The credit for the resolution which brought about the reinsurance is due to Director D. A. McMullan.

NOT TO RESIGN.

Gresham Will Hold on to His Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A vigorous denial is made in Administration circles of the story that Secretary Gresham is about to resign.

The Secretary himself will not be interviewed, not caring to dignify the report by a denial.

SCHOOL CENSUS.

Marshals Appointed to Canvass the Children.

The taking of the school census of this city will commence on April 15th, under the superintendence of W. N. Friend, who was chosen Census Marshal several weeks ago by the Board of Education. He will have eleven assistants, ten of whom have been selected. They are as follows: C. Groff, Clyde Carrigan, W. R. Barstow, Miss Douglass, Whitehead, W. C. Harmon, Fred L. Monnet, Andrew Hollywood, John D. Warren, James Gilbertson and Frank Howard. The marshals will meet Saturday to arrange the details of their work.

A LOOP LINE.

Good Prospects for the Road to San Jose.

There is now good reason to believe that the electric road from Haywards to San Jose, through Washington township, will be built. The idea of the projectors seem to be to make it a people's road and to have the farmers and fruit raisers along the line take stock in the enterprise. The company intends to capitalize at $500,000 with 100,000 shares at $5 a share. Messrs. Messrs. F. Chappeliett, F. E. Kendall and L. E. Osgood have already subscribed $40,000, and only $10,000 more are required to enable the company to incorporate.

My Baby

was a living skeleton; the doctor said he was dying of Marasmus and Indigestion. At 13 months he weighed only seven pounds. Nothing strengthened or fattened him. I began using Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, feeding it to him and rubbing it into his body. He began to fatten and is now a beautiful dimpled boy. The Emulsion seemed to supply the one thing needful.

WEDNESDAY ..... APRIL 3, 1895

THE San Francisco Evening Post has made wonderful strides since it passed into the hands of Hugh Hume. It has always touched the popular vein and this is due to the marked enterprise that has characterized both its views and policy. It is variably has some extraordinary inducement to offer to its patrons, and its latest effort in this direction is its best. By means of the coupon ballot system it has inaugurated a contest to decide who are the most popular teachers in the state, and those who are chosen are to be rewarded with free first-class transportation and expenses to London, Paris, Honolulu, Alaska, Yosemite and other famous resorts. There will undoubtedly be keen competition for such liberal prizes.

Short and Long Routes.

The recent discussion about the comparative advantages of short and long railroad routes, bring into the foreground one or two old facts that have as much force as ever. The old route of the Western Pacific was laid across the mountains by way of Livermore. The elevation was quite under 1000 feet. But after that road passed into the hands of the Central Pacific Company the disadvantages of that elevation were so great that a new route was adopted by way of Martinez. The railroad preferred to extend its mileage, by going around this mountain or hill. It made a substantial gain by the change.

Now the Pacheco Pass is by estimate 1560 feet. Overcoming that elevation, trains could cross from the San Joaquin valley to the Salinas and Santa Clara valleys. But, according to the economic policy now recognized in railway construction, the overcoming of such an elevation would be represented by an extension along valley grades of hardly less than thirty-five miles. The shorter route may be a good thing to conjure with when subscriptions are to be stimulated. But when the railroad company gets right down to the business of construction, it is probable that valley grades will have the preference over mountain grades.

That Disastrous Leadership.

Debs has had a hearing now in the chief cities of the State. What has come of all his harangues? Has he been a benefactor to any one? Has he made the lot of a single individual who must earn his daily bread any better? Now there must have been hundreds of men in this city who were reminded that it was through his counsels that they were overtaken by want and some of them brought to the very verge of starvation. They lost their places, the ability for the time being to earn money for the support of their families. They followed Debs' counsel. Not one of them would have joined in the great strike if he had not misled them by his words. His message to them was to "stand pat," and to quit the service of employers against whom they had no ground of complaint. Here was the pity of it.

Here were hundreds of men without a grievance, who had made no complaint that they were not fairly paid for their services, but who were ordered by Debs to take up the cause of men two thousand miles away who had a grievances against a manufacturing company. How much these striking men suffered, how great the losses were that they incurred, what privations their families endured, can never be set down in black and white. Many of them suffered in silence, some lost homesteads, more were compelled to seek employment in other cities, and are not yet exempt from the evils of that unfortunate episode.

The several railway companies of the country, according to estimates made soon after the strike, lost not less than $10,000,000. Thousands of men followed Debs' counsel, and a great many of them to their ultimate undoing. The greater public also suffered immensely. Now what is there to put in the scales opposite all this sacrifice? Debs has really furnished nothing. He can never make good a fraction of all this loss. Did he bring any comfort to the hundreds who have suffered on this side of the country by following his counsels and obeying his commands?

It is fitting to ask these questions now when the excitement is all over, the losses estimated and the good, if any, should be known. There are no reproaches to be uttered. Those who had the strongest sympathy for the men who followed the counsels of Debs are those who inquire wistfully about the gains. Debs himself admits that there were none, and that there is no encouragement to renew the struggle along the same lines. If he could only return the men to their places, could make good only a fraction of the losses they suffered through his leadership, there would be a prompt acknowledgment of benefits. It is seldom that there has been as much bitter fruit resulting from a single leadership in this country. That is the pity of it.

The Bow in the Horizon.

The sweeping Republican victories in Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities, are at least indications of what is coming when the next opportunity comes for an expression of public opinion. The growing dissatisfaction with the present Administration finds expression in those local elections. The great cities of the country are electing Republican Mayors. Of course local considerations are prominent in all such elections. But beyond these there is a voicing of communities who are counting the months and the days when another great political revolution will sweep the country.

No relief is expected from the present Administration. A few months ago there was a Congressional revolution. The large Democratic majority in the Lower House was displaced by a larger Republican majority. It is not probable that the next Congress will be able to make much headway against a hostile President. The present tariff will probably stand until a new Administration comes into power. But as sure as that Administration is Republican it will make important changes in the tariff. For more than a quarter of a century the country prospered under Republican rule. The country is seeking to revive that old prosperity. The horizon is becoming brighter every day. There are good times in prospect.

Since the autumn elections, which were a route and a revolution for the party in power, there is little doubt about what is coming less than two years hence. The people accentuated their conviction even in these local elections. It is more than a dissatisfaction with local administration. It is the voice of dissent too with the national administration. That is the greater significance of such elections as have recently occurred in Chicago, Cincinnati and other large cities of the country.

Public Works and the Charter.

The organic law known as the charter has been made and adopted by the people for the guidance of municipal administrations. Whether every provision therein contained is the best that could have been desired is not now the question. The organic law is sovereign in all its parts unless it conflicts with legislative enactments, or is set aside by decisions of the courts.

Now a short time ago there was an almost universal expression of public opinion that substantial benefits would be secured by an amendment of the article providing for a Board of Public Works. The several steps by which such a change could be secured were taken in regular order. The electors adopted the amendments proposed by a very large majority. The Legislature confirmed what the people had done. These amendments are today an integral part of the organic law.

By virtue of these changes, a new Board of Public Works was recently elected. Every intelligent voter knew when he went to the polls that the successful candidates for Mayor, Attorney and Engineer would comprise that board. There was an earnest discussion about the qualifications of candidates for these places.

The board has been elected, has qualified and nominally entered upon its duties. They are in their places by the will of the people. Does any one serve a good purpose now by undertaking to defeat that will? Such attempts were made two years ago. Nothing came of them but a great deal of loose and foolish talk. It is not probable that more than that will come of protests and obstructions made now. It is a very good policy to let well enough alone.

Ad Dorotheam.

I know where there is honey in a jar,
Meet for a certain little friend of mine;
And, Dorothy, I know where dainties are
That only wait small hands to intertwine
A wreath for such a golden head as thine.

The thought that thou art coming makes all glad,
The house is bright with blossoms high and low,
And many a little lass and lad
Expectantly are running to and fro:
The fire within our hearts is all aglow

We want thee, child, to share in our delight
On this high day, the holiest and best,
Because 'twas then, ere youth had taken flight,
Thy grandmamma, of women loveliest,
Made me of men most honored and most blest

That naughty boy who led thee to suppose
He was thy sweetheart has, I grieve to tell,
Been seen to pick the garden's choicest rose
And toddle with it to another belle,
Who does not treat him altogether well.

But mind not that, or let it teach thee this—
To waste no love on any youthful rover
(All youths are rovers, I assure thee Miss).
No, if thou wouldst true constancy discover,
Thy grandpapa is perfect as a lover

So come thou playmate of my closing day,
The latest treasure life can offer me,
And with thy baby laughter make us gay.
Thy fresh young voice shall sing, my Dorothy,
Songs that shall bid the fest of sorrow flee.

The Merchants' Banquet.

The great banquet by the Merchants' Exchange will take place in Masonic Temple tomorrow night. It will be attended by all the leading merchants of this city. Addresses will be delivered by Mayor Davis, W. R. Davis, W. W. Foote, J. P. Irish and a number of others. There will be an orchestra present under the leadership of Alexander Stewart.

A BIG CARD.

H. C. Capwell Has Secured the Silver Statue.

It Will Be Exhibited at the Lace House.

Montana's Celebrated Creation to Be Here Two Weeks.

Almost the greatest glory of the World's Fair at Chicago was the wonderful silver statue that was the official exhibit of the State of Montana in the Mining building. So much has been written and told of it that it will be a delightful surprise to most of THE TRIBUNE's readers to learn that it is to be exhibited here free of charge. That this is possible is due to the H. C. Capwell Company, proprietors of the Lace House, who have made arrangements with the owners for bringing it here for exhibition in their store.

A short description of the statue and its purpose will not be without interest. The question of how to make Montana's display of its mineral resources in a unique and noticeable way was one that was much thought of. The idea of putting it in the form of a statue, made entirely of the precious metals, occurred to Colonel Frank D. Higbee of Missoula, Mont., who immediately procured the co-operation of several of the wealthy men of the State, as well as the State's Commissioners to the fair. There was much rivalry for the honor of posing as the model for the statue, but the celebrated actress Ada Rehan was finally selected. The sculptor was Richard H. Park of Florence, Italy.

The statue contains 97,000 ounces of silver, valued at nearly $65,000. It is nine feet high and stands on a base of solid gold, the value of which is $225,000 so that the whole statue represents almost $300,000. In transit it occupies a special express car and is accompanied by an armed guard.

Being asked as to the object of making the exhibit in the proposed manner, Mr. Capwell said, "We intend to use it as a great magnet to draw people to our store. Not that they are expected to buy goods, but to get familiar with the inside of the store and the lines of goods we carry. We feel that we are in a better position to supply the wants of the people in those lines than we ever have been, but unlike some other houses, have not the facilities to show one tenth of our assortment in our windows. Consequently we hit upon this great attraction to get people to look us over where we can show off to advantage, and have no doubt as to the impression that will be carried away with them. We do not confine our invitation to customers, but want all, especially school children also, to have an opportunity to see one of the most beautiful and remarkable works of art in existence."

The statue will be exhibited here for two weeks beginning April 15th. After returning East it will be taken to Europe.

NOT THE MAN.

Suspect Dalton Is Restored to Liberty.

It Was Clear That He Is Not the Missing Train Thief.

The murderer of Sheriff Bogard of Tehama county has not yet been apprehended—at all events, he has not been found in J. F. Dalton, the suspect whom Deputy Constable Teague arrested at Berkeley yesterday. Dalton was brought before Justice Clift this morning on the charge of vagrancy. The charge was dismissed and the accused was set at liberty. The charge was filed after it had become apparent that Dalton could not be held on the charge of murder.

Dalton was arrested because of the resemblance he bore to Brady, who is now charged with the murder of Sheriff Bogard.

He was subjected to a very close physical examination by a number of officers, and while he bears a number of the marks which characterize Brady, the conclusion was reached that he is not the man who is wanted.

He was recognized by Detective Holland as a man named Deasy whom he had arrested several years before. He was also identified by a couple of ex-convicts, who called to see him this morning, at the instance of Detective Teague, father of the constable who made the arrest.

These ex-convicts recognized him as a man who had "served time" with them. He had been sent to the "pen" under the name of Deasy, and it has been ascertained that that is his right name, that of Dalton having been assumed to keep his parents in ignorance of his arrest.

Spite Work.

The charge made by L. W. Morley against W. Brennan of stealing two horses in Livermore was dismissed by Judge Clift yesterday evening. It was shown that the accusation was the result of spite on Morley's part.

Will Marry Again.

A license has been issued authorizing the marriage of Peter Olsem aged 36 years, and Dorothy Olsem aged 66 years. The couple were divorced several months ago.

SOCIETY SHOWS.

Marie Burroughs Appears in Good Plays.

Excellent Prospects Given for "Our Flat."

First-Class Houses the Order of Things at the People's.

At the matinee at the Macdonough today, Marie Burroughs, the renowned emotional actress is appearing in The Profligate. Tonight she will be seen in Judah.

The Profligate deals with some of the intrigues of a profligate who has been married to a pure woman when his past rises up against him in the shape of an abandoned girl whom he had betrayed. She appears as an angel of mercy and nurses the wife through a serious illness in her husband's absence, and becomes her confidante and friend. The story of her life is disclosed to the wife, who finally discovers that it was he who is now her husband had betrayed the girl. After some tragic incidents the estranged couple are reconciled and the past is forgiven and forgotten.

Marie Burroughs.

Emily Bancker.

Our Flat is a musical farce comedy by Mrs. Musgrave which is to be presented at the Macdonough for three nights beginning tomorrow. Our Flat is a bright, sparkling farce, which was well received on its first production in London several years ago, drew large houses at the Lyceum Theater, New York, and is running now at the Strand Theater.

The story of the play runs as follows: Mr and Mrs. Sylvester are two young persons who have rushed into matrimony on the Micawber principle, are living from hand to mouth in a London flat; husband and wife alike striving hard to get a foothold in the literary sphere, in which they are confident they can ultimately acquire both fame and fortune. Early in their career, however, they are overwhelmed with debt. The flat they have hired is invaded by a continual stream of creditors; the cook threatens to leave, and at the height of the excitement three men walk in and deliberately carry off all the furniture, which has been bought on the instalment plan, because the last payment has not been made.

At this instant Mrs. Sylvester receives a note informing her that a play she has written without the knowledge of her husband, describing her own married experience, has been accepted, and that the manager is coming to settle as to its price. Therefore, with the assistance of the cook, she proceeds to improvise the furniture with whatever comes to hand—soap boxes, barrels, an ironing board, a sit bath tub, a clothes horse, etc., and proceeds to rehabilitate the apartment. They are so draped and arranged as to form quite a beautiful outfit, and when the manager comes he is so impressed with the handsome and prosperous look of the surroundings that he pays $1000 for the play. Many laughable complications arise from attempts to use the make-shift furniture. Then Mrs. Sylvester's father, who has been angered by the marriage, relents, and the comedy comes to a happy conclusion.

The cast is headed by Emily Bancker, who was for a long time principal in Charles Frohman's original productions. Her success this season as Margery Sylvester has been phenomenal. Miss Bancker is supported by Tom Ricketts, George W. Parsons, F. H. Tyley, Neil Scully, W. J. Wallis, Marion Van Courtland, Lee Jarvis and Vesta Verno.

The People's.

McKenna's Flirtation is a very humorous and clever comedy interpreted by a first-class company, headed by Edgar Selden, who is fresh from a very successful engagement in San Francisco. The farce has a plot which carries an immense amount of fun. The curious complications which are worked out give ample opportunity for many mirthful situations. The comedy will have a splendid run which it well deserves.

The California.

The Girl I Left Behind Me is the attraction at the California. This popular American drama meets the approval of the theater-goers, and will prove a success on its presentation. There are some excellent people in the cast. The play has a record of 500 performances in New York. It is presented here with all the accessories needed to vividly depict the stirring scenes of military and Indian frontier life.

Morosco's.

Hands Across the Sea, an English drama of merit, was produced to a big house Monday evening. Gustavus Levick, Maud Edna Hall, Helen Henry and Rev. J. H. V. Harris, the actor-preacher, appeared with the cast.

The Tivoli.

Pinafore did so well last week that it will be continued a week longer. Enormous audiences greeted the revival. There will be a children's matinee Saturday.

The Orpheum.

This popular resort has a fine bill this week. A host of new people have been supplied to furnish the entertainment. The Electric Quartet, Dillon Brothers and Martinette Brothers are the new attractions. The Orpheum enjoys public favor without diminishment. Manager Walters is to be congratulated for his success and enterprise.

NO NEW MEN.

Sheriff White's Office in Full Running Order.

Why C. E. Lloyd Gave Place to W. S. Harlow.

Thoroughly Friendly Feeling Between All the Parties.

There is no ill feeling in the Sheriff's office over the retirement of Under Sheriff C. E. Lloyd. The new programme has gone into effect and W. S. Harlow has again assumed the duties of Under Sheriff. The force in the office is now complete and Sheriff White does not intend to make any further changes.

Mr. Lloyd has accepted the situation in a very graceful manner. It was thought that Mr. White might appoint Mr. Lloyd a bailiff in one of the courts to serve out the term. In order to do this, however, the Sheriff would have had to displace one of his men whom he had made a promise to retain during his term of office.

Mr. Lloyd was called upon by Sheriff White to assume the duties of Under Sheriff. Mr. Harlow was offered a good position and he announced his intent on of retiring at once. This brought matters to a head. Mr. Lloyd had a square understanding with the Sheriff about the matter. He said that he did not feel that he would be doing Mr. White justice to try and assume the full duties of Under Sheriff. He told Mr. White that it was necessary to have his bondsmen protected and he was not willing to take any chances.

"We have parted in a most friendly manner," said Mr. Lloyd this morning. "Mr. White acted just as I would have done myself if I had been Sheriff. As for Mr. Harlow he is a gentleman. He understands his business thoroughly. Of course I am sorry to sever my connection with the office because our relations have been very friendly. The office that Mr. Harlow holds is one that is very hard to fill. There are technical questions arising all the time and if a man does not understand them he would have to be consulting an attorney all the time. Now I was not willing to force Mr. White into a position where he would have to take any chances. I have studied the duties of that office for three months and I consider that I have three quarters of the business down fine. The other one-quarter was not at my finger ends."

A BOAT ABLAZE.

The "Pride of the Ohio" Is a Total Wreck.

Fire Rages Disastrously on the Iron Queen.

A Colored Chambermaid Perished in the Blazing Ship.

POMEROY, O., April 3.—The Pittsburg and Cincinnati packet Iron Queen was burned at Antiquity, twelve miles above here, at 8 o'clock this morning.

THE NEWS CONFIRMED.

The disaster to the Iron Queen, reported from Pomeroy, has been confirmed by a dispatch to Superintendent Ellison of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Company, saying: "The boat is a total loss; one chambermaid is missing."

The Iron Queen, which was the pride of the Ohio river, was built in Marietta in 1892 and was valued at $60,000, insured about half that amount.

She was upward bound and had twenty to thirty passengers aboard and a good cargo.

One colored chambermaid was lost; her name is not obtainable.

All the passengers with most of the baggage were saved.

HOW THE CALAMITY OCCURRED.

The boat was bound for Pittsburg, putting in here at 5 A. M.

At Racine, she took on a lot of baled straw and moved a mile further up to Antiquity to take on a large amount of hogshead poles.

While lying at the bank there a lamp exploded in the engine room, setting the rear part of the boat on fire, which rapidly communicated to the straw.

In a few moments the entire boat was in flames.

Captain Calhoon and clerk Keer rendered heroic service in saving the passengers.

Mate Scarivar was surrounded by flames and had to jump into the river to save himself. He was badly burned about the face and hands.

REBELS ARE POPULAR.

Views of an American Observer in Cuba.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The Ward Line steamer Vigilancia, Captain McIntosh, arrived today from Havana.

A passenger reported that at Manzanillo, where he has been stopping some time, the sympathies of the whole city were with the insurgents.

There has been several skirmishes between the the Spanish troops and insurgents, but no decisive engagement took place.

A rumor was current at Manzanillo that a large force of insurgents was to invest the town.

This caused great excitement among the inhabitants, but the rumor could not be traced to any reliable source.

The deceased bequeathes $1 to her brothers, Alonzo Vernon Shelton and Simon T. Shelton, of Vermillion, Erie county, O. The residue of the estate goes to her husband, W. H. Ashley of Alameda. Welles Whitmore is named to act as executor without bonds.

IT'S A SUCCESS.

Unexpected Returns From the Income Tax.

About a Million and a Half Already Paid.

Large Sums Expected When the April Figures Come.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Income tax returns are coming far beyond the expectations of the officials.

To save time and avoid complications the collectors were instructed to classify and send in returns the 10th of each month, and therefore no reports have been received of a date later than March 10th.

Nevertheless 10,000 returns have already been received and are being verified and recorded.

It is estimated that the returns made to the collectors prior to March 10th represent at least $1,500,000 income tax, and the actual amount returned to April 1st will aggregate $15,000,000.

It is not expected that returns to any considerable number will be made before the 8th or 10th of April, five days before the time limit expires, hence, the showing is exceedingly gratifying to those who have the matter in charge.

Another matter of congratulation is the little difficulty being experienced by the taxpayers in filling out the blanks.

All things considered, the work of collecting the tax is going forward with very little friction.

It is expected that at least $20,000,000 income tax will have been collected by June 1st, the close of the fiscal year.

The officials do not express any doubts that the Supreme Court will sustain all the important features of the law, if not the entire act, as it stands, and are pushing the work as rapidly as is consistent with accuracy.

TO FIGHT FRAUDS.

Why Governor Stone Called a Special Session.

Important Railroad Matters Also to Come Up for Settlement.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 3.—Governor Stone today issued a call for a special session of the Legislature, to meet April 23d, for the following purposes:

First—To enact legislation to properly define the relation between the different classes of employes of railroad corporations and also the proper relations between all such employes and railroad corporations employing them.

Second—To provide such legislative enactments as are necessary and expedient to prevent the maintenance of an organized lobby at the Capitol of the State, either to obstruct or promote any legislative or executive act, and also to regulate the manner of presenting any questions affecting legislation by the persons interested therein before the general assembly or any committee thereon.

Third—To enact such laws as are necessary and expedient to prevent fraud against the elective franchise and to secure honest election in all cities having 100,000 inhabitants.

STIFF WITH COLD.

An Unfortunate Passenger Falls Into the Sea.

WHATCOM, Wash., April 3.—All the passengers and crew of the steamer Buckeye, which was overturned in the gale last evening, were rescued except H. Kautzman.

He was on a life raft with three other passengers, but fell off, having become stiff with cold.

The others were picked up by the tug Boyden.

A Boom Hotel Gone.

REDLANDS, Cal., April 3.—The Terracina Hotel burned at 5 A. M.

The loss on the building is $20,000; on the furniture $12,000; insurance, $12,000. All the guests made their escape, but they lost most of their clothing. The building was erected in 1889 to boom the land, but had never been a success financially owing to its small size and remoteness from town.

TO HIT HARD,

Bassett Will Fight the Coal Bunker Ordinance.

The ordinance granting James P. Taylor & Co. the right to erect coal bunkers on the City wharf is declared by Councilman Bassett to be void on the ground that it conflicts with provisions of the charter which forbid the granting of leases to city property, except at auction, to the highest bidder. The ordinance, it is claimed, also conflicts with an ordinance which declares that no part of the City wharf shall be leased to any person. There is also a statute which provides for sales or leases of public property by auction to the highest bidder.

An ordinance to repeal the coal bunker ordinance has been introduced in the Council. The claim is made that the Taylor privilege is in the nature of a lease, although no consideration is named. This omission, however, does not necessarily prevent the grant from being a lease.

Councilman Bassett, who will fight for the repeal of the coal bunker ordinance, has loaded himself with opinions to prove the correctness of his claim.

TO FIGHT THE WILL.

A Dispute Arises Over Goldberg's Property.

There is to be a contest to the will of the late Morris Goldberg, the well-known capitalist who died in this county on March 28, 1894.

The contestant will be a brother of the deceased, who was bequeathed $2000.

Attorney Hiram A. Luttrell this afternoon looked over the papers connected with the estate at the County Clerk's office, preparatory to the institution of the proceedings.

The estate has been appraised at $248,000. The executors are Henry Wadsworth and Leon E. Goldbarg of Chicago.

The contestant has, besides Attorney Luttrell, engaged A. Ruef and other able lawyers of San Francisco to fight the will.

TWO TRANCES.

But This Time Death Was at the Threshold.

The Rev. James Kane Is Dying of Pneumonia.

Short Sketch of the Career of the Famous Navy Chaplain.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Rev. James Kane, D. D., late chaplain of the Brooklyn Navy Yard is reported to be dying of pneumonia in England.

Mr. Kane won fame in the navy during the civil war.

After the war while his ship was quartered in Jamacia, he caught the yellow fever and died as far as appearances went.

He was placed in his coffin. He saw and heard everything that passed.

After eight hours in the coffin he sat up to the horror of the colored man whose duty it was to keep watch over him.

Some years later, while in the Norfolk Navy Yard, of which he was Chaplain, he appeared to die a second time, and remained in a cataleptic state forty-eight hours.

When he recovered he left the navy and completing his studies, joined the church.

Mr. Kane obtained leave of absence last year, and soon after was placed on the retired list.

He has a number of medals for bravery in battle.

LA LOMA PARK.

An Attachment Levied on a Handsome Home.

Captain Richard P. Thomas, ex-president of the California National Bank will now have to fight for his home at Berkeley. The place is known as La Loma Park, and consists of thirty-two acres of land and a fine house. Thomas is an insolvent debtor, and his assignee, John Chetwood is pursuing him to collect a judgment of $139,000.

This morning Chetwood brought an attachment suit against Thomas and his wife, Jane Thomas, and the Standard Soap Works, to recover the amount of the judgment. The plaintiff has levied attachment on La Loma Park. Chetwood claimed that the property was a homestead and was deeded by Thomas to the Standard Soap Works, in which he was interested. Mrs. Thomas' name was not signed to the deed. Chetwood therefore claims that the deed given by Thomas is null and void. He wants a homestead of $5000 carved out of the property and the balance of the land sold to satisfy the judgment. La Loma Park is valued at $40,000.

AT CUT RATES.

The City Hall Is to Be Re-insured.

The City Council will take advantage of the insurance war and secure a reinsurance upon the City Hall at this evening's meeting. The Council has been offered a rate of 30 cents on the $25,000 policies carried on the building and its contents. The policies have about thirteen months yet to run before they expire. The return premium applied to the payment of the reinsurance will carry the policies for two years. The saving effected will amount to fully $500. Councilman Bassett has the matter in hand and will introduce the necessary resolutions this evening.

LASTING REST.

Dr. A. G. Anthony's Busy Career Is Ended.

Death Lifts the Latchstring at His Home.

A Life That Was Fraught With a Host of Good Deeds.

Dr. Albert G. Anthony, one of the best known physicians in Oakland, died this morning at his residence, 1561 Eighth street, after a lingering illness caused by liver troubles which had confined him to his home for four weeks past. Dr. Anthony's death was not unexpected, but everything that medical skill could suggest was done to prolong his life and if possible, save him from the heavy hand of death.

Few in Oakland had a wider circle of warm and loved friends than had the deceased physician. He was known throughout the city, and there will be many to mourn outside of his family. In West Oakland, where he has resided for many years, and had a very large practice, Dr. Anthony was almost adored. His many sterling qualities had endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. None will feel his death more keenly than those whom he met in his professional duties.

His social acquaintance was very large. Dr. Anthony was one of the leaders in the fraternal organizations of this city. He stood high in all of them. He was a member of Oakland Commandery, Knights Templar. He was a Royal Arch Mason and was a member of Alcatraz Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons. He belonged to Harbor Lodge, Odd Fellows, and Forest Camp, Woodmen of the World. He was also a member of the Chosen Friends, Legion of Honor, Knights of Pythias and Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Dr. Anthony was a native of Hatfield, Mass. He was 50 years of age. He came to California in 1868 and settled in Oakland three years later. He was engaged in the practice of medicine up to the time of his last illness.

Dr. Anthony was president of the Board of Health for two years, prior to the appointment of the present board.

He was a member of the County Medical Society.

He left a widow and three children, Victorine, Edward and Adah. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence.

"SAINT TERESA."

She Causes Another Bloody Conflict in Mexico.

OJINAGA, Mex., April 3—Bulletin.—Another conflict has occurred between the authorities and the followers of Saint Teresa Urrea, the so-called patron saint of the Mexicans in this section.

In a conflict several days ago between the authorities and the crowds that flocked to see Teresa three persons were killed.

The authorities determined to make another attempt to quell the excitement, and an armed force was sent to the spot where Teresa was camped, with orders to capture the wooden image she carried.

Her followers resisted the attempt, and in the fight that followed five persons were killed and three wounded.

The woman escaped into Texas, and is supposed to be on her way to her old home in Sonora, Mexico.

TOO CROWDED.

Mayor Davie Wants the School Board Rooms.

The Educators Are to Vacate the City Hall

There Will Be Some Opposition, Though, to the Change.

Mayor Davie will make some changes in the City Hall very soon which may not be to the liking of the Board of Education. He will probably move his quarters into the rooms now occupied by the board and the Superintendent of Schools.

The Mayor is impressed with the idea that his quarters in the small chamber that adjoins the City Clerk's office are entirely inadequate, especially as he proposes to occupy them a large portion of the day. There is no way in which callers can be provided for while waiting to see his Honor unless they pace the floor of the rather chilly corridor on the upper floor. To obviate this the Mayor has his eye upon the rooms now occupied by the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools. It is understood that the School Department is only permitted to have quarters in the City Hall as a matter of courtesy from the Council. The School Board is in reality not a part of the city government. It is a part of the county and comes under a distinct law. There is provision requiring the High School Board, which controls that department, to meet in the High school building. This has never been done since the board was installed in the City Hall.

In the event of such a change, City Engineer Wilson would take the office now occupied by the Mayor and the Board of Public Works while the Board of Education and School Superintendent McClymonds would go to the Madonough block. Superintendent McClymonds would oppose this move. There is ample accommodation for the board in the High school building and that is most likely where they will go.

PRIZES ON PATENTS

How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper published in Washington, D. C which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult, this delusion the Company wishes to dispel It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable Almost everybody at some time or another conceives an idea, which, if patented would probably be worth to him a fortune Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple invention like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back the sauce pan the collar button the nut lock the bottle stopper the snow shovel, are things that almost every one sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us and whether he secures the prize or not the inventor will have a valuable patent

A RELAY RACE.

Bicyclists Looking Forward to Sunday's Spin.

All the Crack Riders to Meet in Competition.

Sporting Notes and Gossip, as Gleaned by "The Umpire."

Nearly all the speedy wheelmen in this city are interested in the great one-hundred mile relay race, which will be held around the bay next Sunday. Oakland has entered two teams in the contest. The Reliance and Acme boys will try hard to carry off the honors for this city. This will be the greatest race of the year.

The game of billiards has had a boom in this city since the visit of Ives and Schaefer.

Next Sunday afternoon there will be racing in the estuary. The Oakland Navy boys will hold their regular monthly contest.

Following will be found a resume of the sporting events of the week.

THE UMPIRE.

It seems to me to be a case of another year without baseball. When I say without baseball, I mean the professional game. Of course, we always have the amateur players with us. It makes no difference to them whether we have the professional game or not. They play ball year in and year out just for the sport it affords. These young men are to be commended for keeping up the National game in this city. There are many obstacles even in the way of the amateur players. I was talking to a player yesterday who is enthusiastic on the game. "Don't you know," said he, "that it is hard work for an amateur to get a chance to play ball. I belong to a club in this city and we have been trying for weeks to get a game, but we have not succeeded. I have written letters to a number of baseball men in other towns, but, as yet, I have not been able to arrange a game. Here, in Oakland, there are only a few clubs, and if you don't belong to the league, you can hardly get in a contest. The amateurs who enjoy the sport of baseball ought to show a little more spirit and organize. There are enough good players in this city to organize several amateur teams. The boys should get down to work and form a large local league. We do not need money or patronage. All we want is the sport. I am in for forming an Oakland league composed of local clubs."

An Oakland league of amateur clubs would not be a bad idea. The various schools could be taken into the league and I am sure the merchants could be induced to put up a handsome trophy for the winner of the season's game. Who will start the Oakland league?

The County Clerk's and County Recorder's baseball teams are still in existence. They are thirsting for a game of baseball to decide the championship of the courthouse. If the weather will permit, the game may be played a week from next Saturday at the University grounds. Captain Frank C. Jordan and Captain Charles Spear have arranged the details for the great contest. They have agreed upon the following staff to take charge of the contest: Umpires, Major Waters and Baby O'Connell; scorers, W. Jay Schmidt and Sconchin Maloney; physicians, Drs. Fisher, Buteau, Adams and Young; health inspector, Paul Schaffer; bat carriers, Denny Holland and Major Tompkins; undertakers, Dr. Baldwin, N. W. Leitch (alias "The King"), Joe McAvoy, Albert Brown, James Taylor, James McCarthy and others; great keeper of the lost balls, Jake Bougard.

"Oh, yes; it is going to be a great game,' said Frank C. Jordan. "We are out for blood. These Recorders can't play ball a little bit. Now mark what I tell you. I know a club when I see one—a poker club. It is going to be the game of the age. There will never be a game like it played on earth. It will be a game for your life. We will give these Recorders such a beating that they will not show up at the hall for six months. We will wipe them off the face of the earth as baseball players. We will be the kingpins in our little circle as baseball players."

Captain Spear heard what Captain Jordan said and simply remarked "bit."

The University team seems to be in hard luck this year. The showing the boys have made up to date has not been good. This does not speak very well for the coaching of Tip O'Neill, who undertook to put the the boys in trim for the season. I understand that Tip was disgusted with his job before the season opened. He came to the conclusion that the Berkeley boys were not in the race. The players miss the kindly advice of ex-Manager Wolff, who used to do more work than any member of the team. Mr. Wolff told me the other day that he never worked so hard in his life as he did when he managed the baseball team. "Why, I would not go through that deal again for anything," said he. "You do not even get thanked for your trouble, on the contrary, you get a rough deal all around. Now, when I was manager the boys could put up a pretty good game. The trouble with us was that we were pursued by hard luck throughout the season. I tell you a baseball manager's life is not a happy one."

The Reliance boys have come right to the front as baseball players. The way the league record stands at present shows that they have an excellent chance of winning the pennant. Captain Cal Ewing has made the boys play ball from the start. There are no drones in the Reliance team. They all play ball as though they were out for the pennant in each game. The members of the team are all enthusiastic, and they are anxious to make a record for their club. That is the kind of a baseball team to have in the field. If the Reliance boys do not capture the pennant then I am very much mistaken.

The league season is going to be an interesting one, for some of the clubs are evenly matched and they will put up some good games. The contests are very much enjoyed by the few cranks left, who take an interest in baseball. Nearly every Saturday during the season we will have a game at the University grounds.

THE UMPIRE.

THE ACME'S NEW HOME.

Work on the Building to Start in a Few Days.

The members of the Acme Athletic Club are taking a great deal of interest in the plans for the new clubrooms. The work on the new building will be commenced within a few days and it will be pushed until the structure is completed. The Acme boys have had a thorough understanding about the building and they know exactly what they are going to get. Everything is to be done to make the clubrooms complete in every respect. The boys say that they are going to have as fine clubrooms as any in the State for athletic purposes. The change will be a good one, as the present quarters of the Acme Club are entirely inadequate. The boys have been dissatisfied with the place for over a year and they have tried hard to bring about a new deal. When they go into their new quarters a strong effort will be made to increase the membership of the club at least one-half.

A boating club has been formed at the Acme Club for the coming season. The oarsmen are very enthusiastic at present and they propose to make a record. The club will enter a crew in the championship regatta to be held at El Campo on May 30th. It is now proposed to enter a crew in every race that comes along. The boys have secured the services of Henry Tank as coacher and he has already commenced his work. Tank is an enthusiastic oarsman and is just the one needed to awaken interest in the crew. Nearly every evening from ten to fifteen oarsmen from the Acme Club visit Sessiou's Basin and go through their exercise. At the present time the crews at the club consist of Clarence Staples, Frank Simpson, John Bird, Robert White, Golf Wakeman, Fred Peterson, Bert Brown, John Malley, Fred Batten, Edward Dalton, Fred Kobler, Henry Tank and Cliff McClellan. The latter has been chosen captain and he seems to be just the man for the place.

The last gentleman's boxing night at the Acme Club was such a success that the boys are already calling for another one of the same kind. The contest between James E. Delaney and J. H. McMahon was one of the cleverest of its kind ever seen in this city. Delaney has the making of a prize boxer. He has the skill and staying powers, and if he sticks to his work he is sure to come to the front. The match was given to McMahon, but he did not get any glory out of his victory. The Acme man undoubtedly had the best of the contest, and if he had displayed a little more generalship, he would have certainly knocked out his opponent. Such a contest as was given by these two young men is a pleasure to witness. The Acme Club is getting a reputation for its clever boxing contests. Many of the boys seem to think that the Acmes have the best lot of boxers in the State.

AMONG THE ATHLETES.

Random Notes Picked Up at the Local Athletic Clubs.

The Reliance boys are devoting more attention to indoor sports at present. The gymnasium is crowded these nights and the athletes are very active. The directors have offered special inducements to young men to join the club. Special clubs of fifteen are being formed. When members join in a body under the club system no initiation fee is charged.

The Trampers Annex of the Acme Club opened the season last Sunday by a run to Wild Cat creek. The boys had a very enjoyable time. They propose to have an outing at least once a month.

Robert Starkey, who has made a record on the horizontal bars, has now taken to wire walking. Starkey is a clever gymnast and he will undoubtedly make a hit in his new line of work.

Messrs. Cook, Stegman and Toohig are practicing an acrobatic and tumbling act at the Acme Club. These young men are considered the cleverest tumblers in the club. Professor Leandro says that they will give a show soon that will surprise people.

President R. M. Fitzgerald of the Reliance Club is devoting much time at present to the Fabiola fiesta. He is president of the committee and he wants to see the affair a success.

Colonel Jack Bonnet of Santa Cruz and San Francisco is now the amateur handball player of the Pacific Coast and Hawaiian Islands. All are afraid to accept his challenges.

J. Fernando Conners, the latest addition to the wheelmen's ranks, broke the record the other day by falling off his bicycle six times in one block. He tore the bosom of his trousers very severely and it took two packets of safety pins to fix him up so that he could walk up the street without being arrested. He gives an exhibition race against time every morning on his way to business and can now ride from the City Hall to THE TRIBUNE office in a few seconds less than twenty minutes. He will probably be out for the coast championship this season—how much out it is impossible yet to say.

THE WHEELMEN.

Everyone Looking Forward to the Relay Race.

The wheelmen of Oakland are taking a great deal of interest in the great 100 mile relay race around the bay, which will take place next Sunday. The finish will be in East Oakland at the corner of Ninth avenue and East Seventeenth street.

The Acme and Reliance clubs have sent the names of their teams to headquarters as follows:

Reliance—C. D. Bates, J. H. Dieckman, C. L. Taylor Jr., A. Boyden, C. Griffiths, C. H. Harbottle, R. Collins, W. H. Brainard and F. Magil.

Acme—J. K. Sampson, M. F. Rose, O. L. Pickard, F. M. Byrne, G. A. Nissen, E. C. Decker, W. Burke, J. Kitchen and Theodore Schluster.

There will be considerable rivalry between the two local clubs for a place in the race. In the two previous contests the Acme boys defeated the Reliance both times. Last year the Reliance team made a very fair showing. The boys ran the course out all right and got a place in the finish. This year the club has placed a strong team in the field and the boys are doing some hard work getting in trim for the great contest.

Last Sunday the Reliance boys took a century run around the bay in order to select the different relay stations. The first division known as the "scorchers" left San Francisco at 7 A. M. An hour later the second division in charge of Captain George Strong left San Francisco. The pace was slow as a number of new riders took their first club run. The boys all met at Hotel Vendome, San Jose, in the afternoon, where dinner was served.

The Young Men's Christian Association Cycling Club gave a supper Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at which only members were present. The club is now in a flourishing condition. The club has appointed the following committees: Membership—E. C. Gilbert, H. L. Gilbert, E. C. Brown, J. M. Colquhoun, Charles D. Gooch; Entertainments—H. F. Kellogg, H. A. Kerr, E. C. Lyon; Racing—J. M. Colquhoun, C. C. Gilbert and E. J. McMullen.

Captain Jack Kitchen of the Acme Club is very confident these days. He thinks he has entered a team in the relay race that will make a record. The Acme boys have always cut a big figure in this annual race. Two years ago they won the pennant in grand style. Last year they lost the race by a few feet. This year every member of the team is in perfect condition and there seem to be no reason why the boys should not make a great showing.

Colonel George H. Mason has gone to riding a wheel again. In a few days he will appear on a fine new cycle.

Will Berry and Fred Knight will arrange for the judges and timers for the Reliance club on Sunday.

ED. WHITNEY.

A Popular Young Man Goes Into Business.

The portrait which appears herewith is that of Ed. Whitney, one of the best known young men in town. He is a great lover of the flying wheel and he can be seen on his bicycle daily, going to and returning from his place of business, and especially when there is a gathering of wheelmen at San Leandro or any other place in the county.

Mr. Whitney, who for years has been connected with the tonsorial parlor of Fred Carter, on Broadway, near Seventh street, is now the proprietor of a tonsorial establishment of his own, at 474 Tenth street, between Broadway and Washington street. He has just taken possession of the place, and it will hereafter be known as heretofore, the Fashion Tonsorial Parlor.

The Fashion is not a repository for old, decayed, worm-eaten, vermin-infested, malodorous chairs that have done service for a generation in the congenial companionship of cracked and cross-eyed mirrors. Instead, there are used the Columbia chair, the chair used in the great tonsorial parlor of the Palmer House, Chicago, to recline in which is positively a luxury. Then there are large peer mirrors of bevelled French plate, the reflection from which is perfect even on a dull day, because the whole front of the parlor is of glass and admits every ray of light.

The furniture is luxurious and the fixtures of carved oak are as rich and beautiful as any on the coast. In a word, the Fashion Parlor is the place to go to get a shave. It is neat and cosy, spacious, and all the artists there—and there are four of them—like Mr. Whitney himself, know how to handle their razors so well, that it is positively a pleasure to be shaved by them.

ED WHITNEY.

It is proposed to have all kinds of races, and to offer prizes for the winners.

TENNIS TABOOED.

The Sport Does Not Seem Very Popular This Year.

The tennis players do not seem to be in the race this season. Nearly all the courts are closed, and there has not been a suggestion of a tournament in Oakland. The boys who used to keep up the interest in tennis have nearly all joined the ranks of the wheelmen. Many of the courts will never be opened again, as the leases to the grounds have been given up. Tennis never was a very exciting sport, and many of the boys will not be sorry that it has dropped out of sight.

AGITATED WHEELMEN.

Provisions of the Sidewalk Riding Ordinance.

Bicyclers are becoming very much exercised over the rigid enforcement of the ordinance regarding the use of sidewalks by wheelmen. Every day they visit the office of Chief Schaffer to ascertain the exact provisions of the ordinance under which arrests are being made.

The ordinance, contrary to popular belief, permits riding on the sidewalks between the hours of 6 A. M. and 6 P. M., with the proviso that wheelmen shall dismount when reaching a pedestrian. The restrictive clause virtually prohibits the use of certain sidewalks, for on crowded thoroughfares bicyclers would be unable to comply with its provisions, unless they were jumping jacks. Other regulations prescribe that a lighted lantern shall be carried after 6 o'clock, or sundown.

New Registers.

The Columbia Cash Register Company of this city has entered the field with its new street car fare register. The first sale of 100 registers was made today to San Francisco parties, with strong competition in the field. This is a local company, but preparations are being made to introduce its registers in all the large cities of the East. Local street car men pronounce the new machine a model of beauty and far superior to any of the Eastern registers now on the market.

Choice Cycles.

The business which B. C. Lund, the proprietor of the Central Cyclery, in Central Bank building, on Fourteenth street, near Broadway, is doing in bicycles is simply remarkable. He has hosts of customers because the wheels he handles are readily appreciated by those who desire to ride the "silent steed." These wheels are the Cleveland, the Ben Hur, the Tribune and the Monarch. Mr. Lund's cyclery is the largest in Oakland. It is fitted up luxuriously and has every accommodation, notably a dressing-room, presided over by a lady for the accommodation of lady lovers of the wheel. Mr. Lund also makes a specialty of teaching riding, and is an adept in the business.

MRS. MEYER, 980 Wood street.

Messrs. Osgood Bros.—Allow me to say that I had glandular abscesses and scrofula for five long years and had tried every remedy I could find. A lady seeing my case recommended me to buy Valentine's Blood Syrup. I did not have the money to do so, but kind friends secured the medicine for me and it was the most wonderful medicine that I ever saw. In a week the sores began to heal and stop running, and in four weeks they entirely healed. They had been running five years without once stopping. H. E. MEYER, Auctioneer.

CUE AND BALL.

The Popular Game Has Had a Boom at the Clubs.

Since Schaefer and Ives visited Oakland there has been a decided boom in the game of billiards. The tables at the athletic clubs are taken up every night by young men who are anxious to become expert players.

The famous billiardists gave the local men many points on the game which will be of much benefit in the future.

The billiard tables at the athletic clubs have been a good thing. Those who enjoy the game were heretofore compelled to go into saloons if they wanted to play. Now they can go to their club and enjoy the sport among their friends. The fee charged for the use of the tables at the clubs is small and the boys are well satisfied with the way things are managed.

Billiards will always have its place in the athletic clubs. The athletes find rest in running off a game even after they have had some lively exercise.

FOR GOOD ROADS.

Strenuous Efforts Being Made by the Reliance Club.

The Good Roads Committee held a meeting at the Reliance Club rooms last night and discussed the situation. Much interest is taken in the work of this committee by the wheelmen in general. The committee last night decided to make an appeal to the various boards for better roads.

The work of the Committee might well be carried on in Oakland alone. The streets in this city, as a general rule, are hard on the wheel. The main thoroughfare where bitumen is used are all right. On most of the macadamized streets the opportunity for riding is very poor. In Alameda there can hardly be found a macadamized street that it is not a pleasure to ride on. It is true that some of the streets are comparatively new and it is also true that many of them are old. They are still good, though, and are well patronized by the wheelmen.

The road between Oakland and Alameda over the marsh is in bad condition. It seems a pity that this road cannot be improved in a proper manner. If this were a smooth road it would make one of the finest and best drives in this vicinity.

ON THE CREEK.

Some Lively Times on the Brooklyn Basin.

The boating men are coming to the front this season. Almost every afternoon some of the crews can be seen at work in the Brooklyn basin. The season is young yet but still nearly all the oarsmen have come out.

The Columbia Rowing Club which has been quiet for so long, has put a fine crew to work. Nearly every Sunday the boys show up in the water and do some hard work. The Columbia Club has some fine boats in stock. The crew will be seen in a number of races during the season.

The University team is not losing any time in getting into condition for the contest with the Stanford boys. This will be a very interesting race as it will be the first inter-collegiate contest. Hereafter it is proposed to have one contest every year for the championship.

The Oakland Navy will hold its regular monthly race on the estuary next Sunday afternoon. The boys interested in the Navy say that there will be much rivalry in the race, as some new members will enter speedy boats. The Navy race always draws out a large number of boats.

The Oakland Canoe Club has not held a regatta for a long time. The members of the club are talking up a grand Fourth of July regatta. They want to get every boat owner in the creek interested in the affair.

Serious Charges for Oscar Wilde.

The Apostle of Culture Gets Some Facers.

Lord Queensberry Has Stirred Up a Very Nasty Mess.

LONDON, April 3.—Every available inch of the Old Bailey was occupied this morning when the hearing of the libel suit brought against the Marquis of Queensberry by Oscar Wilde was opened before Justice Collins.

Wilde charges the Marquis with leaving, February 28th, an uncovered card at the Albemarle Club on which was written certain foul epithets.

As a result, Wilde on March 2d caused the arrest of the Marquis, and the latter at Marlborough Street Police Court was placed under £1500 bail.

The courtroom was crowded with lawyers.

Admission was obtained by ticket only, and the Sheriff in charge showed the representative of the Associated Press a pile of applications a foot high, many being from well known people.

Rumors were current in London yesterday that Wilde had suddenly left the city to avoid being present in court today, and reports were also current that startling developments would arise today.

But both of these rumors were set at rest by the arrival in court of the principals to the suit.

The Marquis, who wore a shabby overcoat, was placed in the dock and answered to the indictment by pleading first, not guilty, and secondly, that the libel was true and it was published for the public good.

The Marquis seemed unconcerned and replying to questions, spoke quietly and clearly.

Sir Edward Clarke, formerly Solicitor General, in opening the case, said the card left at Albemarle Club for Mr. Wilde, was one of the visiting cards of Marquis of Queensberry.

Continuing, counsel said that the gravest issues had been raised, as the defendant in his pleadings, alleged the plaintiff had for sometime solicited persons named to commit indecent offenses.

Certain letters addressed by the plaintiff to Lord Alfred Douglass, second son of the Marquis of Queensberry were brought to the plaintiff by a man who said he was in distress and Wilde gave him £20 with which to pay his passage to America.

Another letter was handed Beerbohm Tree, the actor, who gave it to the plaintiff.

Counsel then recounted the facts already known in the case, showing Wilde, who had recently returned from Algiers, drove up to the Albemarle Club about 5 P. M. February 28th, and on entering was handed an envelope by hall porter Sidney Wright, who said: "Lord Queensberry desired me, sir, to hand this to you when you came to the club."

Inside the envelope plaintiff found a card, on the back of which was the date, 4:30, 18, 2, 95, and on this card were written certain foul epithets which formed the basis of the suit.

OSCAR TAKES THE STAND.

Oscar Wilde was called. He languidly arose from the solicitor's table, where he was seated, and entered the witness box.

The plaintiff was faultlessly dressed in a black frock coat and carried gloves in his hand, showing his fingers covered with rings.

He was very pale, but seemingly composed.

Wilde spoke with his customary drawl, leaning his arms upon the rail of the witness box and replying distinctly to the questions.

The jury, which was composed of very intelligent men of elderly appearance, mainly prosperous tradesmen, eyed him with curiosity.

Witness said that upon arriving at the house, a few months ago, he found two gentlemen waiting in the library.

One was the Marquis of Queensberry, the other unknown to the plaintiff.

The former said: "Sit down."

"I replied," said Wilde: "Lord Queensberry, I will not allow any one to talk that way in my house. I suppose you have come to apologize. It is possible you accuse me and your son of sodomy."

He replied: "I don't say it, but you look like it and appear like it."

Counsel for plaintiff then asked the witness about the man to whom he had given £20 with which to pay his passage to America.

Witness said: "The man told me he had been offered £60 for the letter and I advised him immediately to accept it. But I finally gave him the money in order to relieve his distress and he gave me a letter."

THOSE "ROSE-RED LIPS."

The document referred to was here produced in court and was handed to Justice Collins.

The letter referred to the "rose-red lips" of Lord Alfred Douglass and the writer addressed him as "My own boy" and asked, "Why are you alone in London?" The letter was signed, "With undying love, Oscar."

Counsel, in explaining this letter, said it might seem extravagant to those in the habit of writing letters.

"But," he added, "it was mere poetry." [Laughter.]

Interest in the case was increased when Sir Edward Clark, upon finishing the direct examination, turned the witness over to E. H. Carson, Q. C. M. P., counsel for the Marquis of Queensberry, for examination.

Carson began his presentation of the case for the Marquis by reading passages from "Dorian Gray," one of Oscar Wilde's novels of modern life to show the author upheld sodomy, the plaintiff following counsel with a copy of the book and laughing at Carson's insinuation.

Carson, addressing the plaintiff, asked: "Do you think the description of "Dorian Gray," given on page 6, is a moral one?"

"Yes," replied Wilde; "just what an artist would notice in beautiful personality."

"Did you ever adore madly, as described in 'Dorian Gray,' any person of the male sex younger than yourself?" was the next question.

In reply, Wilde said: "I took the idea from Shakespeare's sonnets."

During this portion of the proceedings the Marquis of Queensberry followed his counsel with a copy of "Dorian Gray" in hands, with seeming enjoyment.

Wilde testified that the man to whom he gave £20, on receipt of the letter in which he referred to the "rose red lips" of Lord Douglass, which amount was used to pay his passage to America, was named Wood.

POETRY AND UNDYING LOVE.

Replying to questions by Mr. Carson, Wilde said the letter to Lord Alfred was merely "poetical," and he added he had "undying love" for Lord Alfred, who, he claimed, was his best friend.

Witness denied having misconducted himself with Wood.

The latter, he added, was introduced to him by Lord Alfred, who asked him to befriend him.

Wilde and Wood, it was shown by cross-examination, addressed each other by their Christian names.

It was also developed in writing that he did not concern himself to produce morality or immorality.

He had no purpose and was concerned merely with literature, beauty, wit and emotion.

He rarely thought of anything he wrote as true. Indeed, he might say never in regard to Dorian Gray.

Sir Edward Clarke objected to Carson cross-examining his client on that novel, as it appeared in Lippincott's Magazine and not as it was published in England.

Wilde thereupon stepped from the witness box and whispered a few words to his counsel, after which Sir Edward Clarke withdrew his objection.

The cross-examination was very severe and brought out great differences in the ages of Oscar Wilde and Lord Alfred Douglass, the former was born in 1856 and the latter in 1870; how the two had visited various towns together, stopped at the Savoy Hotel together, and how Lord Alfred visited Wilde's chamber.

Carson then drew out Wilde's opinion regarding literature in general, to which line of cross-examination the plaintiff made many smart responses in the same line as in his plays.

"The interpretation of my works does not concern me," said Wilde. "I do not care 'tuppence' for what the Philistines think about me."

A NEWSBOY TOO.

Carson severely repressed the levity of the witness and began a more serious phase of cross-examination, by questioning Wilde about his intimacy with a newsboy 18 years of age, belonging to Worthing, and brought out the fact that Wilde took the boy to a hotel at Brighton.

"Why did you seek the boy's society?" asked Carson. "Was it for an intellectual treat?"

"Oh, he was a bright, careless, amusing creature," replied the witness.

Carson here produced a silver cigarette case, handsome cane and book, which Wilde admitted he had given the newsboy.

The cross-examination then touched upon Wilde's relations with various boys and men, and the questions were so pointed as to be unprintable.

Wilde, however, emphatically denied that he had done anything improper, but was troubled and confused under the terrible cross-examination to which he was subjected, and frequently drank water.

In fact, he seemed ready to faint, and a chair was placed inside the witness stand for his use.

Throughout the questioning the plaintiff, the Marquis of Queensberry stood facing him, and did not take his eyes off him.

The cross-examination of Wilde was not finished when the court adjourned at 5 P. M.

A large crowd had assembled about Old Bailey to see Wilde leave.

Republicans Are on Top.

Every District Shows Big Gains.

Swift Had an Easy Victory in Chicago.

Democrats Knocked Out in Their Own Strongholds.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Complete returns give George B. Swift for Mayor a plurality of 41,110, the largest ever known here in a similar contest.

The Civil Service law was carried by a majority of 45,670.

Other candidates on the Republican city ticket were all elected, although Trude, the Democratic candidate for City Attorney, ran nearly 20,000 ahead of his ticket.

The Republicans also made a clean sweep of the town officers south, north and west and in the annexed districts of Hyde Park and Lakeview, while in the town, Lake and the Stockyards district, one of the supposed Democratic strongholds, the Republican landslide was remarkable.

The election gives Republicans complete control of the City Council, which will contain fifty Republicans and only eighteen Democrats.

D. Holmes, People's party candidate for Mayor, received 14,000 votes, less than half as many as polled by the third party last fall.

The plan of campaign of the Democratic candidate for mayor, Frank Wenter, was to cut into the German Republican vote and on this theory, he expected to be elected.

Examination of the returns shows he did get some German Republican votes, but the Irish Democratic votes he lost more than offset the gains among the Germans.

Bohemians, Poles and Italians apparently deserted him.

The greatest reinforcement Swift and the Republicans received was from the vote of the laboring class.

Many of those who voted the Peoples' party ticket last fall went to the Republicans.

Wenter declined to discuss the result except to say: "Evidently the people did not want another Democratic mayor at this time."

Mayor Hopkins (Dem.) was apparently not surprised over the result. "We have carried civil service," he said with a twinkle in his eye, when asked what he thought of the result.

Chairman Peabody of the Democratic Campaign Committee said: "Instead of coming to Wenter's support, I think foreign-born citizens want it understood that they are Americans, and for that reason they rather resented the claims set up as to their prejudices."

Mayor-elect Swift said: "It is a source of great satisfaction to know the people of Chicago have outgrown the campaign villification and appeals to race prejudice."

Martin Madden, (Rep.), vice president of the Western Stone Company, defeated Attorney Frank Walker (Dem.) for Alderman in the Silk Stocking Fourth ward.

Noble B. Judah (Rep.) is another notable winner for a seat in the City Council.

"Hinckey Dick" Kenna went down with the other Democrats, his successful opponent being Patrick Gleason, Republican.

"Buck" McCarthy, Republican, won in the Stockyards district. This was the greatest surprise of the election.

About the only non-Republican who squeezed in was ex-Congressman Frank Lawler, Independent, who, owing to a quarrel between the Republican factions, captured the seat of Alderman by an exceedingly narrow margin.

Mayor-elect Swift has decided to appoint O. D. Wetherill City Controller. Mr. Wetherill held this position under the administration of Mayor Harrison.

WENT FOR PROTECTION.

MILWAUKEE, April 3.—Returns indicate that Judge Winslow of Madison is re-elected Justice of the Supreme Court over Judge Clementson of Lancaster, Republican nominee, by a majority of 10,000.

The cities and villages generally went Republican.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS DID.

ST. LOUIS, April 3. — Of forty-four municipalities in Missouri heard from, the Democrats were successful in twenty-five, the Republicans in nine, and the Citizens' ticket in five, while in five other cities there was a mixed result.

Among the larger cities in which the Democratic tickets were elected are: Springfield, Mexico, Independence, Nevada, Moberly, Joplin, Centralia, Paris, Poplar, Bluff, Salem, Monett, Carrolton, Fayette, Neosho, Gallatin, Richmond and Bowling Green.

Sedalia, Macon, Carthage, Lebanon and St. Joseph are principally Republican cities.

Full returns of yesterday's election show that Moses Cravens, a negro, reported last night elected to the lower house of the Municipal Assembly from the Fifteenth ward, was defeated, and George Sisppel, a white Democrat, was elected.

Mary Walker in Court.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 3.—Dr. Mary Walker, an eccentric woman who persists in wearing male attire, pleaded her own case today in a contest of her aunt's will. The judge decided against her and allowed the will.

HAVING A GOOD TIME.

How Ex-Queen "Lil" Passes Her Prison Life.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 3.—A letter has been received from Q. C. Wharton, an Indianapolis man, who is a member of the National Guards, doing guard duty over ex-Queen Liliuokalani at Honolulu.

Wharton says: "The ex-Queen is a prisoner upstairs over our barracks. She is allowed a woman attendant all the time, and as the natives are all musicians they seem to enjoy themselves. Too time is mostly passed in singing and dancing. This is the way the ex-Queen is expected to pass the next five years."

Wharton says the islands are at present a poor place for capital, as the opinion is general that another rebellion may break out any time.

In this event, Wharton says, the Japanese will take a hand.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY.

Cleveland's Clerical Brother in Trouble Over Politics.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 3.—By a vote of 28 to 1, at an exciting session of the congregation of the Presbyterian Church at Chaumont, this county, last evening, it was decided to ask Rev. William Cleveland, brother of President Cleveland, to tender his resignation.

It is reported politics has been the disturbing element, although Mr. Cleveland took no part in politics.

Cleveland will appeal to the Presbytery.

NOTES OF LIBERTY.

The Columbian Bell Tolled in Honor of S. F. Smith.

CHICAGO, April 3.—The Columbian Liberty Bell was rung today at noon, in honor of Rev. Samuel Francis Smith, author of "America."

The ringing was done by a committee of school children, representing each State and territory.

Immediately after the ringing all united in singing "America," and a telegram was sent to the Music Hall, Boston, where the main celebration was in progress.

VALE BISSELL.

The Postmaster-General Out of Office.

W. L. Wilson Is Now in Full Charge of Uncle Sam's Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Contrary to expectations, W. L. Wilson took the oath of office as Postmaster General today.

Bissell received the employes of the department this afternoon and ends his official labors today.

Mrs. Fuller, wife of the Chief Justice, and Miss Wilson, daughter of the new Postmaster General, were present at the ceremony.

Bissell and Wilson conferred and saw some of the heads of the bureaus.

Then John L. Parson, president of the Letter Carriers' Association of New York, presented the retiring Postmaster General with an engrossed copy of resolutions commending the administration of Mr. Bissell, his enforcement of the rigour law and his extensions of the Civil Service laws.

Secretary Gresham sent Bissell a hickory walking-stick, which he, himself, cut on the grounds of the President's summer home at Woodley, and trimmed.

Shortly after these preliminaries, the employes of the department were introduced to Wilson and said good by to Bissell.

Wilson will enter on the active discharge of his duties tomorrow.

Decision Against Ex-Cashier Koetting of Madison.

MADISON, Wis., April 3.—John B. Koetting, ex-Cashier of the south side Savings Bank of Milwaukee will have to go to prison.

He was convicted of receiving deposits after the bank was insolvent, and was sentenced to four years.

He took the case to the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus based on the claim that the law under which he was convicted was unconstitutional.

The court today handed down a decision declaring the law valid and remanding Koetting to the custody of the Sheriff.

FLOWERS FOR THE EAST.

Los Angeles Goes Into a New Industry.

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—The first carload of cut flowers ever shipped from California was sent to Chicago today by the Central Park Floral Company.

It is expected they will reach Chicago for Easter Sunday.

The car contained 35,000 callas, Marguerites, English ivy and many other varieties of flowers.

It is regarded as a very important thing here, as the industry is practically a new one and promises big returns.

PALM BEACH, Fla., April 3.— The rumor circulated here April 1st, to the effect that the sloop Robinson Crusoe was wrecked off Key Largoes Island situated at the southern end of the Bay Biscayne, about 80 miles south of here, and her crew and passengers, including Messrs. Ziegler and Wells of New York and Brooklyn were lost, is thought to be false.

She left here Thursday, February 28th, in charge of Captain Hiscock, her owner, an old and experience sailor, who knows the Florida coast thoroughly.

There have been no storms along this part of the coast since they left.

NOW A CONTEST.

Public Works Commissioners to Go to Court.

An Amicable Arrangement for the Present.

The New Board Takes Full Possession of the Machinery.

Commissioners Hughes, Miller, and Carothers comprising the old Board of Public Works, were formally ejected from the offices last evening and their successors, Davie, Wilson, and Piersol took possession organized, and became the defacto board of the city

The proceedings last evening at the City Hall were entirely friendly. Everything was prearranged to the end that the legal proceedings to be taken the Superior Court might have a proper foundation, the formal demand, refusal and protest of the new and old boards was necessary

Soon after 7 o'clock the new Commissioners of Public Works organized by electing Mayor Davie President of the board. They then filed into the offices of the Board of Public Works where the old members were in session. Commissioner Peirsol of the new board addressed President Carothers of the old board. He presented the certificates of election of the new members and made a demand for the seats

Chairman Carothers who was flanked by Commissioners Hughes and Miller and Attorneys Nusbaumer and George De Golia arose and said

"In view of the fact that the members of the existing board claim that they are the legally constituted Board of Public Works, and as there are legal complications in these proceedings that can only be determined by judicial adjudication we therefore must decline to recognize your claim to these positions"

The declination had been carefully prepared in legal form and the typewritten reply was handed to Secretary Kaufman. The three old Commissioners vacated their seats in a pretext to see the document in the hands of the secretary. Immediately the Mayor occupied President Carothers' chair and was followed by Peirsol and Wilson, who took possession of the vacant chairs of Commissioners Hughes and Miller. The three ousted Commissioners entered a formal protest, as follows

"Believing, as we do that we are still the legally qualified members of the Board of Public Works of this city we do hereby formally protest against the intrusion and occupation of yourselves of our respective places and offices as members of said board and do hereby object and protest against the forcible assumption or exercise of any of the duties prerogatives or emoluments of such office, and we request you to spread this protest upon the minutes"

The new board adjourned immediately. The next move will be made in the Superior Court. Attorney De Golia will secure the permission of the Attorney General to bring the suit and proceedings will be commenced at once to settle the question whether or not the new board is legally entitled to its office

A glance at the present situation will show that there are some very complicated tangles likely to arise from the contest as it is by no means assured that the new board is a legally elected body.

Auditor Snow has stated that he will recognize the new board. Therefore the old members will be unable to draw their salaries until the courts decide in their favor should that be the turn of affairs. The Auditor is placed in a rather peculiar position, as he has to assume the responsibility for the payment of salaries to the new members so long as they hold office undisturbed

It is understood that the contesting parties in the fight over the Board of Public Works have agreed to abide by the decision of the Superior Court in banc, when the case is submitted. This means that the matter will not be taken before the Supreme Court at the instance of any of the members of the old or the new boards. Any other person interested in having the matter finally decided by the highest tribunal would be at liberty to carry it to the higher court but so far as those directly interested are concerned the decision of the Superior Court will be considered binding.

THE ROUTINE WORK

The old Board transacted the following routine business. Resolutions were passed as follows

A resolution providing for the employment of four street laborers with wages at $2 a day

A resolution rescinding the former one providing that all city garbage be dumped at the foot of Seward street

A resolution discharging all street sprinklers and street and sewer laborers

A communication from the Board of Education was read, containing a statement of bills approved by that body, and was filed

Applications were received for positions as street sprinklers from Mrs M Bates 451 B street M Murphy 1065 Tenth street and William Hunt, 1755 Twenty-first avenue

A communication was received from the Grand Army of the Republic extending an invitation to the board to be present at the celebration to be held in Lincoln square on April 15th

NO CLASH NOW.

The Sheriff Will Not Fight the Police.

It Looks Therefore as if Holland Will Go for Lambert

The question as to who will go to Honolulu to bring back Walter R Lambert, the defaulting clerk of the Police Court, will be settled by Governor Budd. He will name the agent to go to Hawaii for the State. That is the general custom and it will not be deviated from in the present instance. The Governor, however, will probably appoint a person to make the trip who is agreeable to the authorities in this city.

Detective Holland will probably be named as the officer to capture Lambert. He understands extradition matters and is personally acquainted with Lambert, so that he will have no trouble in locating the clerk

The Grand Jury found an indictment against Lambert in short order. Expert York, Treasurer Gilpin, Officer Hodgkins and Police Court Clerk Thomas Crawford all gave evidence and in an hour Lambert was indicted. The papers have been placed in the hands of Sheriff White but he is not fighting for the trip to Honolulu. He is perfectly willing that the police shall handle the whole matter. There are no fees in the trip of any kind, and the officer who goes after Lambert will only be allowed his expenses. Mr. White is willing to turn over the indictment to the agent that may be named by the Governor.

Chief Schaffer has gone to Sacramento to consult the Governor about a pardon for a man in the City Prison, and he will undoubtedly bring up the Lambert matter and present the facts. It is well understood that if Lambert is to be captured, action in his case must be taken at once. If he should get word of the proceedings before an officer arrives, he would certainly make himself scarce on the islands.

TO BE INDICTED.

Many Office-Seekers Failed to File Statements.

The Matter is to Go Before the Grand Jury.

District Attorney Snook Will Uphold the Election Law.

District Attorney Snook has prepared a list of candidates at the recent election who have failed to comply with the law and file itemized statements of their election expenses with the County Clerk. The law on the subject was presented to these gentlemen by County Clerk Jordan who sent out a circular letter

Some of the candidates have absolutely refused to make any kind of a statement, and the officials at the Courthouse say that they have been guilty of a clear violation of the law. Just what will be done with them is not certain, but the District Attorney proposes to do his duty in the matter. He will simply present the names of the candidates to the county censors and quote them the law on the subject. It is probable that some indictments will be found against the gentlemen who have failed to obey the law. The candidates who are on the list to go to the Grand Jury are as follows

City Treasurer—Cleve L Dam

Councilmen-at-large—H B Laird J E Spaulding, F H Montgomery and H W Stowe.

Board of Education-at-large—R J Hunter F M Phillips D W Webster, J McMurtry

Councilmen—W W Graham First ward, A J Parker Third ward F J Edwards Fourth ward D C Brown Seventh ward.

Member of Board of Education—E S Williams Fifth ward, E H Webster, Sixth Ward and S. H Wright, Seventh ward

Library Trustees—J [illegible] Carrington, C W Logan P Wisnand and J Harding

The indictments can only be for a misdemeanor and the accused will be punished with a fine. There is no desire on the part of the officials to crowd the defeated candidates but they believe that as the law is in the statute books it ought to be obeyed

District Attorney Snook will not discuss the matter at present. He does not deem it proper to talk about affairs that will come before the Grand Jury. It is certain however that there are lively times in prospect for the derelict candidates

SEEKING A PARDON.

Chief of Police Schaffer Goes to Sacramento.

Chief of Police Schaffer went to Sacramento today to intercede with Governor Budd in behalf of Louis McCullough the prisoner who is losing his eyesight. Besides his personal effort, the chief has letters from Assistant District Attorney Melvin two prosecuting witnesses ex-Mayor Pardee, who is treating McCullough, and others who are familiar with the case. The chief anticipates no difficulty in securing McCullough's pardon as it will mean the salvation of the sight of one eye. Dr. Pardee removed the left eye in order to save the other if possible

WILSON IS IN.

Oakland's New City Engineer Takes Office.

Some Complications Are Yet to Be [illegible] Reached by the [illegible]

City Engineer Arthur Wilson is safely ensconced in his office in the MacDonough block this morning. He appeared at the City Engineer's office and found the incumbent John W Gray ready to turn over the department to a successor, but not without protest. Mr Gray based his objections to retiring upon the same line that was followed last evening by the Board of Public Works which was ousted from office. Gray, however, notwithstanding his protest very gracefully surrendered his place

Mr Wilson's position as City Engineer is only affected in only one way. Should the courts decide that the charter amendment election was illegal Wilson's position would be jeopardized. In no other way can the contest affect him except as with respect to his title to a seat in the Board of Public Works.

If the contesting members of the board are successful in their theory that their terms do not expire until the end of the four years for which they were appointed they would of course retain their positions notwithstanding, that it might be determined as well that the amendment election was legal

In such event Wilson as well as City Attorney Peirsol, would be ousted from the Board

It is understood that there will be no separate contest so far as Wilson's position as City Engineer is concerned. All interested will await the result of the struggle over the Board of Public Works before proceeding further. City simply entered his protest in order to be in line should the charter election be knocked out

FINE FAT FEES.

A Record is Now Shown by the Auditor.

Monthly Statements Made Up of the Justices and Constables

District Attorney Snook has already commenced to feel the effect of the new fee bill. Under its provisions he is to sanction the criminal work of the constables and justices of the peace of Alameda county. If the Supervisors require it, he must even pass on all the bills presented against the county by the officers. This will entail a great amount of labor on the District Attorney, but it will have the effect of preventing constables from making frivolous arrests in order to secure fees from the county

County Auditor Whidden has just opened a new set of books in his office which show exactly how much money the justices and constables draw from the county for criminal work. The statement he has prepared shows that these officials have been drawing enormous fees. Had the County Government bill been signed by the Governor the constables and justices would have been in receipt of handsome incomes

Heretofore it was hard to ascertain just what sum the Constables and Justices were getting from the county for criminal work. Their bills were so arranged that it was not an easy task to get at the totals. Under Auditor Whidden's plan the totals can be secured in a moment. The statement that is now presented shows just what the officials receive

During the month of February Justices of the Peace drew down fees from the county as follows. Frederick C Clift Oakland township $119 Joseph Pimentel Eden township $[illegible] Edward Shaw Berkeley $183 J E Quinn Eden $87, S Landholdt Centerville, $93, G A Swasey, Alameda, $21 J H Taylor Livermore, $21, E. L Lawrence Brooklyn $177, C I Lord, Berkeley, $4, H I Morris $75. These fees are for criminal business alone

The Constables fees for criminal business for one month were as follows. J G Brotherton Berkeley $101 35, C [illegible] Day Alameda $57 75 J W Glaze Brooklyn $217 [illegible] J N Striker Berkeley [illegible] W J Ramage Eden $13 85 C J Newell Berkeley, $25 80 S B Vandervoort Washington $172 75, H W Von Kapp Alameda $98 85 George Wales Washington, $279 60 C F Weldon, Brooklyn $157 10, J. LOWER RATES.

A Cut by the Railroad on the Freight Tariff.

Competition Is Already Having Its Effect.

The Davie Line and the Southern Pacific Cross Swords.

This morning agents of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company concluded their notification of business men of this city of a reduction in freight rates between San Francisco and Oakland, via the creek route.

Application at the office of the railroad company, at the foot of Broadway, this morning by a TRIBUNE reporter resulted in the statement by the agent that the following reduction in rates had been made:

On salt and sugar, from 75 to 50 cents per ton; canned goods and heavy groceries, from $1.00 to 75 cents per ton.

The agent was asked if this reduction was occasioned by the desire to meet the competitive rates of the steamer Emma of the Davie Freight Company and replied:

"This reduction was made more for the purpose of equalizing rates than for anything else, because the rates on those commodities were considered higher than others. They have nothing to do with the Davie rates. They carry mostly wheat and grain. These rates are from Market street wharf, San Francisco to the foot of Broadway."

A. E. Dorrell of the Davie freight line said: "The rates to which the Southern Pacific has reduced its freight tariff on certain goods are the same as we have had in force for sometime. The railroad has made other reductions besides those on salt, sugar, canned goods and heavy groceries. On pipe and bar iron they have reduced from $1 50 to 75 cents per ton, and on fruit, I think, from $1 50 to $1 per ton. The cut averages 33 per cent. It will not effect us, because, if the merchants realize that it was made to antagonize us, they will readily see they have little to gain to remove their patronize from us only to have the rates raised at some other time.

"There will be a meeting of the Merchant's Exchange tonight, and, I understand, these reduction of rates will be discussed. I also understand that an attempt will be made to have the Exchange promise to support our freight line."

At the offices of the several express companies no information had been received that those corporations would be given a corresponding reduction in rates across the bay by the railroad company.

A DEEP CUT.

School Insurance Rewritten Cheaply.

Reinsurance, with cut rates, was effected yesterday upon all the school buildings of the city by a special committee of the Board of Education, consisting of Directors McMullan, Reed and Moody. The committee met yesterday afternoon and received bids from a large number of insurance agents who were in attendance at the City Hall to fight for the business.

Andy Stone made an offer to place the insurance at 30 per cent of the original premium. Harry Gordon induced the majority of the fifteen agents present to make a bid of 50 per cent. He could not secure unanimous consent, however. The committee decided last evening to place the business at a 75 per cent cut with a large number of companies which accepted the policies. No choice will be made in the placing of the reinsurance. It will be distributed very generally among all the companies.

The credit for the resolution which brought about the reinsurance is due to Director D. A. McMullan.

NOT TO RESIGN.

Gresham Will Hold on to His Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A vigorous denial is made in Administration circles of the story that Secretary Gresham is about to resign.

The Secretary himself will not be interviewed, not caring to dignify the report by a denial.

It is a fact, though, that the Secretary has been in ill-health for sometime, and a recent attack of neuralgia of the stomach left him much debilitated.

SCHOOL CENSUS.

Marshals Appointed to Canvass the Children.

The taking of the school census of this city will commence on April 15th, under the superintendence of W. N. Friend, who was chosen Census Marshal several weeks ago by the Board of Education. He will have eleven assistants, ten of whom have been selected. They are as follows: C. Groff, Clyde Carrigan, W. R. Barstow, Miss Douglass, Whitehead, W. C. Harmon, Fred L. Monnet, Andrew Hollywood, John D. Warren, James Gilbertson and Frank Howard. The marshals will meet Saturday to arrange the details of their work.

A LOOP LINE.

Good Prospects for the Road to San Jose.

There is now good reason to believe that the electric road from Haywards to San Jose, through Washington township, will be built. The idea of the projectors seem to be to make it a people's road and to have the farmers and fruit raisers along the line take stock in the enterprise. The company intends to capitalize at $500,000 with 100,000 shares at $5 a share. Messrs. Messrs. F. Cappellett, F. E. Kendall and L. E. Osgood have already subscribed $40,000, and only $10,000 more are required to enable the company to incorporate.

I began using Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, feeding it to him and rubbing it into his body. He began to fatten and is now a beautiful dimpled boy. WEDNESDAY..... APRIL 3, 1895

THE San Francisco Evening Post has made wonderful strides since it passed into the hands of Hugh Hume. It has always touched the popular vein and this is due to the marked enterprise that has characterized both its views and policy. It is variably has some extraordinary inducement to offer to its patrons, and its latest effort in this direction is its best. By means of the coupon ballot system it has inaugurated a contest to decide who are the most popular teachers in the State, and those who are chosen are to be rewarded with free first-class transportation and expenses to London, Paris, Honolulu, Alaska, Yosemite and other famous resorts. There will undoubtedly be keen competition for such liberal prizes.

Short and Long Routes.

The recent discussion about the comparative advantages of short and long railroad routes, bring into the foreground one or two old facts that have as much force as ever. The old route of the Western Pacific was laid across the mountains by way of Livermore. The elevation was quite under 1000 feet. But after that road passed into the hands of the Central Pacific Company the disadvantages of that elevation were so great that a new route was adopted by way of Martinez. The railroad preferred to extend its mileage, by going around this mountain or hill. It made a substantial gain by the change.

Now the Pacheco Pass is by estimate 1560 feet. Overcoming that elevation, trains could cross from the San Joaquin valley to the Salinas and Santa Clara valleys. But, according to the economic policy now recognized in railway construction, the overcoming of such an elevation would be represented by an extension along valley grades of hardly less than thirty-five miles. The shorter route may be a good thing to conjure with when subscriptions are to be stimulated. But when the railroad company gets right down to the business of construction, it is probable that valley grades will have the preference over mountain grades.

That Disastrous Leadership.

Debs has had a hearing now in the chief cities of the State. What has come of all his harangues? Has he been a benefactor to any one? Has he made the lot of a single individual who must earn his daily bread any better? Now there must have been hundreds of men in this city who were reminded that it was through his counsels that they were overtaken by want and some of them brought to the very verge of starvation. They lost their places, the ability for the time being to earn money for the support of their families. They followed Debs' counsel. Not one of them would have joined in the great strike if he had not misled them by his words. His message to them was to "stand pat," and to quit the service of employers against whom they had no ground of complaint. Here was the pity of it.

Here were hundreds of men without a grievance, who had made no complaint that they were not fairly paid for their services, but who were ordered by Debs to take up the cause of men two thousand miles away who had a grievance against a manufacturing company. How much these striking men suffered, how great the losses were that they incurred, what privations their families endured, can never be set down in black and white. Many of them suffered in silence, some lost homesteads, more were compelled to seek employment in other cities, and are not yet exempt from the evils of that unfortunate episode.

The several railway companies of the country, according to estimates made soon after the strike, lost not less than $10,000,000. Thousands of men followed Debs' counsel, and a great many of them to their ultimate undoing. The greater public also suffered immensely. Now what is there to put in the scales opposite all this sacrifice? Debs has really furnished nothing. He can never make good a fraction of all this loss. Did he bring any comfort to the hundreds who have suffered on this side of the country by following his counsels and obeying his commands?

It is fitting to ask these questions now when the excitement is all over, the losses estimated and the good, if any, should be known. There are no reproaches to be uttered. Those who had the strongest sympathy for the men who followed the counsels of Debs are those who inquire wistfully about the gains. Debs himself admits that there were none, and that there is no encouragement to renew the struggle along the same lines. If he could only return the men to their places, could make good only a fraction of the losses they suffered through his leadership, there would be a prompt acknowledgment of benefits. It is seldom that there has been as much bitter fruit resulting from a single leadership in this country. That is the pity of it.

The Bow in the Horizon.

The sweeping Republican victories in Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities, are at least indications of what is coming when the next opportunity comes for an expression of public opinion. The growing dissatisfaction with the present Administration finds expression in these local elections. The great cities of the country are electing Republican Mayors. Of course local considerations are prominent in all such elections. But beyond these there is a voicing of communities who are counting the months and the days when another great political revolution will sweep the country.

No relief is expected from the present Administration. A few months ago there was a Congressional revolution. The large Democratic majority in the Lower House was displaced by a larger Republican majority. It is not probable that the next Congress will be able to make much headway against a hostile President. The present tariff will probably stand until a new Administration comes into power. But as sure as that Administration is Republican it will make important changes in the tariff. For more than a quarter of a century the country prospered under Republican rule. The country is seeking to revive that old prosperity. The horizon is becoming brighter every day. There are good times in prospect.

Since the autumn elections, which were a route and a revolution for the party in power, there is little doubt about what is coming less than two years hence. The people accentuated their conviction even in these local elections. It is more than a dissatisfaction with local administration. It is the voice of dissent also with the national administration. That is the greater significance of such elections as have recently occurred in Chicago, Cincinnati and other large cities of the country.

Public Works and the Charter.

The organic law known as the charter has been made and adopted by the people for the guide of municipal administrations. Whether every provision therein contained is the best that could have been desired is not now the question. This organic law is sovereign in all its parts unless it conflicts with legislative enactments, or is set aside by decisions of the courts.

Now a short time ago there was an almost universal expression of public opinion that substantial benefits would be secured by an amendment of the article providing for a Board of Public Works. The several steps by which such a change could be secured were taken in regular order. The electors adopted the amendments proposed by a very large majority. The Legislature confirmed what the people had done. These amendments are today an integral part of the organic law.

By virtue of these changes, a new Board of Public Works was recently elected. Every intelligent voter knew when he went to the polls that the successful candidates for Mayor, Attorney and Engineer would comprise that board. There was an earnest discussion about the qualifications of candidates for these places.

The board has been elected, has qualified and nominally entered upon its duties. They are in their places by the will of the people. Does any one serve a good purpose now by undertaking to defeat that will? Such attempts were made two years ago. Nothing came of them but a great deal of loose and foolish talk. It is not probable that more than that will come of protests and obstructions made now. It is a very good policy to let well enough alone.

Ad Dorotheam.

I know where there is honey in a jar,
Meet for a certain little friend of mine;
And, Dorothy, I know where daisies are
That only wait small hands to intertwine
A wreath for such a golden head as thine.

The thought that thou art coming makes all glad;
The house is bright with blossoms high and low,
And many a little lass and lad
Expectantly are running to and fro.
The fire within our hearts is all aglow.

We want thee, child, to share in our delight
On this high day, the holiest and best,
Because 'twas then, ere youth had taken flight,
Thy grandmamma, of women loveliest,
Made me of men most honored and most blest.

That naughty boy who led thee to suppose
He was thy sweetheart has, I grieve to tell,
Been seen to pick the garden's choicest rose
And toddle with it to another belle,
Who does not treat him altogether well

But mind not that, or let it teach thee this—
To waste no love on any youthful rover
(All youths are rovers, I assure thee Miss).
No, if thou wouldst true constancy discover,
Thy grandpapa is perfect as a lover.

So come thou playmate of my closing day,
The latest treasure life can offer me,
And with thy baby laughter make us gay.
Thy fresh young voice shall sing, my Dorothy,
Songs that shall bid the feet of sorrow flee.

A BIG CARD.

H. C. Capwell Has Secured the Silver Statue.

It Will Be Exhibited at the Lace House.

Montana's Celebrated Creation to Be Here Two Weeks.

Almost the greatest glory of the World's Fair at Chicago was the wonderful silver statue that was the official exhibit of the State of Montana in the Mining building. So much has been written and told of it that it will be a delightful surprise to most of The Tribune's readers to learn that it is to be exhibited here free of charge That this is possible is due to the H. C. Capwell Company, proprietors of the Lace House, who have made arrangements with the owners for bringing it here for exhibition in their store

A short description of the statue and its purpose will not be without interest. The question of how to make Montana's display of its mineral resources in a unique and noticeable way was one that was much thought of. The idea of putting it in the form of a statue, made entirely of the precious metals, occurred to Colonel Frank D Higbee of Missoula, Mont., who immediately procured the co-operation of several of the wealthy men of the State, as well as the State's Commissioners to the fair. There was much rivalry for the honor of posing as the model for the statue, but the celebrated actress Ada Rehan was finally selected. The sculptor was Richard H Park of Florence, Italy

The statue contains 97 000 ounces of silver, valued at nearly $65 000 It is nine feet high and stands on a base of solid gold, the value of which is $22 000 so that the whole statue represents almost $300 000 In transit it occupies a special express car and is accompanied by an armed guard

Being asked as to the object of making the exhibit in the proposed manner, Mr Capwell said "We intend to use it as a great magnet to draw people to our store Not that they are expected to buy goods, but to get familiar with the inside of the store and the lines of goods we carry We feel that we are in a better position to supply the want of the people in those lines than we ever have been, but unlike some of other houses, have not the facilities to show one tenth of our assortment in our windows. Consequently we hit upon this great attraction to get people to look us over where we can show off to advantage, and have no doubt as to the impression that will be carried away with them. We do not confine our invitation to customers, but want all, especially school children also, to have an opportunity to see one of the most beautiful and remarkable works of art in existence "

The statue will be exhibited here for two weeks beginning April 15th After returning East it will be taken to Europe.

NOT THE MAN.

Suspect Dalton Is Restored to Liberty.

It Was Clear That He Is Not the Missing Train Thief.

The murderer of Sheriff Bogard of Tehama county has not yet been apprehended—at all events, he has not been found in J I Dalton the suspect whom Deputy Constable Teague arrested at Berkeley yesterday Dalton was brought before Justice Clift this morning on the charge of vagrancy The charge was dismissed and the accused was set at liberty. The charge was filed after it had become apparent that Dalton could not be held on the charge of murder

Dalton was arrested because of the resemblance he bore to Brady, who is now charged with the murder of Sheriff Bogard

He was subjected to a very close physical examination by a number of officers and while he bears a number of the marks which characterize Brady, the conclusion was reached that he is not the man who is wanted

He was recognized by Detective Holland as a man named Dessy whom he had arrested several years before He was also identified by a couple of ex-convicts who called to see him this morning at the instance of Detective Teague, father of the constable who made the arrest

These ex-convicts recognized him as a man who had "served time" with them He had been sent to the "pen" under the name of Dessy, and it has been ascertained that that is his right name, that of Dalton having been assumed to keep his parents in ignorance of his arrest.

Spite Work.

The charge made by L. W. Morley against W. Brennan of stealing two horses in Livermore was dismissed by Judge Clift yesterday evening. It was shown that the accusation was the result of spite on Morley's part

Will Marry Again.

Our Flat is a musical farce comedy by Mrs Musgrave which is to be presented at the Macdonough for three nights beginning tomorrow Our Flat is a bright sparkling farce which was well received on its first production in London several years ago drew large houses at the Lyceum Theater New York and is running now at the Strand Theater

The story of the play runs as follows Mr and Mrs Sylvester are two young persons who have rushed into matrimony on the Micawber principle of living from hand to mouth in a style that husband and wife alike striving hard to get a foothold in the literary sphere, in which they are confident they can ultimately acquire both fame and fortune Early in their career however they are overwhelmed with debt The flat they have hired is invaded by a continual stream of creditors the cook threatens to leave and at the height of the excitement three men walk in and deliberately carry off all the furniture which has been bought on the installment plan because the last payment has not been made

At this instant Mrs Sylvester receives a note informing her that a play she has written without the knowledge of her husband describing her own married experience has been accepted, and that the manager is coming to settle as to its price Therefore with the assistance of the cook she proceeds to improvise the furniture with whatever comes to hand—soap boxes barrels an ironing board a sitz bath tub a clothes horse etc and proceeds to rehabilitate the apartment They are so draped and arranged as to form quite a beautiful outfit and when the manager comes he is so impressed with the handsome and prosperous look of the surroundings that he pays $1000 for the play Many laughable complications arise from attempts to use the make shift furniture Then Mrs Sylvester's father, who has been angered by the marriage relents and the comedy comes to a happy conclusion

The cast is headed by Emily Bancker, who was for a long time principal in Charles Frohman's original productions Her success this season as Margery Sylvester has been phenomenal Miss Bancker is supported by Tom Ricketts George W Parsons P H Ryley Neil Scully W H Wallis Marion Van Court and Lee Jarvis and Vesta Verno

NO NEW MEN.

Sheriff White's Office in Full Running Order.

Thoroughly Friendly Feeling Between All the Parties.

There is no ill feeling in the Sheriff's office over the retirement of Under Sheriff C E Lloyd The new programme has gone into effect and W S Harlow has again assumed the duties of Under Sheriff The force in the office is now complete and Sheriff White does not intend to make any further changes

Mr Lloyd has accepted the situation in a very graceful manner It was thought that Mr White might appoint Mr Lloyd a bailiff in one of the courts to serve out the term In order to do this, however the Sheriff would have had to displace one of his men whom he had made a promise to retain during his term of office

Mr Lloyd was called upon by Sheriff White to assume the duties of Under Sheriff Mr Harlow was forced a good position and he announced his intention of returning at once This brought matters to a head Mr Lloyd had a similar understanding with the Sheriff about the matter He said it is he did not feel that he would be doing Mr White justice to try and assume the full duties of Under Sheriff He told Mr White that it was necessary to have his bonds well protected and he was not willing to take any chances

We have parted in a most friendly manner " said Mr Lloyd this morning. "Mr White acted just as I would have done myself if I had been Sheriff As for Mr Harlow he is a gentleman He understand his business thoroughly Of course I am sorry to sever my connection with the office because our relations have been very friendly The office that Mr Harlow holds is one that is very hard to fill There are technical questions arising all the time and if a man does not understand them he would have to be consulting an attorney all the time Now I was not willing to force Mr White into a position where he would have to take any chances I have studied the duties of that office for three months and I consider that I have three quarters of the business down fine The other one-quarter was not at my finger ends "

A BOAT ABLAZE.

The "Pride of the Ohio" Is a Total Wreck.

Fire Rages Disastrously on the Iron Queen.

A Colored Chambermaid Perished in the Blazing Ship.

POMEROY, O., April 3.—The Pittsburg and Cincinnati packet Iron Queen was burned at Antiquity, twelve miles above here, at 8 o'clock this morning.

THE NEWS CONFIRMED.

The disaster to the Iron Queen, reported from Pomeroy, has been confirmed by a dispatch to Superintendent Ellison of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Company, saying: "The boat is a total loss; one chambermaid is missing."

The Iron Queen, which was the pride of the Ohio river, was built in Marietta in 1892 and was valued at $60,000, insured about half that amount.

She was upward bound and had twenty to thirty passengers aboard and a good cargo.

One colored chambermaid was lost; her name is not obtainable.

HOW THE CALAMITY OCCURRED.

The boat was bound for Pittsburg, putting in here at 5 A. M.

At Racine, she took on a lot of baled straw and moved a mile further up to Antiquity to take on a large amount of hogshead pole.

While lying at the bank there a lamp exploded in the engine room, setting the rear part of the boat on fire, which rapidly communicated to the straw.

In a few moments the entire boat was in flames.

Captain Calhoon and clerk Keer rendered heroic service in saving the passengers.

Mate Schriver was surrounded by flames and had to jump into the river to save himself. He was badly burned about the face and hands.

REBELS ARE POPULAR.

Views of an American Observer in Cuba.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The Ward Line steamer Vigilancia, Captain McIntosh, arrived today from Havana.

A passenger reported that at Manzanillo, where he has been stopping some time, the sympathies of the whole city were with the insurgents.

There has been several skirmishes between the the Spanish troops and insurgents, but no decisive engagement took place.

A rumor was current at Manzanillo that a large force of insurgents was to invest the town.

This caused great excitement among the inhabitants, but the rumor could not be traced to any reliable source.

NOW FOR BUSINESS.

A Nicaragua Canal Commission Appointed by Grover.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Bulletin—The President has selected under the provisions of the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, the following persons as a board to investigate and report upon the feasibility, permanence and expense of the Nicaragua canal on the route proposed by the construction company.

From the army, Major William Bedlow, Corps of Engineers; from the navy, Commander U. T. Endicot, Civil Engineer; and from civil life, Alfred Noble of Chicago, member of the American Society Civil Engineers.

The deceased bequeathes $1 to her brothers, Alonzo Vernon Shelton and Simon T. Shelton, of Vermillion, Erie county, O. The residue of the estate goes to her husband, W. H. Ashley of Alameda. Welles Whitmore is named to act as executor without bonds.

Ben F. Woolner, the popular young member of the law firm of Gibson, Whitmore & Woolner, is the attorney for the estate.

A Currency Conference.

BERLIN, April 3.—The Upper House of the Prussian Diet has referred to a special committee the proposal of Count Von Mirbach for an international conference on the currency question.

IT'S A SUCCESS.

Unexpected Returns From the Income Tax.

About a Million and a Half Already Paid.

Large Sums Expected When the April Figures Come.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Income tax returns are coming far beyond the expectations of the officials.

To save time and avoid complications the collectors were instructed to classify and send in returns the 10th of each month, and therefore no reports have been received of a date later than March 10th.

Nevertheless 10,000 returns have already been received and are being verified and recorded.

It is estimated that the returns made to the collectors prior to March 10th represent at least $1,500,000 income tax, and the actual amount returned to April 1st will aggregate $15,000,000.

It is not expected that returns to any considerable number will be made before the 8th or 10th of April, five days before the time limit expires, hence, the showing is exceedingly gratifying to those who have the matter in charge.

Another matter of congratulation is the little difficulty being experienced by the taxpayers in filling out the blanks.

All things considered, the work of collecting the tax is going forward with very little friction.

It is expected that at least $20,000,000 income tax will have been collected by June 1st, the close of the fiscal year.

The officials do not express any doubts that the Supreme Court will sustain all the important features of the law, if not the entire act, as it stands, and are pushing the work as rapidly as is consistent with accuracy.

TO FIGHT FRAUDS.

Why Governor Stone Called a Special Session.

Important Railroad Matters Also to Come Up for Settlement.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 3.—Governor Stone today issued a call for a special session of the Legislature, to meet April 23d, for the following purposes:

First—To enact legislation to properly define the relation between the different classes of employes of railroad corporations and also the proper relations between all such employes and railroad corporations employing them.

Second—To provide such legislative enactments as are necessary and expedient to prevent the maintenance of an organized lobby at the Capitol of the State, either to obstruct or promote any legislative or executive act, and also to regulate the manner of presenting any questions affecting legislation by the persons interested therein before the general assembly or any committee thereon.

Third—To enact such laws as are necessary and expedient to prevent fraud against the elective franchise and to secure honest election in all cities having 100,000 inhabitants.

A Boom Hotel Gone.

REDLANDS, Cal., April 3.—The Terracina Hotel burned at 5 A. M.

The loss on the building is $20,000; on the furniture $12,000; insurance, $12,000. All the guests made their escape, but they lost most of their clothing. The building was erected in 1889 to boom the land, but had never been a success financially owing to its small size and remoteness from town.

TO HIT HARD,

Bassett Will Fight the Coal Bunker Ordinance.

The ordinance granting James P. Taylor & Co. the right to erect coal bunkers on the City wharf is declared by Councilman Bassett to be void on the ground that it conflicts with provisions of the charter which forbid the granting of leases to city property, except at auction, to the highest bidder. The ordinance, it is claimed, also conflicts with an ordinance which declares that no part of the City wharf shall be leased to any person. There is also a statute which provides for sales or leases of public property by auction to the highest bidder.

An ordinance to repeal the coal bunker ordinance has been introduced in the Council. The claim is made that the Taylor privilege is in the nature of a lease, although no consideration is named. This omission, however, does not necessarily prevent the grant from being a lease.

Councilman Bassett, who will fight for the repeal of the coal bunker ordinance, has loaded himself with opinions to prove the correctness of his claim.

TO FIGHT THE WILL.

A Dispute Arises Over Goldberg's Property.

There is to be a contest to the will of the late Morris Goldberg, the well-known capitalist who died in this county on March 28, 1894.

The contestant will be a brother of the deceased, who was bequeathed $2000.

Attorney Hiram A. Luttrell this afternoon looked over the papers connected with the estate at the County Clerk's office, preparatory to the institution of the proceedings.

The estate has been appraised at $248,000. The executors are Henry Wadsworth and Leon B. Goldberg of Chicago.

The contestant has, besides Attorney Luttrell, engaged A. Ruef and other able lawyers of San Francisco to fight the will.

TWO TRANCES.

But This Time Death Was at the Threshold.

The Rev. James Kane Is Dying of Pneumonia.

Short Sketch of the Career of the Famous Navy Chaplain.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Rev. James Kane, D. D., late chaplain of the Brooklyn Navy Yard is reported to be dying of pneumonia in England.

Mr. Kane won fame in the navy during the civil war.

After the war while his ship was quartered in Jamacia, he caught the yellow fever and died as far as appearances went.

He was placed in his coffin. He saw and heard everything that passed.

After eight hours in the coffin he sat up to the horror of the colored man whose duty it was to keep watch over him.

Some years later, while in the Norfolk Navy Yard, of which he was Chaplain, he appeared to die a second time, and remained in a cataleptic state forty-eight hours.

When he recovered he left the navy and completing his studies, joined the church.

Mr. Kane obtained leave of absence last year, and soon after was placed on the retired list.

He has a number of medals for bravery in battle.

LA LOMA PARK.

An Attachment Levied on a Handsome Home.

Captain Richard P. Thomas, ex-president of the California National Bank will now have to fight for his home at Berkeley. The place is known as La Loma Park, and consists of thirty-two acres of land and a fine house. Thomas is an insolvent debtor, and his assignee, John Chetwood is pursuing him to collect a judgment of $139,400.

This morning Chetwood brought an attachment suit against Thomas and his wife, Jane Thomas, and the Standard Soap Works, to recover the amount of the judgment. The plaintiff has levied attachment on La Loma Park. Chetwood claimed that the property was a homestead and was deeded by Thomas to the Standard Soap Works, in which he was interested. Mrs. Thomas' name was not signed to the deed. Chetwood therefore claims that the deed given by Thomas is null and void. He wants a homestead of $5000 carved out of the property and the balance of the land sold to satisfy the judgment. La Loma Park is valued at $40,000.

AT CUT RATES.

The City Hall is to Be Reinsured.

The City Council will take advantage of the insurance war and secure a reinsurance upon the City Hall at this evening's meeting. The Council has been offered a rate of 30 cents on the $25,000 policies carried on the building and its contents. The policies have about thirteen months yet to run before they expire. The return premium applied to the payment of the reinsurance will carry the policies for two years. The saving effected will amount to fully $500. Councilman Bassett has the matter in hand and will introduce the necessary resolutions this evening.

LASTING REST.

Dr. A. G. Anthony's Busy Career Is Ended.

Death Lifts the Latchstring at His Home.

A Life That Was Fraught With a Host of Good Deeds.

Dr. Albert G. Anthony, one of the best known physicians in Oakland, died this morning at his residence, 1561 Eighth street, after a lingering illness caused by liver troubles which had confined him to his home for four weeks past. Dr. Anthony's death was not unexpected, but everything that medical skill could suggest was done to prolong his life and if possible, save him from the heavy hand of death.

Few in Oakland had a wider circle of warm and loved friends than had the deceased physician. He was known throughout the city, and there will be many to mourn outside of his family. In West Oakland, where he has resided for many years, and had a very large practice, Dr. Anthony was almost adored. His many stirling qualities had endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. None will feel his death more keenly than those whom he met in his professional duties.

His social acquaintance was very large. Dr. Anthony was one of the leaders in the fraternal organizations of this city. He stood high in all of them. He was a member of Oakland Commandery, Knights Templar. He was a Royal Arch Mason and was a member of Alcatraz Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons. He belonged to Harbor Lodge, Odd Fellows, and Forest Camp, Woodmen of the World. He was also a member of the Chosen Friends, Legion of Honor, Knights of Pythias and Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Dr. Anthony was a native of Hatfield, Mass. He was 50 years of age. He came to California in 1868 and settled in Oakland three years later. He was engaged in the practice of medicine up to the time of his last illness.

Dr. Anthony was president of the Board of Health for two years, prior to the appointment of the present board.

He was a member of the County Medical Society.

He left a widow and three children, Victorine, Edward and Adah. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence.

"SAINT TERESA."

She Causes Another Bloody Conflict in Mexico.

OJINAGA, Mex., April 3—Bulletin.—Another conflict has occurred between the authorities and the followers of Saint Teresa Urrea, the so-called patron saint of the Mexicans in this section.

In a conflict several days ago between the authorities and the crowds that flocked to see Teresa three persons were killed.

The authorities determined to make another attempt to quell the excitement, and an armed force was sent to the spot where Teresa was camped, with orders to capture the wooden image she carried.

Her followers resisted the attempt, and in the fight that followed five persons were killed and three wounded.

The woman escaped into Texas, and is supposed to be on her way to her old home in Sonora, Mexico.

TOO CROWDED.

Mayor Davie Wants the School Board Rooms.

The Educators Are to Vacate the City Hall

There Will Be Some Opposition, Though, to the Change.

Mayor Davie will make some changes in the City Hall very soon which may not be to the liking of the Board of Education. He will probably move his quarters into the rooms now occupied by the board and the Superintendent of Schools.

The Mayor is impressed with the idea that his quarters in the small chamber that adjoins the City Clerk's office are entirely inadequate, especially as he proposes to occupy them a large portion of the day. There is no way in which callers can be provided for while waiting to see his Honor unless they pace the floor of the rather chilly corridor on the upper floor. To obviate this the Mayor has his eye upon the rooms now occupied by the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools. It is understood that the School Department is only permitted to have quarters in the City Hall as a matter of courtesy from the Council. The School Board is in reality not a part of the city government. It is a part of the county and comes under a distinct law. There is provision requiring the High School Board, which controls that department, to meet in the High school building. This has never been done since the board was installed in the City Hall.

In the event of such a change City Engineer Wilson would take the office now occupied by the Mayor and the Board of Public Works while the Board of Education and School Superintendent McClymonds would go to the Macdonough block. Superintendent McClymonds would oppose this move. There is ample accommodation for the board in the High school building and that is most likely where they will go.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

PRIZES ON PATENTS

How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors.

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the Company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody at some time or another conceives an idea, which, if patented would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost every one sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not the inventor will have a valuable patent.

A RELAY RACE.

Bicyclists Looking Forward to Sunday's Spin.

All the Crack Riders to Meet in Competition.

Sporting Notes and Gossip, as Gleaned by "The Umpire."

Nearly all the speedy wheelmen in this city are interested in the great one-hundred mile relay race, which will be held around the bay next Sunday. Oakland has entered two teams in the contest. The Reliance and Acme boys will try hard to carry off the honors for this city. This will be the greatest race of the year.

The game of billiards has had a boom in this city since the visit of Ives and Schaefer.

Next Sunday afternoon there will be racing in the estuary. The Oakland Navy boys will hold their regular monthly contest.

Following will be found a resume of the sporting events of the week.

THE UMPIRE.

IT seems to me to be a case of another year without baseball. When I say without baseball, I mean the professional game. Of course, we always have the amateur players with us. It makes no difference to them whether we have the professional game or not. They play ball year in and year out just for the sport it affords. These young men are to be commended for keeping up the National game in this city. There are many obstacles even in the way of the amateur players. I was talking to a player yesterday who is enthusiastic on the game. "Don't you know," said he, "that it is hard work for an amateur to get a chance to play ball. I belong to a club in this city and we have been trying for weeks to get a game, but we have not succeeded. I have written letters to a number of baseball men in other towns, but, as yet, I have not been able to arrange a game. Here, in Oakland, there are only a few clubs, and if you don't belong to the league, you can hardly get in a contest. The amateurs who enjoy the sport of baseball ought to show a little more spirit and organize. There are enough good players in this city to organize several amateur teams. The boys should get down to work and form a large local league. We do not need money or patronage. All we want is the sport. I am in for forming an Oakland league composed of local clubs."

An Oakland league of amateur clubs would not be a bad idea. The various schools could be taken into the league and I am sure the merchants could be induced to put up a handsome trophy for the winner of the season's game. Who will start the Oakland league?

The County Clerk's and County Recorder's baseball teams are still in existence. They are thirsting for a game of baseball to decide the championship of the courthouse. If the weather will permit, the game may be played a week from next Saturday at the University grounds. Captain Frank C. Jordan and Captain Charles Spear have arranged the details for the great contest. They have agreed upon the following staff to take charge of the contest: Umpires, Major Waters and Baby O'Connell; scorers, W. Jay Schmidt and Sconchin Maloney; physicians, Drs. Fisher, Bateau, Adams and Young; health inspector, Paul Schaffer; bat carriers, Denny Holland and Major Tompkins; undertakers, Dr. Baldwin, N. W. Leitch (alias "The King"), Joe McAvoy, Albert Brown, James Taylor, James McCarthy and others; goat keeper of the lost balls, Jake Bougard.

"Oh, yes; it is going to be a great game," said Frank C. Jordan. "We are out for blood. These Recorders can't play ball a little bit. Now mark what I tell you. I know a club when I see one—a poker club. It is going to be the game of the age. There will never be a game like it played on earth. It will be a game for your life. We will give these Recorders such a beating that they will not show up at the hall for six months. We will wipe them off the face of the earth as baseball players. We will be the kingpins in our little circle as baseball players."

Captain Spear heard what Captain Jordan said and simply remarked "nit."

The University team seems to be in hard luck this year. The showing the boys have made up to date has not been good. This does not speak very well for the coaching of Tip O'Neill, who undertook to put the the boys in trim for the season. I understand that Tip was disgusted with his job before the season opened. He came to the conclusion that the Berkeley boys were not in the race. The players miss the kindly advice of ex-Manager Wolff, who used to do more work than any member of the team. Mr. Wolff told me the other day that he never worked so hard in his life as he did when he managed the baseball team. "Why, I would not go through that deal again for anything," said he. "You do not even get thanked for your trouble, on the contrary, you get a rough deal all around. Now, when I was manager the boys could put up a pretty good game. The trouble with us was that we were pursued by hard luck throughout the season. I tell you a baseball manager's life is not a happy one."

The Reliance boys have come right to the front as baseball players. The way the league record stands at present shows that they have an excellent chance of winning the pennant. Captain Cal Ewing has made the boys play ball from the start. There are no drones in the Reliance team. They all play ball as though they were out for the pennant in each game. The members of the team are all enthusiastic, and they are anxious to make a record for their club. That is the kind of a baseball team to have in the field. If the Reliance boys do not capture the pennant then I am very much mistaken.

The league season is going to be an interesting one, for some of the clubs are evenly matched and they will put up some good games. The contests are very much enjoyed by the few cranks left, who take an interest in baseball. Nearly every Saturday during the season we will have a game at the University grounds.

THE UMPIRE.

THE ACME'S NEW HOME.

Work on the Building to Start in a Few Days.

The members of the Acme Athletic Club are taking a great deal of interest in the plans for the new clubrooms. The work on the new building will be commenced within a few days and it will be pushed until the structure is completed. The Acme boys have had a thorough understanding about the building and they know exactly what they are going to get. Everything is to be done to make the clubrooms complete in every respect. The boys say that they are going to have as fine clubrooms as any in the State for athletic purposes. The change will be a good one, as the present quarters of the Acme Club are entirely inadequate. The boys have been dissatisfied with the place for over a year and they have tried hard to bring about a new deal. When they go into their new quarters a strong effort will be made to increase the membership of the club at least one-half.

A boating club has been formed at the Acme Club for the coming season. The oarsmen are very enthusiastic at present and they propose to make a record. The club will enter a crew in the championship regatta to be held at El Campo on May 30th. It is now proposed to enter a crew in every race that comes along. The boys have secured the services of Henry Tank as coacher and he has already commenced his work. Tank is an enthusiastic oarsman and is just the one needed to awaken interest in the crew. Nearly every evening from ten to fifteen oarsmen from the Acme Club visit Session's Basin and go through their exercise. At the present time the crews at the club consist of Clarence Staples, Frank Simpson, John Bird, Robert White, Goff Wakeman, Fred Peterson, Bert Brown, John Malloy, Fred Betten, Edward Dalton, Fred Kohler, Henry Tank and Cliff McClellan. The latter has been chosen captain and he seems to be just the man for the place.

The last gentleman's boxing night at the Acme Club was such a success that the boys are already calling for another one of the same kind. The contest between James E. Delaney and J. H. McMahon was one of the cleverest of its kind ever seen in this city. Delaney has the making of a prize boxer. He has the skill and staying powers, and if he sticks to his work he is sure to come to the front. The match was given to McMahon, but he did not get any glory out of his victory. The Acme man undoubtedly had the best of the contest, and if he had displayed a little more generalship, he would have certainly knocked out his opponent. Such a contest as was given by these two young men is a pleasure to witness. The Acme Club is getting a reputation for its clever boxing contests. Many of the boys seem to think that the Acmes have the best lot of boxers in the State.

AMONG THE ATHLETES.

Random Notes Picked Up at the Local Athletic Clubs.

The Reliance boys are devoting more attention to indoor sports at present. The gymnasium is crowded these nights and the athletes are very active. The directors have offered special inducements to young men to join the club. Special clubs of fifteen are being formed. When members join in a body under the club system no initiation fee is charged.

The Trampers Annex of the Acme Club opened the season last Sunday by a run to Wild Cat creek. The boys had a very enjoyable time. They propose to have an outing at least once a month.

Robert Starkey, who has made a record on the horizontal bars, has now taken to wire walking. Starkey is a clever gymnast and he will undoubtedly make a hit in his new line of work.

Messrs. Cook, Stegman and Toohig are practicing an acrobatic and tumbling act at the Acme Club. These young men are considered the cleverest tumblers in the club. Professor Leandro says that they will give a show soon that will surprise people.

President R. M. Fitzgerald of the Reliance Club is devoting much time at present to the Fabiola fiesta. He is president of the committee and he wants to see the affair a success.

Colonel Jack Bonnet of Santa Cruz and San Francisco is now the amateur handball player of the Pacific Coast and Hawaiian Islands. All are afraid to accept his challenges.

J. Fernando Conners, the latest addition to the wheelmen's ranks, broke the record the other day by falling off his bicycle six times in one block. He tore the bosom of his trousers very severely and it took two packets of safety pins to fix him up so that he could walk up the street without being arrested. He gives an exhibition race against time every morning on his way to business and can now ride from the City Hall to THE TRIBUNE office in a few seconds less than twenty minutes. He will probably be out for the coast championship this season—how much out it is impossible yet to say.

THE WHEELMEN.

Everyone Looking Forward to the Relay Race.

The wheelmen of Oakland are taking a great deal of interest in the great 100 mile relay race around the bay, which will take place next Sunday. The finish will be in East Oakland at the corner of Ninth avenue and East Seventeenth street.

The Acme and Reliance clubs have sent the names of their teams to headquarters as follows:

Reliance—C. D. Bates, J. H. Dieckman, O. L. Taylor Jr., A. Boyden, C. Griffiths, O. M. Harbottle, R. Collins, W. H. Brainard and F. Magill.

Acme—J. R. Sampson, M. F. Rose, O. L. Pickard, F. M. Byrne, G. A. Nissen, E. C. Decker, W. Burke, J. Kitchen and Theodore Schlueter.

There will be considerable rivalry between the two local clubs for a place in the race. In the two previous contests the Acme boys defeated the Reliance both times. Last year the Reliance team made a very fair showing. The boys ran the course out all right and got a place in the finish. This year the club has placed a strong team in the field and the boys are doing some hard work getting in trim for the great contest.

Last Sunday the Reliance boys took a century run around the bay in order to select the different relay stations. The first division known as the "scorchers" left San Francisco at 7 A. M. An hour later the second division in charge of Captain George Strong left San Francisco. The pace was slow as a number of new riders took their first club run. The boys all met at Hotel Vendome, San Jose, in the afternoon, where dinner was served.

The Young Men's Christian Association Cycling Club gave a supper Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at which only members were present. The club is now in a flourishing condition. The club has appointed the following committees: Membership—E. C. Gilbert, H. L. Gilbert, E. C. Brown, J. M. Colquhoun, Charles D. Gooch; Entertainments—H. F. Kellogg, H. A. Kerr, E. C. Lyon; Racing—J. M. Colquhoun, C. C. Gilbert and R. J. McMullen.

Captain Jack Kitchen of the Acme Club is very confident these days. He thinks he has entered a team in the relay race that will make a record. The Acme boys have always cut a big figure in this annual race. Two years ago they won the pennant in grand style. Last year they lost the race by a few feet. This year every member of the team is in perfect condition and there seems to be no reason why the boys should not make a great showing.

Colonel George H. Mason has gone to riding a wheel again. In a few days he will appear on a fine new cycle.

Will Berry and Fred Knight will arrange for the judges and timers for the Reliance Club on Sunday.

ED. WHITNEY.

A Popular Young Man Goes Into Business.

The portrait which appears herewith is that of Ed. Whitney, one of the best known young men in town. He is a great lover of the flying wheel and he can be seen on his bicycle daily, going to and returning from his place of business, and especially when there is a gathering of wheelmen at San Leandro or any other place in the county.

Mr. Whitney, who for years has been connected with the tonsorial parlor of Fred Carter, on Broadway, near Seventh street, is now the proprietor of a tonsorial establishment of his own, at 474 Tenth street, between Broadway and Washington street. He has just taken possession of the place, and it will hereafter be known as heretofore, the Fashion Tonsorial Parlor.

The Fashion is not a repository for old, decayed, worm-eaten, vermin-infested, malodorous chairs that have done service for a generation in the congenial companionship of cracked and cross-eyed mirrors. Instead, there are used the Columbia chair, the chair used in the great tonsorial parlor of the Palmer House, Chicago, to recline in which is positively a luxury. Then there are large pier mirrors of bevelled French plate, the reflection from which is perfect even on a dull day, because the whole front of the parlor is of glass and admits every ray of light.

The furniture is luxurious and the fixtures of carved oak are as rich and beautiful as any on the coast. In a word, the Fashion Parlor is the place to go to get a shave. It is neat and cosy, spacious, and all the artists there—and there are four of them—like Mr. Whitney himself, know how to handle their razors so well, that it is positively a pleasure to be shaved by them.

CUE AND BALL.

The Popular Game Has Had a Boom at the Clubs.

Since Schaefer and Ives visited Oakland there has been a decided boom in the game of billiards. The tables at the athletic clubs are taken up every night by young men who are anxious to become expert players.

The famous billiardists gave the local men many points on the game which will be of much benefit in the future.

The billiard tables at the athletic clubs have been a good thing. Those who enjoy the game were heretofore compelled to go into saloons if they wanted to play. Now they can go to their club and enjoy the sport among their friends. The fee charged for the use of the tables at the clubs is small and the boys are well satisfied with the way things are managed.

Billiards will always have its place in the athletic clubs. The athletes find rest in running off a game even after they have had some lively exercise.

FOR GOOD ROADS.

Strenuous Efforts Being Made by the Reliance Club.

The Good Roads Committee held a meeting at the Reliance Club rooms last night and discussed the situation. Much interest is taken in the work of this committee by the wheelmen in general. The committee last night decided to make an appeal to the various boards for better roads.

The work of the Committee might well be carried on in Oakland alone. The streets in this city, as a general rule, are hard on the wheel. The main thoroughfares where bitumen is used are all right. On most of the macadamized streets the opportunity for riding is very poor. In Alameda there can hardly be found a macadamized street that it is not a pleasure to ride on. It is true that some of the streets are comparatively new and it is also true that many of them are old. They are all good, though, and are well patronized by the wheelmen.

The road between Oakland and Alameda over the marsh is in bad condition. It seems a pity that this road cannot be improved in a proper manner. If this were a smooth road it would make one of the finest and best drives in this vicinity.

ON THE CREEK.

Some Lively Times on the Brooklyn Basin.

The boating men are coming to the front this season. Almost every afternoon some of the crews can be seen at work in the Brooklyn basin. The season is young yet but still nearly all the oarsmen have come out.

The Columbia Rowing Club which has been quiet for so long, has put a fine crew to work. Nearly every Sunday the boys show up in the water and do some hard work. The Columbia Club has some fine boats in stock. The crew will be seen in a number of races during the season.

The University team is not losing any time in getting into condition for the contest with the Stanford boys. This will be a very interesting race as it will be the first inter-collegiate contest. Hereafter it is proposed to have one contest every year for the championship.

The Oakland Navy will hold its regular monthly race on the estuary next Sunday afternoon. The boys interested in the Navy say that there will be much rivalry in the race, as some new members will enter speedy boats. The Navy race always draws out a large number of boats.

The Oakland Canoe Club has not held a regatta for a long time. The members of the club are talking up a grand Fourth of July regatta. They want to get every boat owner in the creek interested in the affair. It is proposed to have all kinds of races, and to offer prizes for the winners.

TENNIS TABOOED.

The Sport Does Not Seem Very Popular This Year.

The tennis players do not seem to be in the race this season. Nearly all the courts are closed, and there has not been a suggestion of a tournament in Oakland. The boys who used to keep up the interest in tennis have nearly all joined the ranks of the wheelmen. Many of the courts will never be opened again, as the leases to the grounds have been given up. Tennis never was a very exciting sport, and many of the boys will not be sorry that it has dropped out of sight.

AGITATED WHEELMEN.

Provisions of the Sidewalk Riding Ordinance.

Bicyclers are becoming very much exercised over the rigid enforcement of the ordinance regarding the use of sidewalks by wheelmen. Every day they visit the office of Chief Schaffer to ascertain the exact provisions of the ordinance under which arrests are being made.

The ordinance, contrary to popular belief, permits riding on the sidewalks between the hours of 6 A. M. and 6 P. M., with the proviso that wheelmen shall dismount when reaching a pedestrian. The restrictive clause virtually prohibits the use of certain sidewalks, for on crowded thoroughfares bicyclers would be unable to comply with its provisions, unless they were jumping jacks. Other regulations prescribe that a lighted lantern shall be carried after 6 o'clock, or sundown.

New Registers.

The Columbia Cash Register Company of this city has entered the field with its new street car fare register. The first sale of 100 registers was made today to San Francisco parties, with strong competition in the field. This is a local company, but preparations are being made to introduce its registers in all the large cities of the East. Local street car men pronounce the new machine a model of beauty and far superior to any of the Eastern registers now on the market.

Choice Cycles.

The business which B. C. Lund, the proprietor of the Central Cyclery, in Central Bank building, on Fourteenth street, near Broadway, is doing in bicycles is simply remarkable. He has hosts of customers because the wheels he handles are readily appreciated by those who desire to ride the "silent steed." These wheels are the Cleveland, the Ben Hur, the Tribune and the Monarch. Mr. Lund's cyclery is the largest in Oakland. It is fitted up luxuriously and has every accommodation, notably a dressing-room, presided over by a lady for the accommodation of lady lovers of the wheel. Mr. Lund also makes a specialty of teaching riding and is an adept in the business.

MRS. MEYER, 980 Wood street.

Messrs. Osgood Bros.—Allow me to say that I had glandular abscesses and scrofula for five long years and had tried every remedy I could find. A lady seeing my case recommended me to buy Valentine's Blood Syrup. I did not have the money to dose, but kind friends secured the medicine for me and it was the most wonderful medicine that I ever saw. In a week the sores began to heal and stop running, and in four weeks they entirely healed. They had been running five years without once stopping.

Serious Charges for Oscar Wilde.

The Apostle of Culture Gets Some Facers.

Lord Queensberry Has Stirred Up a Very Nasty Mess.

LONDON, April 3.—Every available inch of the Old Bailey was occupied this morning when the hearing of the libel suit brought against the Marquis of Queensberry by Oscar Wilde was opened before Justice Collins.

Wilde charges the Marquis with leaving, February 28th, an uncovered card at the Albemarle Club on which was written certain foul epithets.

As a result, Wilde on March 2d caused the arrest of the Marquis, and the latter at Marlborough Street Police Court was placed under £1500 bail.

The courtroom was crowded with lawyers.

Admission was obtained by ticket only, and the Sheriff in charge showed the representative of the Associated Press a pile of applications a foot high, many being from well known people.

Rumors were current in London yesterday that Wilde had suddenly left the city to avoid being present in court today, and reports were also current that startling developments would arise today.

But both of these rumors were set at rest by the arrival in court of the principals to the suit.

The Marquis, who wore a shabby overcoat, was placed in the dock and answered to the indictment by pleading first, not guilty, and secondly, that the libel was true and it was published for the public good.

The Marquis seemed unconcerned and replying to questions, spoke quietly and clearly.

Sir Edward Clarke, formerly Solicitor General, in opening the case, said the card left at Albemarle Club for Mr. Wilde, was one of the visiting cards of Marquis of Queensberry.

Continuing, counsel said that the gravest issues had been raised, as the defendant in his pleadings, alleged the plaintiff had for sometime solicited persons named to commit indecent offenses.

Certain letters addressed by the plaintiff to Lord Alfred Douglass, second son of the Marquis of Queensberry were brought to the plaintiff by a man who said he was in distress and Wilde gave him £20 with which to pay his passage to America.

Another letter was handed Beerbohm Tree, the actor, who gave it to the plaintiff.

Counsel then recounted the facts already known in the case, showing Wilde, who had recently returned from Algiers, drove up to the Albemarle Club about 5 P. M. February 28th, and on entering was handed an envelope by hall porter Sidney Wright, who said: "Lord Queensberry desired me, sir, to hand this to you when you came to the club."

Inside the envelope plaintiff found a card, on the back of which was the date, 4:30, 18, 2, 95, and on this card were written certain foul epithets which formed the basis of the suit.

OSCAR TAKES THE STAND.

Oscar Wilde was called. He languidly arose from the solicitor's table, where he was seated, and entered the witness box.

The plaintiff was faultlessly dressed in a black frock coat and carried gloves in his hand, showing his fingers covered with rings.

He was very pale, but seemingly composed.

Wilde spoke with his customary drawl, leaning his arms upon the rail of the witness box and replying distinctly to the questions.

The jury, which was composed of very intelligent men of elderly appearance, mainly prosperous tradesmen, eyed him with curiosity.

Witness said that upon arriving at the house, a few months ago, he found two gentlemen waiting in the library.

One was the Marquis of Queensberry, the other unknown to the plaintiff.

The former said: "Sit down."

"I replied," said Wilde: "Lord Queensberry, I will not allow any one to talk that way in my house. I suppose you have come to apologize. It is possible you accuse me and your son of sodomy."

He replied: "I don't say it, but you look like it and appear like it."

Counsel for plaintiff then asked the witness about the man to whom he had given £20 with which to pay his passage to America.

Witness said: "The man told me he had been offered £60 for the letter and I advised him immediately to accept it. But I finally gave him the money in order to relieve his distress and he gave me a letter."

THOSE "ROSE-RED LIPS."

The document referred to was here produced in court and was handed to Justice Collins.

The letter referred to the "rose-red lips" of Lord Alfred Douglass and the writer addressed him as "My own boy" and asked, "Why are you alone in London?" The letter was signed, "With undying love, Oscar."

Counsel, in explaining this letter, said it might seem extravagant to those in the habit of writing letters.

"But," he added, "it was mere poetry." [Laughter.]

Interest in the case was increased when Sir Edward Clark, upon finishing the direct examination, turned the witness over to E. H. Carson, Q. C. M. P., counsel for the Marquis of Queensberry, for examination.

Carson began his presentation of the case for the Marquis by reading passages from "Dorian Gray," one of Oscar Wilde's novels of modern life to show the author upheld sodomy, the plaintiff following counsel with a copy of the book and laughing at Carson's insinuation.

Carson, addressing the plaintiff, asked: "Do you think the description of "Dorian Gray," given on page 6, is a moral one?"

"Yes," replied Wilde; "just what an artist would notice in beautiful personality."

"Did you ever adore madly, as described in 'Dorian Gray,' any person of the male sex younger than yourself?" was the next question.

In reply, Wilde said: "I took the idea from Shakespeare's sonnets."

During this portion of the proceedings the Marquis of Queensberry followed his counsel with a copy of "Dorian Gray" in hands, with seeming enjoyment.

Wilde testified that the man to whom he gave £20, on receipt of the letter in which he referred to the "rose red lips" of Lord Douglass, which amount was used to pay his passage to America, was named Wood.

POETRY AND UNDYING LOVE.

Replying to questions by Mr. Carson, Wilde said the letter to Lord Alfred was merely "poetical," and he added he had "undying love" for Lord Alfred, who, he claimed, was his best friend.

Witness denied having misconducted himself with Wood.

The latter, he added, was introduced to him by Lord Alfred, who asked him to befriend him.

Wilde and Wood, it was shown by cross-examination, addressed each other by their Christian names.

It was also developed in writing that he did not concern himself to produce morality or immorality.

He had no purpose and was concerned merely with literature, beauty, wit and emotion.

He rarely thought of anything he wrote as true. Indeed, he might say never in regard to Dorian Gray.

Sir Edward Clarke objected to Carson cross-examining his client on that novel, as it appeared in Lippincott's Magazine and not as it was published in England.

Wilde thereupon stepped from the witness box and whispered a few words to his counsel, after which Sir Edward Clarke withdrew his objection.

The cross-examination was very severe and brought out great differences in the ages of Oscar Wilde and Lord Alfred Douglass, the former was born in 1856 and the latter in 1870; how the two had visited various towns together, stopped at the Savoy Hotel together, and how Lord Alfred visited Wilde's chamber.

Carson then drew out Wilde's opinion regarding literature in general, to which line of cross-examination the plaintiff made many smart responses in the same line as in his plays.

"The interpretation of my works does not concern me," said Wilde. "I do not care 'tuppence' for what the Philistines think about me."

A NEWSBOY TOO.

Carson severely repressed the levity of the witness and began a more serious phase of cross-examination, by questioning Wilde about his intimacy with a newsboy 18 years of age, belonging to Worthing, and brought out the fact that Wilde took the boy to a hotel at Brighton.

"Why did you seek the boy's society?" asked Carson. "Was it for an intellectual treat?"

"Oh, he was a bright, careless, amusing creature," replied the witness.

Carson here produced a silver cigarette case, handsome cane and book, which Wilde admitted he had given the newsboy.

The cross-examination then touched upon Wilde's relations with various boys and men, and the questions were so pointed as to be unprintable.

Wilde, however, emphatically denied that he had done anything improper, but was troubled and confused under the terrible cross-examination to which he was subjected, and frequently drank water.

In fact, he seemed ready to faint, and a chair was placed inside the witness stand for his use.

Throughout the questioning the plaintiff, the Marquis of Queensberry stood facing him, and did not take his eyes off him.

The cross-examination of Wilde was not finished when the court adjourned at 5 P. M.

A large crowd had assembled about Old Bailey to see Wilde leave.

Republicans Are on Top.

Every District Shows Big Gains.

Swift Had an Easy Victory in Chicago.

Democrats Knocked Out in Their Own Strongholds.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Complete returns give George B. Swift for Mayor a plurality of 11,110, the largest ever known here in a similar contest.

The Civil Service law was carried by a majority of 45 570.

Other candidates on the Republican city ticket were all elected, although Trude, the Democratic candidate for City Attorney, ran nearly 20 000 ahead of his ticket.

The Republicans also made a clean sweep of the town officers south, north and west and in the annexed districts of Hyde Park and Lakeview, where in the town, Lake and the Stockyards district, one of the supposed Democratic strongholds, the Republican landslide was remarkable.

The election gives Republicans complete control of the City Council, which will contain fifty Republicans and only eighteen Democrats.

D. Holmes, People's party candidate for Mayor, received 14 000 votes, less than half as many as polled by the third party last fall.

The plan of campaign of the Democratic candidate for mayor, Frank Wenter, was to cut into the German Republican vote and on this theory, he expected to be elected.

Examination of the returns shows he did get some German Republican votes, but the Irish Democratic votes he lost more than offset the gains among the Germans.

Bohemians, Poles and Italians apparently deserted him.

The greatest reinforcement Swift and the Republicans received was from the vote of the laboring class.

Many of those who voted the Peoples' party ticket last fall went to the Republicans.

Wenter declined to discuss the result except to say: "Evidently the people did not want another Democratic mayor at this time."

Mayor Hopkins (Dem.) was apparently not surprised over the result. "We have carried civil service," he said with a twinkle in his eye, when asked what he thought of the result.

Chairman Peabody of the Democratic Campaign Committee said: "Instead of coming to Wenter's support, I think foreign-born citizens want it understood that they are Americans, and for that reason they rather resented the claims set up as to their prejudices."

Mayor-elect Swift said: "It is a source of great satisfaction to know the people of Chicago have outgrown the campaign villification and appeals to race prejudice."

Martin Madden, (Rep.), vice president of the Western Stone Company, defeated Attorney Frank Walker (Dem.) for Alderman in the Sixth Stocking Fourth ward.

Noble B. Judah (Rep.) is another notable winner for a seat in the City Council.

"Hinckey Dink" Kenna went down with the other Democrats, his successful opponent being Patrick Gleason, Republican.

"Buck" McCarthy, Republican, won in the Stockyards district. This was the greatest surprise of the election.

About the only non-Republican who squeezed in was ex-Congressman Frank Lawler, Independent, who, owing to a quarrel between the Republican factions, captured the seat of Alderman by an exceedingly narrow margin.

Mayor-elect Swift has decided to appoint O. D. Wetherill City Controller. Mr. Wetherill held this position under the administration of Mayor Harrison.

WENT FOR PROTECTION.

MILWAUKEE, April 3.—Returns indicate that Judge Winslow of Madison is re-elected Justice of the Supreme Court over Judge Clementson of Lancaster, Republican nominee, by a majority of 10,000.

The cities and villages generally went Republican.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS DID.

ST. LOUIS, April 3. — Of forty-four municipalities in Missouri heard from, the Democrats were successful in twenty-five, the Republicans in nine, and the Citizens' ticket in five, while in five other cities there was a mixed result.

Among the larger cities in which the Democratic tickets were elected are: Springfield, Mexico, Independence, Nevada, Moberly, Joplin, Centralia, Paris, Poplar, Bluff, Salem, Monett, Carrolton, Fayette, Neosho, Gallatin, Richmond and Bowling Green.

Sedalia, Macon, Carthage, Lebanon and St. Joseph are principally Republican cities.

Full returns of yesterday's election show that Moses Cravens, a negro, reported last night elected to the lower house of the Municipal Assembly from the Fifteenth ward, was defeated, and George Sisppel, a white Democrat, was elected.

Mary Walker in Court.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 3.—Dr. Mary Walker, an eccentric woman who persists in wearing male attire, pleaded her own case today in a contest of her aunt's will. The judge decided against her and allowed the will.

HAVING A GOOD TIME.

How Ex-Queen "Lil" Passes Her Prison Life.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 3.—A letter has been received from Q. C. Wharton, an Indianapolis man, who is a member of the National Guards, doing guard duty over ex-Queen Liliuokalani at Honolulu.

Wharton says: "The ex-Queen is a prisoner upstairs over our barracks. She is allowed a woman attendant all the time, and as the natives are all musicians they seem to enjoy themselves. The time is mostly passed in singing and dancing. This is the way the ex-Queen is expected to pass the next five years."

Wharton says the islands are at present a poor place for capital, as the opinion is general that another rebellion may break out any time.

In this event, Wharton says, the Japanese will take a hand.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY.

Cleveland's Clerical Brother in Trouble Over Politics.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 3.—By a vote of 28 to 1, at an exciting session of the congregation of the Presbyterian Church at Chaumont, this county, last evening, it was decided to ask Rev. William Cleveland, brother of President Cleveland, to tender his resignation.

It is reported politics has been the disturbing element, although Mr. Cleveland took no part in politics.

Cleveland will appeal to the Presbytery.

NOTES OF LIBERTY.

The Columbian Bell Tolled in Honor of S. F. Smith.

CHICAGO, April 3.—The Columbian Liberty Bell was rung today at noon, in honor of Rev. Samuel Francis Smith, author of "America."

The ringing was done by a committee of school children, representing each State and territory.

Immediately after the ringing all united in singing "America," and a telegram was sent to the Music Hall, Boston, where the main celebration was in progress.

VALE BISSELL.

The Postmaster-General Out of Office

W. L. Wilson Is Now in Full Charge of Uncle Sam's Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Contrary to expectations, W. L. Wilson took the oath of office as Postmaster General today.

Bissell received the employes of the department this afternoon and ends his official labors today.

Mrs. Fuller, wife of the Chief Justice, and Miss Wilson, daughter of the new Postmaster General, were present at the ceremony.

Bissell and Wilson conferred and saw some of the heads of the bureaus.

Then John L. Parson, president of the Letter Carriers' Association of New York, presented the retiring Postmaster General with an engrossed copy of resolutions commending the administration of Mr. Bissell, his enforcement of the rigour law and his extensions of the Civil Service laws.

Secretary Gresham sent Bissell a hickory walking-stick, which he, himself, cut on the grounds of the President's summer home at Woodley, and trimmed.

Shortly after these preliminaries, the employes of the department were introduced to Wilson and said good by to Bissell.

Wilson will enter on the active discharge of his duties tomorrow.

Bissell leaves for New York tonight to attend to private business.

He was convicted of receiving deposits after the bank was insolvent, and was sentenced to four years.

He took the case to the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus based on the claim that the law under which he was convicted was unconstitutional.

The court today handed down a decision declaring the law valid and remanding Koetting to the custody of the Sheriff.

FLOWERS FOR THE EAST.

Los Angeles Goes Into a New Industry.

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—The first carload of cut flowers ever shipped from California was sent to Chicago today by the Central Park Floral Company.

It is expected they will reach Chicago for Easter Sunday.

The car contained 35,000 callas, Marguerites, English ivy and many other varieties of flowers.

It is regarded as a very important thing here, as the industry is practically a new one and promises big returns.

MAY BE ALL RIGHT.

The "Robinson Crusoe" Was In Good Hands.

PALM BEACH, Fla., April 3.— The rumor circulated here April 1st, to the effect that the sloop Robinson Crusoe was wrecked off Key Largoes Island situated at the southern end of the Bay Biscayne, about 80 miles south of here, and her crew and passengers, including Messrs. Ziegler and Wells of New York and Brooklyn were lost, is thought to be false.

She left here Thursday, February 28th, in charge of Captain Hiscock, her owner, an old and experience sailor, who knows the Florida coast thoroughly.

There have been no storms along this part of the coast since they left.

NOW A CONTEST.

Public Works Commissioners to Go to Court.

An Amicable Arrangement for the Present.

The New Board Takes Full Possession of the Machinery.

Commissioners Hughes, Miller, and Carothers, comprising the old Board of Public Works, were formally ejected from the offices last evening and their successors, Davie, Wilson, and Piersol, took possession, organized, and became the defacto board of the city.

The proceedings last evening at the City Hall were entirely friendly. Everything was prearranged. To the end that the legal proceedings to be taken the Superior Court might have a proper foundation, the formal demand, refusal and protest of the new and old boards was necessary.

Soon after 7 o'clock the new Commissioners of Public Works organized by electing Mayor Davie President of the board. They then filed into the offices of the Board of Public Works, where the old members were in session. Commissioner Peirsol of the new board addressed President Carothers of the old board. He presented the certificates of election of the new members and made a demand for the seats.

Chairman Carothers, who was flanked by Commissioners Hughes and Miller and Attorneys Nusbaumer and George De Golia, arose and said:

"In view of the fact that the members of the existing board claim that they are the legally constituted Board of Public Works, and as there are legal complications in these proceedings that can only be determined by judicial adjudication, we therefore must decline to recognize your claim to these positions."

The declination had been carefully prepared in legal form, and the typewritten reply was handed to Secretary Kaufman. The three old Commissioners vacated their seats on a pretext to see the document in the hands of the secretary. Immediately the Mayor occupied President Carothers' chair, and was followed by Peirsol and Wilson, who took possession of the vacant chairs of Commissioners Hughes and Miller. The three ousted Commissioners entered a formal protest, as follows:

"Believing as we do that we are still the legally qualified members of the Board of Public Works of this city, we do hereby formally protest against the intrusion and occupation of yourselves of our respective places and offices as members of said board and do hereby object and protest against the forcible assumption or exercise of any of the duties, prerogatives or emoluments of such office, and we request you to spread this protest upon the minutes."

The new board adjourned immediately. The next move will be made in the Superior Court. Attorney De Golia will secure the permission of the Attorney General to bring the suit and proceedings will be commenced at once to settle the question whether or not the new board is legally entitled to its office.

MANY TANGLES AHEAD.

A glance at the present situation will show that there are some very complicated tangles likely to arise from the contest, as it is by no means assured that the new board is a legally elected body.

Auditor Snow has stated that he will recognize the new board. Therefore, the old members will be unable to draw their salaries until the courts decide in their favor, should that be the turn of affairs. The Auditor is placed in a rather peculiar position, as he has to assume the responsibility for the payment of salaries to the new members so long as they hold office undisturbed.

It is understood that the contesting parties in the fight over the Board of Public Works have agreed to abide by the decision of the Superior Court, in banc, when the case is submitted. This means that the matter will not be taken before the Supreme Court at the instance of any of the members of the old or the new boards. Any other person interested in having the matter finally decided by the highest tribunal would be at liberty to carry it to the higher court, but so far as those directly interested are concerned, the decision of the Superior Court will be considered binding.

THE ROUTINE WORK.

The old Board transacted the following routine business. Resolutions were filed as follows:

A resolution providing for the employment of four street laborers with wages at $2 a day.

A resolution rescinding the former one providing that all city garbage be dumped at the foot of Seward street.

A resolution discharging all street sprinklers and street and sewer laborers.

A communication from the Board of Education was read, containing a statement of bills approved by that body, and was filed.

Applications were received for positions as street sprinklers from Mrs. M. Bates, 451 B street; M. Murphy, 1065 Tenth street, and William Hunt, 1755 Twenty-first avenue.

A communication was received from the Grand Army of the Republic extending an invitation to the board to be present at the celebration to be held in Lincoln square on April 15th.

The usual bills were allowed: Street Department, $619 71; City, $332 20; Board of Education, $76 93.

The bonds of L. Hewlett in the sum of $1000 were approved.

NO CLASH NOW.

It Looks Therefore as if Holland Will Go for Lambert.

The question as to who will go to Honolulu to bring back Walter R. Lambert, the defaulting clerk of the Police Court, will be settled by Governor Budd. He will name the agent to go to Hawaii for the State. That is the general custom and it will not be deviated from in the present instance. The Governor, however, will probably appoint a person to make the trip who is agreeable to the authorities in this city.

Detective Holland will probably be named as the officer to capture Lambert. He understands extradition matters and is personally acquainted with Lambert, so that he will have no trouble in locating the clerk.

The Grand Jury found an indictment against Lambert in short order. Expert York, Treasurer Gilpin, Officer Hodgkins and Police Court Clerk Thomas Crawford all gave evidence and in an hour Lambert was indicted. The papers have been placed in the hands of Sheriff White, but he is not fighting to make a trip to Honolulu. He is perfectly willing that the police shall handle the whole matter. There are no fees in the trip of any kind, and the officer who goes after Lambert will only be allowed his expenses. Mr. White is willing to turn over the indictment to the agent that may be named by the Governor.

Chief Schaffer has gone to Sacramento to consult the Governor about a pardon for a man in the City Prison, and he will undoubtedly bring up the Lambert matter and present the facts. It is well understood that if Lambert is to be captured, action in his case must be taken at once. If he should get word of the proceedings before an officer arrives, he would certainly make himself scarce on the islands.

TO BE INDICTED.

Many Office-Seekers Failed to File Statements.

The Matter is to Go Before the Grand Jury.

District Attorney Snook Will Uphold the Election Law.

District Attorney Snook has prepared a list of candidates at the recent election who have failed to comply with the law and file itemized statements of their election expenses with the County Clerk. The law on the subject was presented to these gentlemen by County Clerk Jordan, who sent out a circular letter.

Some of the candidates have absolutely refused to make any kind of a statement, and the officials at the Courthouse say that they have been guilty of a clear violation of the law. Just what will be done with them is not certain, but the District Attorney proposes to do his duty in the matter. He will simply present the names of the candidates to the county censors and quote them the law on the subject. It is probable that some indictments will be found against the gentlemen who have failed to obey the law. The candidates who are on the list to go to the Grand Jury are as follows:

City Treasurer—Cleve L. Dam.

Councilmen-at-large—H B Lund, J. E Spaulding, T. H. Montgomery and H. W. Stowe.

Board of Education-at-large—R. J. Hunter, F. M. Phillips, D. W. Webster, J. McCarthy.

Councilmen—W. W. Graham, First ward; A. P. Parker, Third ward; F. J. Edwards, Fourth ward; E. C. Brown, Seventh ward.

Members of Board of Education—E. S. Williams, Fifth ward; E. H. Webster, Sixth Ward and S. H. Wright, Seventh ward.

Library Trustees—J. ... Carrington, C. W. Logan, P. Wiand and J. Fairdine.

The indictments can only be for a misdemeanor and the accused will be punished with a fine. There is no desire on the part of the officials to crowd the defeated candidates but they believe that as the law is in the statute books it ought to be obeyed.

District Attorney Snook will not discuss the matter at present. He does not deem it proper to talk about affairs that will come before the Grand Jury. It is certain, however, that there are lively times in prospect for the derelict candidates.

SEEKING A PARDON.

Chief of Police Schaffer Goes to Sacramento.

Chief of Police Schaffer went to Sacramento today to intercede with Governor Budd in behalf of Louis McCullough, the prisoner who is losing his eyesight. Besides his personal effort, the chief has letters from Assistant District Attorney Melvin, two prosecuting witnesses, ex-Mayor Pardee, who is treating McCullough, and others who are familiar with the case. The chief anticipates no difficulty in securing McCullough's pardon, as it will mean the salvation of the sight of one eye. Dr. Pardee removed the left eye in order to save the other if possible.

There are thousands who never saw Jim Corbett in the ring, and who probably never will have a chance to see him there. He is certainly a revelation with the gloves on and may be seen as he appeared striking blow for blow, feinting, dodging, upper cutting and parrying, in the great fight with Courtney, by means of the Edison Kinetoscope, in the Baldwin block, 916 Market street, San Francisco.

WILSON IS IN.

Oakland's New City Engineer Takes Office.

... Complications Are Yet to Be ...

... Until ... Reached Over the ...

City Engineer Arthur Wilson is safely ensconced in his office in the Macdonough block. This morning he appeared at the City Engineer's office and found the incumbent, John W. Gray, ready to turn over the department to his successor, but not without protest. Mr. Gray based his objections to retiring upon the same line that was followed last evening by the Board of Public Works which was ousted from office. Gray, however, notwithstanding his protest, very gracefully surrendered his place.

So far as Wilson's position is concerned as City Engineer, it can be affected in only one way. Should the courts decide that the charter amendment election was illegal, Wilson's position would be jeopardized. In no other way can the contest affect him, except as with respect to his title to a seat in the Board of Public Works.

If the contesting members of the board are successful in their theory that their terms do not expire until the end of the four years for which they were appointed they would, of course, retain their positions, notwithstanding that it might be determined as well that the amendment election was legal.

In such event, Wilson, as well as City Attorney Peirsol, would be ousted from the Board.

It is understood that there will be no separate contest so far as Wilson's position as City Engineer is concerned. All interested will await the result of the struggle over the Board of Public Works, before proceeding further. Gray simply entered his protest in order to be in line should the charter election be knocked out.

FINE FAT FEES.

A Record is Now Shown by the Auditor.

Monthly Statements Made Up of the Justices and Constables.

District Attorney Snook has already commenced to feel the effect of the new fee bill. Under its provisions he has to sanction the criminal work of the constables and justices of the peace of Alameda county. If the Supervisors require it, he must even pass on all the bills presented against the county by these officials. This will entail a great amount of labor on the District Attorney, but it will have the effect of preventing constables from making frivolous arrests in order to secure fees from the county.

County Auditor Whidden has just opened a new set of books in his office which show exactly how much money the justices and constables draw from the county for criminal work. The statement he has prepared shows that these officials have been drawing enormous fees. Had the County Government bill been signed by the Governor the constables and justices would have been in receipt of handsome incomes.

Heretofore it was hard to ascertain just what sum the Constables and Justices were getting from the county for criminal work. Their bills were so arranged that it was not an easy task to get at the totals. Under Auditor Whidden's plan the totals can be secured in a moment. The statement that is now presented shows just what the officials receive.

During the month of February Justices of the Peace drew down fees from the county as follows: Frederick C. Cutt, Oakland township, $219; Joseph Pimentel, Eden township, $69; Edward Shaw, Berkeley, $139; J. E. Quinn, Eden, $87; S. Laudholdt, Centerville, $93; G. A. Swasey, Alameda, $21; J. B. Taylor, Livermore, $21; E. L. Lawrence, Brooklyn, $177; C. R. Lord, Berkeley, $81; H. T. Morris, $75. These fees are for criminal business alone.

The Constable's fees for criminal business for one month were as follows: T. G. Brotherton, Berkeley, $101.35; C. M. Day, Alameda, $57.75; J. W. Glaze, Brooklyn, $217.55; J. N. Striker, Berkeley, $95.40; W. J. Kamaze, Eden, $135 85; C. J. Newell, Berkeley, $285.50; S. B. Vandervoort, Washington $172.15; B. W. Von Kapp, Alameda, $95.85, George Wales, Washington, $279.60; C. F. Weldon, Brooklyn, $157.10; J. F. Cronin, $252.75; G. A. Koch, Oakland, $471 05.

E. P. Flint Is Selected to Take the Chair.

No Changes Are Anticipated Among the Working Staff.

The old Board of Free Library Trustees, consisting of Messrs. E. P. Flint, W. D. Armes, L. D. Inskeep, C. C. Leavitt and A. A. Denison, met last night. After approving bills amounting to $1500 and listening to reports, the board adjourned sine die.

The report of Librarian Henry Peterson for March was as follows:

Number of members on the library roll March 1, 1895, 8127; number of applicants registered during the month, 201; number of borrowers on the library roll April 1, 1895, 830?; number of volumes added by purchase, 157; number of volumes rebound, 458; number of volumes discarded, 225 (sent to the different engine houses); money received from fines, $39 05; lost books, $1; total, $40 05; disbursements, $17 95; balance to treasurer, $22 10; number of volumes issued for home use, 11,716; number of visitors to reference room, 1937; number of volumes circulated through the delivery stations, 165, as follows: Twenty-third avenue station, 38; West Oakland station 25; East Oakland, 68; North Oakland, 37; total circulation, 11,881 volumes.

The average daily attendance at the reading rooms during the month of March was as follows: Twenty-third avenue, East Oakland, 127; East Oakland, 164; North Oakland, 107; West Oakland, 300; Central Oakland, 736

The incoming members, Charles S. Cushing, F. S. Page, J. C. Gilson, were introduced by retiring Trustees Inskeep Leavitt and Denison. Felicitous speeches were made by all.

The new board re-elected E. P. Flint president, and W. D. Armes, secretary. President Flint said:

"Gentlemen—It is a pleasure to me to speak of the happy relations we have had during the past two years and it is with pride that we can look back to the great amount of progress which has come about during your term which has just closed. I want to place the credit where it rightfully belongs—to the City Council and other city officials who have aided the library so liberally with appropriations."

The Trustees decided to make no removals except for cause, based on civil service reform rules.

Auditing—Messrs. Page, Gilson and Cushing.

Books—Armes, Gilson, Cushing.

Building—Gilson, Cushing, Page.

Reading Rooms—Cushing, Armes, Gilson.

LOWER RATES.

A Cut by the Railroad on the Freight Tariff.

Competition Is Already Having Its Effect.

The Davie Line and the Southern Pacific Cross Swords.

This morning agents of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company concluded their notification of business men of this city of a reduction in freight rates between San Francisco and Oakland, via the creek route.

Application at the office of the railroad company, at the foot of Broadway, this morning by a TRIBUNE reporter resulted in the statement by the agent that the following reduction in rates had been made:

On salt and sugar, from 75 to 50 cents per ton; canned goods and heavy groceries, from $1.00 to 75 cents per ton.

The agent was asked if this reduction was occasioned by the desire to meet the competitive rates of the steamer Emma of the Davie Freight Company and replied:

"This reduction was made more for the purpose of equalizing rates than for anything else, because the rates on those commodities were considered higher than others. They have nothing to do with the Davie rates. They carry mostly wheat and grain. These rates are from Market street wharf, San Francisco to the foot of Broadway."

A. B. Dorrell of the Davie freight line said: "The rates to which the Southern Pacific has reduced its freight tariff on certain goods are the same as we have had in force for sometime. The railroad has made other reductions besides those on salt, sugar, canned goods and heavy groceries. On pipe and bar iron they have reduced from $1 50 to 75 cents per ton, and on fruit, I think, from $1 50 to $1 per ton. The cut averages 33 per cent. It will not effect us, because, if the merchants realize that it was made to antagonize us, they will readily see they have little to gain to remove their patronize from us only to have the rates raised at some other time.

"There will be a meeting of the Merchant's Exchange tonight, and, I understand, these reduction of rates will be discussed. I also understand that an attempt will be made to have the Exchange promise to support our freight line."

At the offices of the several express companies no information had been received that those corporations would be given a corresponding reduction in rates across the bay by the railroad company.

A DEEP CUT.

School Insurance Rewritten Cheaply.

Reinsurance, with cut rates, was effected yesterday upon all the school buildings of the city by a special committee of the Board of Education, consisting of Directors McMullan, Reed and Moody. The committee met yesterday afternoon and received bids from a large number of insurance agents who were in attendance at the City Hall to fight for the business.

Andy Stone made an offer to place the insurance at 20 per cent of the original premium. Harry Gordon induced the majority of the fifteen agents present to make a bid of 50 per cent. He could not secure unanimous consent, however. The committee decided last evening to place the business at a 75 per cent cut with a large number of companies which accepted the policies. No choice will be made in the placing of the reinsurance. It will be distributed very generally among all the companies.

The credit for the resolution which brought about the reinsurance is due to Director D. A. McMullen.

NOT TO RESIGN.

Gresham Will Hold on to His Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A vigorous denial is made in Administration circles of the story that Secretary Gresham is about to resign.

The Secretary himself will not be interviewed, not caring to dignify the report by a denial.

SCHOOL CENSUS.

Marshals Appointed to Canvass the Children.

The taking of the school census of this city will commence on April 15th, under the superintendence of W. N. Friend, who was chosen Census Marshal several weeks ago by the Board of Education. He will have eleven assistants, ten of whom have been selected. They are as follows: C. Groff, Clyde Carrigan, W. R. Barstow, Miss Douglass, Whitehead, W. C. Harmon, Fred L. Monnet, Andrew Hollywood, John D. Warren, James Gilbertson and Frank Howard. The marshals will meet Saturday to arrange the details of their work.

A LOOP LINE.

Good Prospects for the Road to San Jose.

There is now good reason to believe that the electric road from Haywards to San Jose, through Washington township, will be built. The idea of the projectors seem to be to make it a people's road and to have the farmers and fruit raisers along the line take stock in the enterprise. The company intends to capitalize at $500,000 with 100,000 shares at $5 a share. Messrs. Messrs. F. Chappellett, F. E. Kendall and L. E. Osgood have already subscribed $40,000, and only $10,000 more are required to enable the company to incorporate.

My Baby

was a living skeleton; the doctor said he was dying of Marasmus and Indigestion. At 13 months he weighed only seven pounds. Nothing strengthened or fattened him. I began using Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, feeding it to him and rubbing it into his body. He began to fatten and is now a beautiful dimpled boy. The Emulsion seemed to supply the one thing needful.

WEDNESDAY.....APRIL 3, 1895

THE San Francisco Evening Post has made wonderful strides since it passed into the hands of Hugh Hume. It has always touched the popular vein and this is due to the marked enterprise that has characterized both its views and policy. It invariably has some extraordinary inducement to offer to its patrons, and its latest effort in this direction is its best. By means of the coupon ballot system it has inaugurated a contest to decide who are the most popular teachers in the State, and those who are chosen are to be rewarded with free first-class transportation and expenses to London, Paris, Honolulu, Alaska, Yo-emite and other famous resorts. There will undoubtedly be keen competition for such liberal prizes.

Short and Long Routes.

The recent discussion about the comparative advantages of short and long railroad routes, brings into the foreground one or two old facts that have as much force as ever. The old route of the Western Pacific was laid across the mountains by way of Livermore. The elevation was quite under 1000 feet. But after that road passed into the hands of the Central Pacific Company the disadvantages of that elevation were so great that a new route was adopted by way of Martinez. The railroad preferred to extend its mileage, by going around this mountain or hill. It made a substantial gain by the change.

Now the Pacheco Pass is by estimate 1560 feet. Overcoming that elevation, trains could cross from the San Joaquin valley to the Salinas and Santa Clara valleys. But, according to the economic policy now recognized in railway construction, the overcoming of such an elevation would be represented by an extension along valley grades of hardly less than thirty-five miles. The shorter route may be a good thing to conjure with when subscriptions are to be stimulated. But when the railroad company gets right down to the business of construction, it is probable that valley grades will have the preference over mountain grades.

That Disastrous Leadership.

Debs has had a hearing now in the chief cities of the State. What has come of all his harangues? Has he been a benefactor to any one? Has he made the lot of a single individual who must earn his daily bread any better? Now there must have been hundreds of men in this city who were reminded that it was through his counsels that they were overtaken by want and some of them brought to the very verge of starvation. They lost their places, the ability for the time being to earn money for the support of their families. They followed Debs' counsel. Not one of them would have joined in the great strike if he had not misled them by his words. His message to them was to "stand pat," and to quit the service of employers against whom they had no ground of complaint. Here was the pity of it.

Here were hundreds of men without a grievance, who had made no complaint that they were not fairly paid for their services, but who were ordered by Debs to take up the cause of men two thousand miles away who had a grievance against a manufacturing company. How much these striking men suffered, how great the losses were that they incurred, what privations their families endured, can never be set down in black and white. Many of them suffered in silence, some lost homesteads, more were compelled to seek employment in other cities, and are not yet exempt from the evils of that unfortunate episode.

The several railway companies of the country, according to estimates made soon after the strike, lost not less than $10,000,000. Thousands of men followed Debs' counsel, and a great many of them to their ultimate undoing. The greater public also suffered immensely. Now what is there to put in the scales opposite all this sacrifice? Debs has really furnished nothing. He can never make good a fraction of all this loss. Did he bring any comfort to the hundreds who have suffered on this side of the country by following his counsels and obeying his commands?

It is fitting to ask these questions now when the excitement is all over, the losses estimated and the good, if any, should be known. There are no reproaches to be uttered. Those who had the strongest sympathy for the men who followed the counsels of Debs are those who inquire wistfully about the gains. Debs himself admits that there were none, and that there is no encouragement to renew the struggle along the same lines. If he could only return the men to their places, could make good only a fraction of the losses they suffered through his leadership, there would be a prompt acknowledgment of benefits. It is seldom that there has been as much bitter fruit resulting from a single leadership in this country. That is the pity of it.

The How in the Horizon.

The sweeping Republican victories in Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities, are at least indications of what is coming when the next opportunity comes for an expression of public opinion. The growing dissatisfaction with the present Administration finds expression in these local elections. The great cities of the country are electing Republican Mayors. Of course local considerations are prominent in all such elections. But beyond these there is a voicing of communities who are counting the months and the days when another great political revolution will sweep the country.

No relief is expected from the present Administration. A few months ago there was a Congressional revolution. The large Democratic majority in the Lower House was displaced by a larger Republican majority. It is not probable that the next Congress will be able to make much headway against a hostile President. The present tariff will probably stand until a new Administration comes into power. But as sure as that Administration is Republican it will make important changes in the tariff. For more than a quarter of a century the country prospered under Republican rule. The country is seeking to revive that old prosperity. The horizon is becoming brighter every day. There are good times in prospect.

Since the autumn elections, which were a route and a revolution for the party in power, there is little doubt about what is coming less than two years hence. The people accentuated their conviction even in these local elections. It is more than a dissatisfaction with local administration. It is the voice of dissent also with the national administration. That is the greater significance of such elections as have recently occurred in Chicago, Cincinnati and other large cities of the country.

Public Works and the Charter.

The organic law known as the charter has been made and adopted by the people for the guidance of municipal administrations. Whether every provision therein contained is the best that could have been desired is not now the question. This organic law is sovereign in all its parts unless it conflicts with legislative enactments, or is set aside by decisions of the courts.

Now a short time ago there was an almost universal expression of public opinion that substantial benefits would be secured by an amendment of the article providing for a Board of Public Works. The several steps by which such a change could be secured were taken in regular order. The electors adopted the amendments proposed by a very large majority. The Legislature confirmed what the people had done. These amendments are today an integral part of the organic law.

By virtue of these changes, a new Board of Public Works was recently elected. Every intelligent voter knew when he went to the polls that the successful candidates for Mayor, Attorney and Engineer would comprise that board. There was an earnest discussion about the qualifications of candidates for these places.

The board has been elected, has qualified and nominally entered upon its duties. They are in their places by the will of the people. Does any one serve a good purpose now by undertaking to defeat that will? Such attempts were made two years ago. Nothing came of them but a great deal of loose and foolish talk. It is not probable that more than that will come of protests and obstructions made now. It is a very good policy to let well enough alone.

Ad Dorotheam.

I know where there is honey in a jar,
Meet for a certain little friend of mine;
And, Dorothy, I know where daisies are
That only wait small hands to intertwine
A wreath for such a golden head as thine.

The thought that thou art coming makes all glad,
The house is bright with blossoms high and low,
And many a little lass and lad
Expectantly are running to and fro;
The fire within our hearts is all aglow.

We want thee, child, to share in our delight
On this high day, the holiest and best,
Because 'twas then, ere youth had taken flight,
Thy grandmamma, of women loveliest,
Made me of men most honored and most blest.

That naughty boy who led thee to suppose
He was thy sweetheart has, I grieve to tell,
Been seen to pick the garden's choicest rose
And toddle with it to another belle,
Who does not treat him altogether well.

But mind not that or let it teach thee this—
To waste no love on any youthful rover
(All youths are rovers, I assure thee Miss).
No, if thou wouldst true constancy discover,
Thy grandpapa is perfect as a lover.

So come thou playmate of my closing day,
The latest treasure life can offer me,
And with thy baby laughter make me gay.
Thy fresh young voice shall sing, my Dorothy,
Songs that shall bid the feet of sorrow flee.

The great banquet by the Merchants' Exchange will take place in Masonic Temple tomorrow night. It will be attended by all the leading merchants of this city. A BIG CARD.

H. C. Capwell Has Secured the Silver Statue.

It Will Be Exhibited at the Lace House.

Montana's Celebrated Creation to Be Here Two Weeks.

Almost the greatest glory of the World's Fair at Chicago was the wonderful silver statue that was the official exhibit of the State of Montana in the Mining building. So much has been written and told of it that it will be a delightful surprise to most of THE TRIBUNE's readers to learn that it is to be exhibited here free of charge. That this is possible is due to the H. C. Capwell Company, proprietors of the Lace House, who have made arrangements with the owners for bringing it here for exhibition in their store.

A short description of the statue and its purpose will not be without interest. The question of how to make Montana's display of its mineral resources in a unique and noticeable way was one that was much thought of. The idea of putting it in the form of a statue, made entirely of the precious metals, occurred to Colonel Frank D. Higbee of Missoula, Mont., who immediately procured the co-operation of several of the wealthy men of the State, as well as the State's Commissioners to the fair. There was much rivalry for the honor of posing as the model for the statue, but the celebrated actress Ada Rehan was finally selected. The sculptor was Richard H. Park of Florence, Italy.

The statue contains 97,000 ounces of silver, valued at nearly $65 000. It is nine feet high and stands on a base of solid gold, the value of which is $225.-000 so that the whole statue represents almost $300,000. In transit it occupies a special express car and is accompanied by an armed guard.

Being asked as to the object of making the exhibit in the proposed manner, Mr. Capwell said, "We intend to use it as a great magnet to draw people to our store. Not that they are expected to buy goods, but to get familiar with the inside of the store and the lines of goods we carry. We feel that we are in a better position to supply the wants of the people in those lines than we ever have been, but unlike some other houses, have not the facilities to show one tenth of our assortment in our windows. Consequently we hit upon this great attraction to get people to look us over where we can show off to advantage, and have no doubt as to the impression that will be carried away with them. We do not confine our invitation to customers, but want all, especially school children also, to have an opportunity to see one of the most beautiful and remarkable works of art in existence."

The statue will be exhibited here for two weeks beginning April 15th. After returning East it will be taken to Europe.

NOT THE MAN.

Suspect Dalton Is Restored to Liberty.

It Was Clear That He Is Not the Missing Train Thief.

The murderer of Sheriff Bogard of Tehama county has not yet been apprehended—at all events, he has not been found in J. F. Dalton, the suspect whom Deputy Constable Teague arrested at Berkeley yesterday. Dalton was brought before Justice Cuff this morning on the charge of vagrancy. The charge was dismissed and the accused was set at liberty. The charge was filed after it had become apparent that Dalton could not be held on the charge of murder.

Dalton was arrested because of the resemblance he bore to Brady, who is now charged with the murder of Sheriff Bogard.

He was subjected to a very close physical examination by a number of officers, and while he bears a number of the marks which characterize Brady, the conclusion was reached that he is not the man who is wanted.

He was recognized by Detective Holland as a man named Deasy whom he had arrested several years before. He was also identified by a couple of ex-convicts, who called to see him this morning, at the instance of Detective Teague, father of the constable who made the arrest.

These ex-convicts recognized him as a man who had "served time" with them. He had been sent to the "pen" under the name of Deasy, and it has been ascertained that that is his right name, that of Dalton having been assumed to keep his parents in ignorance of his arrest.

Spite Work.

The charge made by L. W. Morley against W. Brennan of stealing two horses in Livermore was dismissed by Judge Cuff yesterday evening. It was shown that the accusation was the result of spite on Morley's part.

Will Marry Again.

A license has been issued authorizing the marriage of Peter Olsem aged 36 years, and Dorothy Olsem aged 66 years. The couple were divorced several months ago.

SOCIETY SHOWS.

Marie Burroughs Appears in Good Plays.

Excellent Prospects Given for "Our Flat."

First-Class Houses the Order of Things at the People's.

At the matinee at the Macdonough today, Marie Burroughs, the renowned emotional actress is appearing in The Profligate. Tonight she will be seen in Judah. The Profligate deals with some of the intrigues of a profligate who has been married to a pure woman when his past rises up against him in the shape of an abandoned girl whom he had betrayed. She appears as an angel of mercy and nurses the wife through a serious illness in her husband's absence, and becomes her confidante and friend. The story of her life is disclosed to the wife, who finally discovers that it was he who is now her husband had betrayed the girl. After some tragic incidents the estranged couple are reconciled and the past is forgiven and forgotten.

Marie Burroughs.

Emily Bancker.

Our Flat is a musical farce comedy by Mrs. Musgrave which is to be presented at the Macdonough for three nights beginning tomorrow. Our Flat is a bright, sparkling farce, which was well received on its first production in London several years ago, drew large houses at the Lyceum Theater, New York, and is running now at the Strand Theater.

The story of the play runs as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester are two young persons who have rushed into matrimony on the Micawber principle, are living from hand to mouth in a London flat; husband and wife alike striving hard to get a foothold in the literary sphere, in which they are confident they can ultimately acquire both fame and fortune. Early in their career, however, they are overwhelmed with debt. The flat they have hired is invaded by a continual stream of creditors; the cook threatens to leave, and at the heighth of the excitement three men walk in and deliberately carry off all the furniture, which has been bought on the instalment plan, because the last payment has not been made.

At this instant Mrs Sylvester receives a note informing her that a play she has written without the knowledge of her husband, describing her own married experience, has been accepted, and that the manager is coming to settle as to its price. Therefore, with the assistance of the cook, she proceeds to improvise the furniture with whatever comes to hand—soap boxes, barrels, an ironing board, a sit bath tub, a clothes horse, etc., and proceeds to rehabilitate the apartment. They are so draped and arranged as to form quite a beautiful outfit, and when the manager comes he is so impressed with the handsome and prosperous look of the surroundings that he pays $1000 for the play. Many laughable complications arise from attempts to use the make-shift furniture. Then Mrs. Sylvester's father, who has been angered by the marriage, relents, and the comedy comes to a happy conclusion.

The cast is headed by Emily Bancker, who was for a long time principal in Charles Frohman's original productions. Her success this season as Margery Sylvester has been phenomenal. Miss Bancker is supported by Tom Ricketts, George W. Parsons, P. H. Ryley, Neil Scully, W. H. Wallis, Marion Van Courtland, Lee Jarvis and Vesta Verno.

The People's.

McKenna's Flirtation is a very humorous and clever comedy interpreted by a first-class company, headed by Edgar Selden, who is fresh from a very successful engagement in San Francisco. The farce has a plot which carries an immense amount of fun. The curious complications which are worked out give ample opportunity for many mirthful situations. The comedy will have a splendid run which it well deserves.

The California.

The Girl I Left Behind Me is the attraction at the California. This popular American drama meets the approval of the theater-goers, and will prove a success on its presentation. There are some excellent people in the cast. The play has a record of 500 performances in New York. It is presented here with all the accessories needed to vividly depict the stirring scenes of military and Indian frontier life.

Morosco's.

Hands Across the Sea, an English drama of merit, was produced to a big house Monday evening. Gustavus Levick, Maud Edna Hall, Helen Henry and Rev. J. H. W. Harris, the actor-preacher, appeared with the cast.

The Tivoli.

Pinafore did so well last week that it will be continued a week longer. Enormous audiences greeted the revival. There will be a children's matinee Saturday.

The Orpheum.

This popular resort has a fine bill this week. A host of new people have been supplied to furnish the entertainment. The Electric Quartet, Dillon Brothers and Martinettie Brothers are the new attractions. The Orpheum enjoys public favor without diminishment. Manager Walters is to be congratulated for his success and enterprise.

In the Asylum Now.

Annie Halvorsen of San Leandro, aged 38 years, has been adjudged insane and committed to the Agnews Asylum. She talks incoherently and threatens to jump into the bay.

Not Webster Street Bridge.

The bridge struck by the tug Alice yesterday was the Alice street and not the Webster street as reported.

NO NEW MEN.

Sheriff White's Office in Full Running Order.

Why C. E. Lloyd Gave Place to W. S. Harlow.

Thoroughly Friendly Feeling Between All the Parties.

There is no ill feeling in the Sheriff's office over the retirement of Under Sheriff C. E. Lloyd. The new programme has gone into effect and W. S. Harlow has again assumed the duties of Under Sheriff. The force in the office is now complete and Sheriff White does not intend to make any further changes.

Mr. Lloyd has accepted the situation in a very graceful manner. It was thought that Mr. White might appoint Mr. Lloyd a bailiff in one of the courts to serve out the term. In order to do this, however, the Sheriff would have had to displace one of the men whom he had made a promise to retain during his term of office.

Mr. Lloyd was called upon by Sheriff White to assume the duties of Under Sheriff. Mr. Harlow was offered a good position and he announced his intention of retiring at once. This brought matters to a head. Mr. Lloyd had a square understanding with the Sheriff about the matter. He said that he did not feel that he would be doing Mr. White just ice to try and assume the final duties of Under Sheriff. He told Mr. White that it was necessary to have his bondsmen protected and he was not willing to take any chances.

"We have parted in a most friendly manner," said Mr. Lloyd this morning. "Mr. White acted just as I would have done myself if I had been Sheriff. As for Mr. Harlow he is a gentleman. He understand his business thoroughly. Of course I am sorry to sever my connection with the office because our relations have been very friendly. The office that Mr. Harlow holds is one that is very hard to fill. There are technical questions arising all the time and if a man does not understand them he would have to be consulting an attorney all the time. Now I was not willing to force Mr. White into a position where he would have to take any chances. I have studied the duties of that office for three months and I consider that I have three quarters of the business down fine. The other one-quarter was not at my finger ends."

A BOAT ABLAZE.

The "Pride of the Ohio" Is a Total Wreck.

Fire Rages Disastrously on the Iron Queen.

A Colored Chambermaid Perished in the Blazing Ship.

POMEROY, O., April 3.—The Pittsburg and Cincinnati packet Iron Queen was burned at Antiquity, twelve miles above here, at 8 o'clock this morning.

THE NEWS CONFIRMED.

The disaster to the Iron Queen, reported from Pomeroy, has been confirmed by a dispatch to Superintendent Ellison of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Company, saying: "The boat is a total loss; one chambermaid is missing."

The Iron Queen, which was the pride of the Ohio river, was built in Marietta in 1892 and was valued at $60,000, insured about half that amount.

She was upward bound and had twenty to thirty passengers aboard and a good cargo.

One colored chambermaid was lost; her name is not obtainable.

All the passengers with most of the baggage were saved.

HOW THE CALAMITY OCCURRED.

The boat was bound for Pittsburg, putting in here at 5 A. M.

At Racine, she took on a lot of baled straw and moved a mile further up to Antiquity to take on a large amount of hogshead pole.

While lying at the bank there a lamp exploded in the engine room, setting the rear part of the boat on fire, which rapidly communicated to the straw.

In a few moments the entire boat was in flames.

Captain Calhoun and clerk Keer rendered heroic service in saving the passengers.

Mate Schriver was surrounded by flames and had to jump into the river to save himself. He was badly burned about the face and hands.

REBELS ARE POPULAR.

Views of an American Observer in Cuba.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The Ward Line steamer Vigilancia, Captain McIntosh, arrived today from Havana.

A passenger reported that at Manzanillo, where he has been stopping some time, the sympathies of the whole city were with the insurgents.

There has been several skirmishes between the the Spanish troops and insurgents, but no decisive engagement took place.

A rumor was current at Manzanillo that a large force of insurgents was to invest the town.

This caused great excitement among the inhabitants, but the rumor could not be traced to any reliable source.

The deceased bequeathes $1 to her brothers, Alonzo Vernon Shelton and Simon T. Shelton, of Vermillion, Erie county, O. The residue of the estate goes to her husband, W. H. Ashley of Alameda. Welles Whitmore is named to act as executor without bonds.

Ben F. Woolner, the popular young member of the law firm of Gibson, Whitmore & Woolner, is the attorney for the estate.

IT'S A SUCCESS.

Unexpected Returns From the Income Tax.

About a Million and a Half Already Paid.

Large Sums Expected When the April Figures Come.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Income tax returns are coming far beyond the expectations of the officials.

To save time and avoid complications the collectors were instructed to classify and send in returns the 10th of each month, and therefore no reports have been received of a date later than March 10th.

Nevertheless 10,000 returns have already been received and are being verified and recorded.

It is estimated that the returns made to the collectors prior to March 10th represent at least $1,500,000 income tax, and the actual amount returned to April 1st will aggregate $15,000,000.

It is not expected that returns to any considerable number will be made before the 8th or 10th of April, five days before the time limit expires, hence, the showing is exceedingly gratifying to those who have the matter in charge.

Another matter of congratulation is the little difficulty being experienced by the taxpayers in filling out the blanks.

All things considered, the work of collecting the tax is going forward with very little friction.

It is expected that at least $20,000,000 income tax will have been collected by June 1st, the close of the fiscal year.

The officials do not express any doubts that the Supreme Court will sustain all the important features of the law, if not the entire act, as it stands, and are pushing the work as rapidly as is consistent with accuracy.

TO FIGHT FRAUDS.

Why Governor Stone Called a Special Session.

Important Railroad Matters Also to Come Up for Settlement.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 3.—Governor Stone today issued a call for a special session of the Legislature, to meet April 23d, for the following purposes:

First—To enact legislation to properly define the relation between the different classes of employes of railroad corporations and also the proper relations between all such employes and railroad corporations employing them.

Second—To provide such legislative enactments as are necessary and expedient to prevent the maintenance of an organized lobby at the Capitol of the State, either to obstruct or promote any legislative or executive act, and also to regulate the manner of presenting any questions affecting legislation by the persons interested therein before the general assembly or any committee thereon.

Third—To enact such laws as are necessary and expedient to prevent fraud against the elective franchise and to secure honest election in all cities having 100,000 inhabitants.

STIFF WITH COLD.

WHATCOM, Wash., April 3.—All the passengers and crew of the steamer Buckeye, which was overturned in the gale last evening, were rescued except H. Kautzman.

He was on a life raft with three other passengers, but fell off, having become stiff with cold.

The others were picked up by the tug Boyden.

A Boom Hotel Gone

REDLANDS, Cal., April 3.—The Terracina Hotel burned at 5 A. M.

The loss on the building is $20,000; on the furniture $12,000; insurance, $12,000. All the guests made their escape, but they lost most of their clothing. The building was erected in 1889 to boom the land, but had never been a success financially owing to its small size and remoteness from town.

TO HIT HARD,

Bassett Will Fight the Coal Bunker Ordinance.

The ordinance granting James P. Taylor & Co. the right to erect coal bunkers on the City wharf is declared by Councilman Bassett to be void on the ground that it conflicts with provisions of the charter which forbid the granting of leases to city property, except at auction, to the highest bidder. The ordinance, it is claimed, also conflicts with an ordinance which declares that no part of the City wharf shall be leased to any person. There is also a statute which provides for sales or leases of public property by auction to the highest bidder.

An ordinance to repeal the coal bunker ordinance has been introduced in the Council. The claim is made that the Taylor privilege is in the nature of a lease, although no consideration is named. This omission, however, does not necessarily prevent the grant from being a lease.

Councilman Bassett, who will fight for the repeal of the coal bunker ordinance, has loaded himself with opinions to prove the correctness of his claim.

TO FIGHT THE WILL.

A Dispute Arises Over Goldberg's Property.

There is to be a contest to the will of the late Morris Goldberg, the well-known capitalist who died in this county on March 28, 1894.

The contestant will be a brother of the deceased, who was bequeathed $2000.

Attorney Hiram A. Luttrell this afternoon looked over the papers connected with the estate at the County Clerk's office, preparatory to the institution of the proceedings.

The estate has been appraised at $248,000. The executors are Henry Wadsworth and Leon B. Goldberg of Chicago.

The contestant has, besides Attorney Luttrell, engaged A. Ruet and other able lawyers of San Francisco to fight the will.

TWO TRANCES.

But This Time Death Was at the Threshold.

The Rev. James Kane Is Dying of Pneumonia.

Short Sketch of the Career of the Famous Navy Chaplain.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Rev. James Kane, D. D., late chaplain of the Brooklyn Navy Yard is reported to be dying of pneumonia in England.

Mr. Kane won fame in the navy during the civil war.

After the war while his ship was quartered in Jamaica, he caught the yellow fever and died as far as appearances went.

He was placed in his coffin. He saw and heard everything that passed.

After eight hours in the coffin he sat up to the horror of the colored man whose duty it was to keep watch over him.

Some years later, while in the Norfolk Navy Yard, of which he was Chaplain, he appeared to die a second time, and remained in a cataleptic state forty-eight hours.

When he recovered he left the navy and completing his studies, joined the church.

Mr. Kane obtained leave of absence last year, and soon after was placed on the retired list.

He has a number of medals for bravery in battle.

LA LOMA PARK.

An Attachment Levied on a Handsome Home.

Captain Richard P. Thomas, ex-president of the California National Bank will now have to fight for his home at Berkeley. The place is known as La Loma Park, and consists of thirty-two acres of land and a fine house. Thomas is an insolvent debtor, and his assignee, John Chetwood is pursuing him to collect a judgment of $139,100.

This morning Chetwood brought an attachment suit against Thomas and his wife, Jane Thomas, and the Standard Soap Works, to recover the amount of the judgment. The plaintiff has levied attachment on La Loma Park. Chetwood claimed that the property was a homestead and was deeded by Thomas to the Standard Soap Works, in which he was interested. Mrs. Thomas' name was not signed to the deed. Chetwood therefore claims that the deed given by Thomas is null and void. He wants a homestead of $5000 carved out of the property and the balance of the land sold to satisfy the judgment. La Loma Park is valued at $40,000.

AT CUT RATES.

The City Hall Is to Be Reinsured.

The City Council will take advantage of the insurance war and secure a reinsurance upon the City Hall at this evening's meeting. The return premium applied to the payment of the reinsurance will carry the policies for two years. The saving effected will amount to fully $500. Councilman Bassett has the matter in hand and will introduce the necessary resolutions this evening.

LASTING REST.

Dr. A. G. Anthony's Busy Career Is Ended.

Death Lifts the Latchstring at His Home.

A Life That Was Fraught With a Host of Good Deeds.

Dr. Albert G. Anthony, one of the best known physicians in Oakland, died this morning at his residence, 1561 Eighth street, after a lingering illness caused by liver troubles which had confined him to his home for four weeks past. Dr. Anthony's death was not unexpected, but everything that medical skill could suggest was done to prolong his life and if possible, save him from the heavy hand of death.

Few in Oakland had a wider circle of warm and loved friends than had the deceased physician. He was known throughout the city, and there will be many to mourn outside of his family. In West Oakland, where he has resided for many years, and had a very large practice, Dr. Anthony was almost adored. His many sterling qualities had endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. None will feel his death more keenly than those whom he met in his professional duties.

His social acquaintance was very large. Dr. Anthony was one of the leaders in the fraternal organizations of this city. He stood high in all of them. He was a member of Oakland Commandery, Knights Templar. He was a Royal Arch Mason and was a member of Alcatraz Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons. He belonged to Harbor Lodge, Odd Fellows, and Forest Camp, Woodmen of the World. He was also a member of the Chosen Friends, Legion of Honor, Knights of Pythias and Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Dr. Anthony was a native of Hatfield, Mass. He was 50 years of age. He came to California in 1868 and settled in Oakland three years later. He was engaged in the practice of medicine up to the time of his last illness.

Dr. Anthony was president of the Board of Health for two years, prior to the appointment of the present board.

He was a member of the County Medical Society.

He left a widow and three children, Victorine, Edward and Adah. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence.

TOO CROWDED.

Mayor Davie Wants the School Board Rooms.

The Educators Are to Vacate the City Hall

There Will Be Some Opposition, Though, to the Change.

Mayor Davie will make some changes in the City Hall very soon which may not be to the liking of the Board of Education. He will probably move his quarters into the rooms now occupied by the board and the Superintendent of Schools.

The Mayor is impressed with the idea that his quarters in the small chamber that adjoins the City Clerk's office are entirely inadequate, especially as he proposes to occupy them a large portion of the day. There is no way in which callers can be provided for while waiting to see his Honor unless they pace the floor of the rather chilly corridor on the upper floor. To obviate this the Mayor has his eye upon the rooms now occupied by the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools. It is understood that the School Department is only permitted to have quarters in the City Hall as a matter of courtesy from the Council. The School Board is in reality not a part of the city government. It is a part of the county and comes under a distinct law. There is provision requiring the High School Board, which controls that department, to meet in the High school building. This has never been done since the board was installed in the City Hall.

In the event of such a change, City Engineer Wilson would take the office now occupied by the Mayor and the Board of Public Works while the Board of Education and School Superintendent McClymonds would go to the Madonough block. Superintendent McClymonds would oppose this move. There is ample accommodation for the board in the High school building and that is most likely where they will go.

PRIZES ON PATENTS

How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors.

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the Company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle-topper the snow shovel, are things that almost every one sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

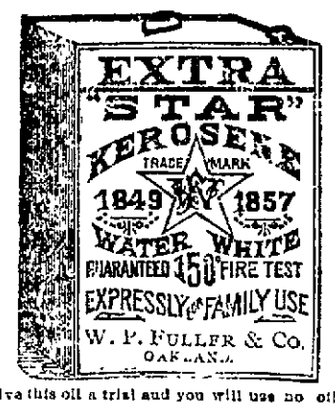

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not the inventor will have a valuable patent.

THE PRIZE CLAIMS COMPANY,
JOHN WEDDERBURN, Gen'l Manager,
618 F St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

P. S. The responsibility of this company may be judged from the fact that its stock is held by about seventeen hundred of the leading newspapers of the United States.

A RELAY RACE.

Bicyclists Looking Forward to Sunday's Spin.

All the Crack Riders to Meet in Competition.

Sporting Notes and Gossip, as Gleaned by "The Umpire."

Nearly all the speedy wheelmen in this city are interested in the great one-hundred mile relay race, which will be held around the bay next Sunday. Oakland has entered two teams in the contest. The Reliance and Acme boys will try hard to carry off the honors for this city. This will be the greatest race of the year.

The game of billiards has had a boom in this city since the visit of Ives and Schaefer.

Next Sunday afternoon there will be racing in the estuary. The Oakland Navy boys will hold their regular monthly contest.

Following will be found a resume of the sporting events of the week.

THE UMPIRE.

It seems to me to be a case of another year without baseball. When I say without baseball, I mean the professional game. Of course, we always have the amateur players with us. It makes no difference to them whether we have the professional game or not. They play ball year in and year out just for the sport it affords. These young men are to be commended for keeping up the National game in this city. There are many obstacles even in the way of the amateur players. I was talking to a player yesterday who is enthusiastic on the game. "Don't you know," said he, "that it is hard work for an amateur to get a chance to play ball. I belong to a club in this city and we have been trying for weeks to get a game, but we have not succeeded. I have written letters to a number of baseball men in other towns, but, as yet, I have not been able to arrange a game. Here, in Oakland, there are only a few clubs, and if you don't belong to the league, you can hardly get in a contest. The amateurs who enjoy the sport of baseball ought to show a little more spirit and organize. There are enough good players in this city to organize several amateur teams. The boys should get down to work and form a large local league. We do not need money or patronage. All we want is the sport. I am in for forming an Oakland league composed of local clubs."

An Oakland league of amateur clubs would not be a bad idea. The various schools could be taken into the league and I am sure the merchants could be induced to put up a handsome trophy for the winner of the season's game. Who will start the Oakland league?

The County Clerk's and County Recorder's baseball teams are still in existence. They are thirsting for a game of baseball to decide the championship of the courthouse. If the weather will permit, the game may be played a week from next Saturday at the University grounds. Captain Frank C. Jordan and Captain Charles Spear have arranged the details for the great contest. They have agreed upon the following staff to take charge of the contest: Umpires, Major Waters and Baby O'Connell; scorers, W. Jay Schmidt and Sconchin Maloney; physicians, Drs. Fisher, Buteau, Adams and Young; health inspector, Paul Schaffer; bat carriers, Denny Holland and Major Tompkins; undertakers, Dr. Baldwin, N. W. Leitch (alias "The King"), Joe McAvoy, Albert Brown, James Taylor, James McCarthy and others, great keeper of the lost balls, Jake Bougard.

"Oh, yes, it is going to be a great game," said Frank C. Jordan. "We are out for blood. These Recorders can't play ball a little bit. Now mark what I tell you. I know a club when I see one—a poker club. It is going to be the game of the age. There will never be a game like it played on earth. It will be a game for your life. We will give these Recorders such a beating that they will not show up at the ball for six months. We will wipe them off the face of the earth as baseball players. We will be the kingpins in our little circle as baseball players."

Captain Spear heard what Captain Jordan said and simply remarked "nit."

The University team seems to be in hard luck this year. The showing the boys have made up to date has not been good. This does not speak very well for the coaching of Tip O'Neill, who undertook to put the the boys in trim for the season. I understand that Tip was disgusted with his job before the season opened. He came to the conclusion that the Berkeley boys were not in the race. The players miss the kindly advice of ex-Manager Wolff, who used to do more work than any member of the team. Mr. Wolff told me the other day that he never worked so hard in his life as he did when he managed the baseball team. "Why, I would not go through that deal again for anything," said he. "You do not even get thanked for your trouble, on the contrary, you get a rough deal all around. Now, when I was manager the boys could put up a pretty good game. The trouble with us was that we were pursued by hard luck throughout the season. I tell you a baseball manager's life is not a happy one."

The Reliance boys have come right to the front as baseball players. The way the league record stands at present shows that they have an excellent chance of winning the pennant. Captain Cal Ewing has made the boys play ball from the start. There are no drones in the Reliance team. They all play ball as though they were out for the pennant in each game. The members of the team are all enthusiastic, and they are anxious to make a record for their club. That is the kind of a baseball team to have in the field. If the Reliance boys do not capture the pennant then I am very much mistaken.

The league season is going to be an interesting one, for some of the clubs are evenly matched and they will put up some good games. The contests are very much enjoyed by the few cranks left, who take an interest in baseball. Nearly every Saturday during the season we will have a game at the University grounds.

THE UMPIRE.

THE ACME'S NEW HOME.

Work on the Building to Start in a Few Days.

The members of the Acme Athletic Club are taking a great deal of interest in the plans for the new clubrooms. The work on the new building will be commenced within a few days and it will be pushed until the structure is completed. The Acme boys have had a thorough understanding about the building and they know exactly what they are going to get. Everything is to be done to make the clubrooms complete in every respect. The boys say that they are going to have as fine clubrooms as any in the State for athletic purposes. The change will be a good one, as the present quarters of the Acme Club are entirely inadequate. The boys have been dissatisfied with the place for over a year and they have tried hard to bring about a new deal. When they go into their new quarters a strong effort will be made to increase the membership of the club at least one-half.

A boating club has been formed at the Acme Club for the coming season. The oarsmen are very enthusiastic at present and they propose to make a record. The club will enter a crew in the championship regatta to be held at El Campo on May 30th. It is now proposed to enter a crew in every race that comes along. The boys have secured the services of Henry Tang as coacher and he has already commenced his work. Tank is an enthusiastic oarsman and is just the one needed to awaken interest in the crew. Nearly every evening from ten to fifteen oarsmen from the Acme Club visit Session's Basin and go through their exercise. At the present time the crews at the club consist of Clarence Staples, Frank Simpson, John Bird, Robert White, Golf Wakeman, Fred Peterson, Bert Brown, John Malley, Fred Betten, Edward Dalton, Fred Kohler, Henry Tank and Cliff McClellan. The latter has been chosen captain and he seems to be just the man for the place.

The last gentleman's boxing night at the Acme Club was such a success that the boys are already calling for another one of the same kind. The contest between James E. Delaney and J. H. McMahon was one of the cleverest of its kind ever seen in this city. Delaney has the making of a prize boxer. He has the skill and staying powers, and if he sticks to his work he is sure to come to the front. The match was given to McMahon, but he did not fully glory out of his victory. The Acme man undoubtedly had the best of the contest, and if he had displayed a little more generalship, he would have certainly knocked out his opponent. Such a contest as was given by these two young men is a pleasure to witness. The Acme Club is getting a reputation for its clever boxing contests. Many of the boys seem to think that the Acmes have the best lot of boxers in the State.

AMONG THE ATHLETES.

Random Notes Picked Up at the Local Athletic Clubs.

The Reliance boys are devoting more attention to indoor sports at present. The gymnasium is crowded these nights and the athletes are very active. The directors have offered special inducements to young men to join the club. Special clubs of fifteen are being formed. When members join in a body under the club system no initiation fee is charged.

The Trampers Annex of the Acme Club opened the season last Sunday by a run to Wild Cat creek. The boys had a very enjoyable time. They propose to have an outing at least once a month.

Robert Starkey, who has made a record on the horizontal bars, has now taken to wire walking. Starkey is a clever gymnast and he will undoubtedly make a hit in his new line of work.

Messrs. Cook, Stegman and Toohig are practicing an acrobatic and tumbling act at the Acme Club. These young men are considered the cleverest tumblers in the club. Professor Leandro says that they will give a show soon that will surprise people.

President R. M. Fitzgerald of the Reliance Club is devoting much time at present to the Fabiola fiesta. He is president of the committee and he wants to see the affair a success.

Colonel Jack Bonnet of Santa Cruz and San Francisco is now the amateur handball player of the Pacific Coast and Hawaiian Islands. All are afraid to accept his challenges.

J. Fernando Conners, the latest addition to the wheelmen's ranks, broke the record the other day by falling off his bicycle six times in one block. He tore the bosom of his trousers very severely and it took two packets of safety pins to fix him up so that he could walk up the street without being arrested. He gives an exhibition race against time every morning on his way to business and can now ride from the City Hall to THE TRIBUNE office in a few seconds less than twenty minutes. He will probably be out for the coast championship this season—how much out it is impossible yet to say.

THE WHEELMEN.

Everyone Looking Forward to the Relay Race.

The wheelmen of Oakland are taking a great deal of interest in the great 100 mile relay race around the bay, which will take place next Sunday. The finish will be in East Oakland at the corner of Ninth avenue and East Seventeenth street.

The Acme and Reliance clubs have sent the names of their teams to headquarters as follows:

Reliance—C. D. Bates, J. H. Dieckman, C. L. Taylor Jr., A. Boyden, C. Griffiths, O. H. Herbottle, R. Collins, W. H. Brainard and F. Magill.

Acme—J. R. Samuson, M. F. Rose, O. L. Pickard, F. M. Byrne, G. A. Nissen, E. C. Decker, W. Burke, J. Kitchen and Theodore Schlueter.

There will be considerable rivalry between the two local clubs for a place in the race. In the two previous contests the Acme boys defeated the Reliance both times. Last year the Reliance team made a very fair showing. The boys ran the course out all right and got a place in the finish. This year the club has placed a strong team in the field and the boys are doing some hard work getting in trim for the great contest.

Last Sunday the Reliance boys took a century run around the bay in order to select the different relay stations. The first division known as the "scorchers" left San Francisco at 7 A. M. An hour later the second division in charge of Captain George Strong left San Francisco. The pace was slow as a number of new riders took their first club run. The boys all met at Hotel Vendome, San Jose, in the afternoon, where dinner was served.

The Young Men's Christian Association Cycling Club gave a supper Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at which only members were present. The club is now in a flourishing condition. The club has appointed the following committees: Membership—E. C. Gilbert, H. L. Gilbert, E. C. Brown, J. M. Colquhoun, Charles D. Gooch, Entertainments—H. F. Kellogg, H. A. Kerr, E. C. Lyon; Racing—J. M. Colquhoun, C. C. Gilbert and R. J. McMinn.

Captain Jack Kitchen of the Acme Club is very confident these days. He thinks he has entered a team in the relay race that will make a record. The Acme boys have always cut a big figure in this annual race. Two years ago they won the pennant in grand style. Last year they lost the race by a few feet. This year every member of the team is in perfect condition and there seems to be no reason why the boys should not make a great showing.

Colonel George H. Mason has gone to riding a wheel again. In a few days he will appear on a fine new cycle.

Will Berry and Fred Knight will arrange for the judges and timers for the Reliance Club on Sunday.

ED. WHITNEY.

A Popular Young Man Goes Into Business.

The portrait which appears herewith is that of Ed. Whitney, one of the best known young men in town. He is a great lover of the flying wheel and he can be seen on his bicycle daily, going to and returning from his place of business, and especially when there is a gathering of wheelmen at San Leandro or any other place in the county.

Mr. Whitney, who for years has been connected with the tonsorial parlor of Fred Cutter, on Broadway, near Seventh street, is now the proprietor of a tonsorial establishment of his own, at 474 Tenth street, between Broadway and Washington street. He has just taken possession of the place, and it will hereafter be known as heretofore, the Fashion Tonsorial Parlor.

The Fashion is not a repository for old, decayed, worm-eaten, vermin-infested, malodorous chairs that have done service for a generation in the congenital companionship of cracked and cross-eyed mirrors. Instead, there are used the Columbia chair, the chair used in the great tonsorial parlor of the Palmer House, Chicago, to recline in which is positively a luxury. Then there are large pier mirrors of bevelled French plate, the reflection from which is perfect even on a dull day, because the whole front of the parlor is of glass and admits every ray of light.

The furniture is luxurious and the fixtures of carved oak are is rich and beautiful as any on the coast. In a word, the Fashion Parlor is the place to go to get a shave. It is neat and cosy, spacious, and all the artists there—and there are four of them—like Mr. Whitney himself, know how to handle their razors so well, that it is positively a pleasure to be shaved by them.

ED WHITNEY.

CUE AND BALL.

The Popular Game Has Had a Boom at the Clubs.

Since Schaefer and Ives visited Oakland there has been a decided boom in the game of billiards. The tables at the athletic clubs are taken up every night by young men who are anxious to become expert players.

The famous billiardists gave the local men many points on the game which will be of much benefit in the future.

The billiard tables at the athletic clubs have been a good thing. Those who enjoy the game were heretofore compelled to go into saloons if they wanted to play. Now they can go to their club and enjoy the sport among their friends. The fee charged for the use of the tables at the clubs is small and the boys are well satisfied with the way things are managed.

Billiards will always have its place in the athletic clubs. The athletes find rest in running off a game even after they have had some lively exercise.

FOR GOOD ROADS.

Strenuous Efforts Being Made by the Reliance Club.

The Good Roads Committee held a meeting at the Reliance Club rooms last night and discussed the situation. Much interest is taken in the work of this committee by the wheelmen in general. The committee last night decided to make an appeal to the various boards for better roads.

The work of the Committee might well be carried on in Oakland alone. The streets in this city, as a general rule, are hard on the wheel. The main thoroughfares where bitumen is used are all right. On most of the macadamized streets the opportunity for riding is very poor. In Alameda there can hardly be found a macadamized street that it is not a pleasure to ride on. It is true that some of the streets are comparatively new and it is also true that many of them are old. They are all good, though, and are well patronized by the wheelmen.

The road between Oakland and Alameda over the marsh is in bad condition. It seems a pity that this road cannot be improved in a proper manner. If this were a smooth road it would make one of the finest and best drives in this vicinity.

ON THE CREEK.

Some Lively Times on the Brooklyn Basin.

The boating men are coming to the front this season. Almost every afternoon some of the crews can be seen at work in the Brooklyn basin. The season is young yet but still nearly all the oarsmen have come out.

The Columbia Rowing Club which has been quiet for so long, has put a fine crew to work. Nearly every Sunday the boys show up in the water and do some hard work. The Columbia Club has some fine boats in stock. The crew will be seen in a number of races during the season.

The University team is not losing any time in getting into condition for the contest with the Stanford boys. This will be a very interesting race as it will be the first inter-collegiate contest. Hereafter it is proposed to have one contest every year for the championship.

The Oakland Navy will hold its regular monthly race on the estuary next Sunday afternoon. The boys interested in the Navy say that there will be much rivalry in the race, as some new members will enter speedy boats. The Navy race always draws out a large number of boats.

The Oakland Canoe Club has not held a regatta for a long time. The members of the club are talking up a grand Fourth of July regatta. They want to get every boat owner in the creek interested in the affair. It is proposed to have all kinds of races, and to offer prizes for the winners.

TENNIS NEGLECTED.

The Sport Does Not Seem Very Popular This Year.

The tennis players do not seem to be in the race this season. Nearly all the courts are closed, and there has not been a suggestion of a tournament in Oakland. The boys who used to keep up the interest in tennis have nearly all joined the ranks of the wheelmen. Many of the courts will never be opened again, as the leases to the grounds have been given up. Tennis never was a very exciting sport, and many of the boys will not be sorry that it has dropped out of sight.

AGITATED WHEELMEN.

Provisions of the Sidewalk Riding Ordinance.

Bicyclers are becoming very much excised over the rigid enforcement of the ordinance regarding the use of sidewalks by wheelmen. Every day they visit the office of Chief Schaffer to ascertain the exact provisions of the ordinance under which arrests are being made.

The ordinance, contrary to popular belief, permits riding on the sidewalks between the hours of 6 A. M. and 6 P. M., with the proviso that wheelmen shall dismount when reaching a pedestrian. The restrictive clause virtually prohibits the use of certain sidewalks, for on crowded thoroughfares bicyclers would be unable to comply with its provisions, unless they were jumping jacks. Other regulations prescribe that a lighted lantern shall be carried after 6 o'clock, or sundown.

New Registers.

The Columbia Cash Register Company of this city has entered the field with its new street car fare register. The first sale of 100 registers was made today to San Francisco parties, with strong competition in the field. This is a local company, but preparations are being made to introduce its registers in all the large cities of the East. Local street car men pronounce the new machine a model of beauty and far superior to any of the Eastern registers now on the market.

Choice Cycles.

The business which E. C. Lund, the proprietor of the Central Cyclery, in Central Bank building, on Fourteenth street, near Broadway, is doing in bicycles is simply remarkable. He has hosts of customers because the wheels he handles are readily appreciated by those who desire to ride the "best steed." These wheels are the Cleveland, the Ben Hur, the Tribune and the Monarch. Mr. Lund's cyclery is the largest in Oakland. It is fitted up luxuriously and has every accommodation, notably a dressing-room, presided over by a lady for the accommodation of lady lovers of the wheel. Mr. Lund also makes a specialty of teaching riding and is an adept in the business.

Messrs Osgood Bros.—Allow me to say that I had glandular abscesses and scrofula for five long years and had tried every remedy I could find. A lady seeing my case recommended me to buy Valentine's Blood Syrup. I did not have the money to do so but kind friends secured the medicine for me and it was the most wonderful medicine that I ever saw. In a week the sores began to heal and stop running, and in four weeks they entirely healed. They had been running five years without once stopping.
